President's Message

Ashok M. Saraf,
President, RSET

Dear Reader,

At the outset, I convey my warm greetings to everyone at the beginning of the new academic year!

As we navigate through another vibrant academic year, our educational trust remains deeply committed to providing an environment where every student is encouraged to explore their potential, think critically, and grow into compassionate global citizens. Swami Vivekananda said " Arise awake and stop not till the goal is reached" This phrase very aptly applies to the endless educational journey of Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust. Our Team of Office-bearers and Managing Committee members are continuously striving to provide latest knowledge to the student community that are needed by the industry to facilitate suitable placement of the students after completion of their graduation and post-graduation.

In the past few months, many important activities have taken place in our campus. The Sr. Kg. children of Ramniwas Bajaj English High School, Kudilal Govindram Seksaria English School and Mainadevi Bajaj International School celebrated their Graduation Day with joy and enthusiasm. They danced and sang confidently showcasing their talents. Dressed in graduation attire, they received their scrolls and photo frames with special appreciation titles and were proudly promoted from pre-primary to primary, marking a significant milestone. Mainadevi Bajaj International School also celebrated Graduation Day of Grade V, Grade X and Grade XII students.

It is my pleasure to state that the Degree Distribution Ceremony of Ghanshyamdas Saraf College of Arts and Commerce, Deviprasad Goenka Management College of Media Studies and Ladhidevi Ramdhar Maheshwari Night College of Commerce for graduating students were held in the months of April and May 2026 in a grand manner in Durgadevi Saraf Hall. Durgadevi Saraf Institute of Management Studies (DSIMS) and Durgadevi Saraf Global Business School (DSGS) celebrated the 14th Annual Degree Distribution Ceremony for MMS Batch 2023-2025 and the 5th Annual Convocation Ceremony for PGDM Batch 2024-2026 on 16th May 2026 in Durgadevi Saraf Hall. These ceremonies represented not merely the culmination of academic journeys of the students, but the beginning of a new chapter of professional growth, leadership and responsible contribution to society.

In this academic quarter, institutions of higher education organized many workshops, guest lectures, seminars and conferences. Deviprasad Goenka Management College of Media Studies, in collaboration with Govindram Seksaria Institute of Management and Research (Indore), successfully conducted a one-week online Faculty Development Programme (FDP) titled Innovative Teaching and Research Practices from 23–29 June 2026 on Zoom Platform.

I am happy to state that the construction of the building for our new Dhurmal Bajaj Bhavan and proposed Skill Tech University is progressing at a fast pace. It is a matter of great pride that the new academic year heralded with 100% result of the students of Ramniwas Bajaj English High School (ICSE Board) Mainadevi Bajaj International School (Cambridge Board), Kudilal Govindram Seksaria Sarvodaya School and Kudilal Govindram Seksaria English School (SSC Board) at the Board Examinations held in February- March 2025. I convey my heartfelt compliments to the Principals, Staff and Students of the schools.

Pravinchandra D. Shah Sports Academy (PDSA) of RSET is also doing an excellent job of nurturing potential young talent in various items of sports and games under the training of expert coaches.

Like plants that provide shade after growing into big shady trees, we wish that students cared and nurtured by all our institutions will turn into rich human resources for our country as they become matured individuals.

I solicit the co-operation and support of all Donors, Trustees, members of Managing Committee and well -wishers to be part of our educational journey.

It inspires us to question,

Dear Reader,

Warm Greetings for the New Academic Year!

Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust ( RSET) has been a symbol of quality education accessible by students hailing from different social and economic strata in the western suburbs of Mumbai for the past seventy eight years. Our institutions have upheld the highest standards of academic delivery to students while being adaptive to the dynamic education ecosystem of our country. # Message from Chief Mentor (Schools)

Archita Saraf Rajpuria,
Trustee, RSET

Dear Reader,

It is with immense pride and joy that I address you today as I reflect on how MBIS has grown from strength to strength over the years.

What makes me most proud is that MBIS is growing not just in size, but in spirit. We have expanded our AS Levels to 2 divisions to give students greater choice and academic flexibility. More importantly, we now offer a wider bouquet of subjects, giving students the freedom to choose pathways aligned with their passions — whether in Mathematics, Sciences, Humanities, Commerce, Media or the Arts.

At MBIS , we see growth as an ongoing journey of learning, renewal, and transformation. Every new programme, every new division, every new club is rooted in one belief: that education must be balanced, relevant and human.

VISIONARY and CONSISTENT

To strengthen our commitment towards our Primary learners, we continue to introduce meaningful opportunities that extend learning beyond the classroom:

- Japanese SHIN Edupower Programme: The programme nurtures discipline, attention to detail, cultural sensitivity and cognitive flexibility-essential skills for navigating an increasingly interconnected world.
- TED-Ed: Our Primary students are also being trained as TED-Ed speakers, empowering them to articulate ideas with clarity, confidence and conviction. Developing their voice, structure and sense of purpose helps them become more effective communicators.
- Junior MUN Programme: The skills cultivated through TED-Ed are now extending naturally into our Junior MUN programme, where students are learning to research thoughtfully, debate respectfully and engage with multiple perspectives. It is inspiring to see how early exposure to dialogue can nurture confident, thoughtful young leaders.

EMPOWERED and PURPOSEFUL

One of the hallmarks of MBIS is our commitment to evolve with times while staying rooted in our core values and building skills for life.

Home Economics: In Grades 6 to 8, students develop practical wisdom through Home Economics lessons. Cooking, budgeting, responsible consumption and care for self and others equip them with essential life skills, fostering independence and preparing them to contribute meaningfully at home and in society.

To encourage passion, purpose and leadership we are introducing 5 new clubs this year:

- MBIS Eco Warriors: This will foster environmental awareness and sustainable thinking,
- MBIS Media Mavens: This club provides a creative platform for students to explore media, communication, storytelling and digital expression.
- MBIS Page Turners: This will encourage students to exchange ideas, engage in thoughtful discussions and develop a deeper appreciation for literature.
- MBIS SEWA Squad: Rooted in the spirit of service, this club empowers students to identify community needs and a strong sense of social responsibility.
- MBIMUN: Through Model United Nations, students develop research, diplomacy, public speaking, negotiation and critical-thinking skills while engaging with global issues and diverse perspectives.

INSPIRING AND COLLABORATIVE

Our AS Level students have also taken ownership of student life in the most remarkable way. It was they who conceptualized and launched MBIMUN, an initiative of the students, for the students, by the students. This year, they are set to create history with MBIMUN 2.0.

MBIMUN 2.0 will welcome schools from in and around Mumbai, bringing together young minds to find solutions to real-world issues. It will be a milestone where our students step into global citizenship with confidence and compassion.

As we move forward, let us continue to build a school where children are heard, skills are practiced and dreams are given wings.

Thank you to my team for forming our Vision into everyday practice.

With warm regards and great hope for the year ahead!

Dear Reader

Warm Greetings for the New Academic Year !

According to Nelson Mandela, "Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world.". We are proud to state that students of all institutions run by our Trust are faring excellently in every field. The Management has provided to all institutions best infrastructure, techno-savvy ambience, latest gadgets, ever increasing new job-oriented courses and ample scope for participation in co- curricular and extra-curricular activities.

The National Education Policy (NEP 2020) advocates skill-based education and vocational programming. Skill Tech Universities emphasize on this ideal and also focus on industry mentorship to ensure that students are ready for a fast paced workplace in a global market. To equip the students with necessary skills as needed by the industry, the Management of Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust (RSET) is in the process of starting a Skill Tech university. While the infrastructure is in progress, staff and consultants have been appointed and the office has been set-up opposite RSET campus.

In this academic quarter, institutions of higher education organized many workshops, guest lectures, seminars ,conferences and faculty development programmes. International Yoga Day was celebrated in a grand manner on 20th June by Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust in Durgadevi Saraf Hall with Smt Sharda Bubna, Trustee RSET and Yogacharya of repute as the Chief Guest. Ramdhar Maheshwari Career Counseling Centre remained active by extending support to students in career guidance, for overseas education and mentoring students with learning difficulties. Students of our institutions were involved in many outreach programmes through the Rotaract Club, NSS & DLLE units of their respective institutions. In sports, Pravinchandra D. Shah Sports Academy organized a summer camp in the month of May which witnessed enthusiastic participation from children across various age groups.

Team work is the hall mark of the institutes of Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust. I am sure that through collaborative efforts, we can achieve more to benefit our students who are the future leaders of tomorrow.

"The more that you read, the more things you will know, the more that you learn, the more places you'll go."

Growel Science Lab
At KGSS

Dear Reader,

Warm greetings for the new academic year!

I am pleased to note that Growel Science Laboratory at Kudilal Govindram Seksaria Sarvodaya School plays a vital role in developing scientific curiosity, practical knowledge and an experimental attitude among students. It provides students with an opportunity to understand scientific concepts beyond textbooks through observation and hands-on learning. The laboratory is well-equipped, systematically maintained and used regularly by students under the guidance of trained Science teachers.

It is interesting to note that students of Standard V are introduced to simple experiments such as the identification of living and non-living things, understanding the properties of air and water, basic separation techniques such as filtration and sedimentation, and observing magnets and their properties. In Standard VI, students perform experiments related to acids, bases and salts using indicators, study the components of food, observe changes such as evaporation and condensation, study plant parts and their functions, and make simple electric circuits. These activities help them understand the practical applications of science in everyday life. Standard VII students explore physical and chemical changes, heat and temperature, conduct tests on soil and water samples, study the respiratory system, and prepare simple solutions. For Standard VIII, laboratory activities focus on important concepts such as force and pressure, friction, sound and vibrations, and basic chemical reactions.

In Standards IX and X, students undertake more advanced experiments, including determination of density, verification of the laws of motion, verification of Ohm's Law, determination of the focal length of lenses and mirrors, study of the pH of solutions, identification of salts, and observation of exothermic and endothermic reactions.

I am happy to know that Growel Science Laboratory at KGSS is also used by students of Kudilal Govindram Seksaria English School. I wish a great future to all the institutions of Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust.

STEERING TO SUCCESS

Education is the passport to the future, for tomorrow belongs to those who prepare for it today.
– William Butler Yeats

As the new academic year unfolded, the second quarter of 2026 became a period of important decisions and fresh beginnings for students and parents alike. From board examination results and college admissions to career exploration and overseas education planning, every stage brought new opportunities—and new questions.

At Ramdhar Maheshwari Career Counseling Centre (RMCC), the focus remained steadfast: empowering students to make informed choices while providing parents with the confidence that every decision is backed by scientific assessment, expert guidance, and personalized mentoring. Through a holistic approach that integrates career counseling, emotional well-being, mentorship, special education, and global education guidance, RMCC continued to support learners in building meaningful futures.

Empowering Students Through Personalized Career Guidance

Every student is unique, and so is their career journey. Throughout the quarter, RMCC continued to help students discover their strengths, interests, aptitude, and potential through comprehensive career assessments and one-to-one counseling.

Rather than recommending careers based solely on academic scores, counselors worked closely with students and families to identify educational pathways that aligned with each student's personality, aspirations, and long-term goals. This personalized approach enabled students to make confident decisions regarding subject selection, undergraduate courses, career options, and future planning.

Parents particularly appreciated having a structured, research-based process that reduced uncertainty and helped transform difficult career decisions into well-informed choices.

Mentorship That Goes Beyond Counseling

For many students, success depends not only on choosing the right course but also on having continuous guidance throughout their academic journey. RMCC's Mentorship Program continued to serve as a dependable support system for students in Grades 10, 11, and 12 during one of the most crucial phases of their education.

Following the declaration of board results, mentors worked closely with students and parents to navigate junior college admissions, undergraduate applications, entrance examinations, and career planning. Individual mentoring sessions helped students understand admission procedures, shortlist suitable institutions, prepare for competitive examinations, and utilize their vacations productively through profile building and skill development.

This continuous engagement ensured that students remained focused, motivated, and well-prepared, while parents benefited from expert guidance during an otherwise overwhelming admission season.

Opening Doors to Global Opportunities

Studying abroad has become an aspiration for many Indian students, but choosing the right university, country, and course requires careful planning. RMCC continued to guide aspiring students through every stage of their international education journey.

From identifying the best-fit universities to preparing Statements of Purpose, planning applications, understanding visa requirements, and selecting suitable countries, students received comprehensive support tailored to their individual aspirations. Guidance was provided for destinations including the United Kingdom, Germany, Spain, the United States, Singapore, and other emerging global education hubs.

Preparation for international entrance examinations such as IELTS, SAT, and GMAT further enabled students to strengthen their profiles and compete confidently for global opportunities.

Inclusive Education: Supporting Every Learner

At RMCC, academic success is meaningful only when every learner receives the opportunity to thrive.

Throughout the quarter, the Special Education team worked collaboratively with teachers, counselors, and parents to design individualized interventions for students with learning differences and developmental challenges. Comprehensive psycho-educational assessments, structured remediation sessions, and personalized home and summer learning plans ensured continuity of support beyond the classroom. Regular parent consultations strengthened partnerships between home and school, enabling families to better understand their child's learning needs and actively contribute to their progress. This collaborative model continues to build confidence not only in students but also in parents seeking long-term educational support.

Building Stronger Schools through Collaborative Partnerships

RMCC's close partnerships with educational institutions continued to strengthen student support systems across campuses.

Counselors actively collaborated with school leadership, teachers, and parents through classroom observations, counseling sessions, parent interactions, and early intervention planning. As schools commenced the new academic year, RMCC supported the establishment of structured counseling systems, student documentation, and individualized intervention plans to ensure timely assistance for students requiring academic, behavioural, or emotional support.

Teacher capacity-building also remained an important focus. Workshops on Learning Difficulties and Behaviour Management equipped educators with practical classroom strategies, enabling schools to create more inclusive, supportive, and student-centric learning environments.

Preparing Students for Careers, Not Just Examinations

Recognizing that future success requires much more than academic excellence, RMCC launched its Career Development Program for students of Durgadevi Saraf Junior College and Ghanshyamdas Saraf College. The program is designed to develop career awareness, communication skills, professional etiquette, self-management, and workplace readiness. By exposing students to structured career planning at an early stage, RMCC is helping bridge the gap between classroom learning and future employability.

This initiative reflects RMCC's belief that preparing students for life is as important as preparing them for examinations.

Extending Guidance beyond the Counseling Room

Throughout the quarter, RMCC continued to reach a wider student and parent community through awareness campaigns, webinars, digital outreach, seminars, and educational content. Timely guidance during the board examination result season encouraged families to look beyond marks and rankings and instead focus on choosing the right educational pathways. These initiatives reaffirmed RMCC's commitment to making quality career guidance accessible to every student at the right time.

Creating Confident Learners and Future-Ready Individuals

Every counseling session, mentorship interaction, parent meeting, classroom observation, and workshop conducted during this quarter reflected one common purpose-to help students discover their potential and pursue meaningful futures with confidence. By integrating career counseling, mentorship, overseas education guidance, emotional well-being, special education, and institutional partnerships under one roof, RMCC continues to provide comprehensive support that extends far beyond academic advice. As students prepare for the opportunities and challenges of an ever-evolving world, RMCC remains committed to partnering with schools, parents, and students in building confident, resilient, and future-ready individuals-one informed decision at a time.

Mr. Dharmraj Yadav,
Sports Incharge

The month of April concluded on an inspiring and memorable note for PDSA as our basketball programme once again showcased its excellence at the highest level of state competition. Continuous dedication towards athlete development, disciplined training, and a structured coaching system resulted in remarkable achievements for both our players and coaching staff.

One of the biggest highlights of the month was the selection of Samiksha Sapaliga and Raj Igave to represent the Greater Mumbai North District Basketball Association at the prestigious 76th Maharashtra State Basketball Championship, held in Nashik.

Representing one's district at the Maharashtra State Championship is a significant milestone in every young basketball player's career. The championship brought together the finest district teams from across Maharashtra, providing a platform for the state's most talented young athletes to compete at an elite level.

Both Samiksha and Raj earned their places in the district squad through consistent performances, hard work during training sessions, and outstanding performances in district-level competitions. Their selection itself was a matter of immense pride for PDSA, reflecting the academy's commitment towards nurturing talented athletes capable of competing at higher levels.

Adding further glory to the academy, both the Under-18 Girls Team and the Under-18 Boys Team of Greater Mumbai North finished as Runner-up at the championship. Competing against some of Maharashtra's strongest basketball districts, the teams displayed exceptional teamwork, discipline, determination, and sportsmanship throughout the tournament.

The success of these young athletes is not merely a personal achievement but also a reflection of the quality coaching environment created at PDSA. Their performances demonstrated months of dedicated practice, technical development, physical conditioning, and mental preparation.

Another proud achievement during the championship was the recognition received by PDSA Head Coach Mr. Kshitij Abnave. Based on his consistent contribution towards player development and his growing reputation within Maharashtra basketball, he was entrusted with dual responsibilities by the district association:

- Coach – Under-18 Girls Team
- Manager – Under-18 Boys Team

Receiving such important responsibilities at a prestigious state championship is a testimony to Coach Kshitij's leadership qualities, technical expertise, and commitment towards developing young basketball talent.

Managing two different responsibilities simultaneously required excellent planning, communication, discipline, and decision-making throughout the tournament. His appointment reflected the confidence placed in him by the Greater Mumbai North District Basketball Association.

The achievements of both players and coach during April further strengthened PDSA's standing as one of Mumbai's emerging centres for basketball excellence. These accomplishments serve as motivation for younger athletes who aspire to represent their district, state, and eventually the nation.

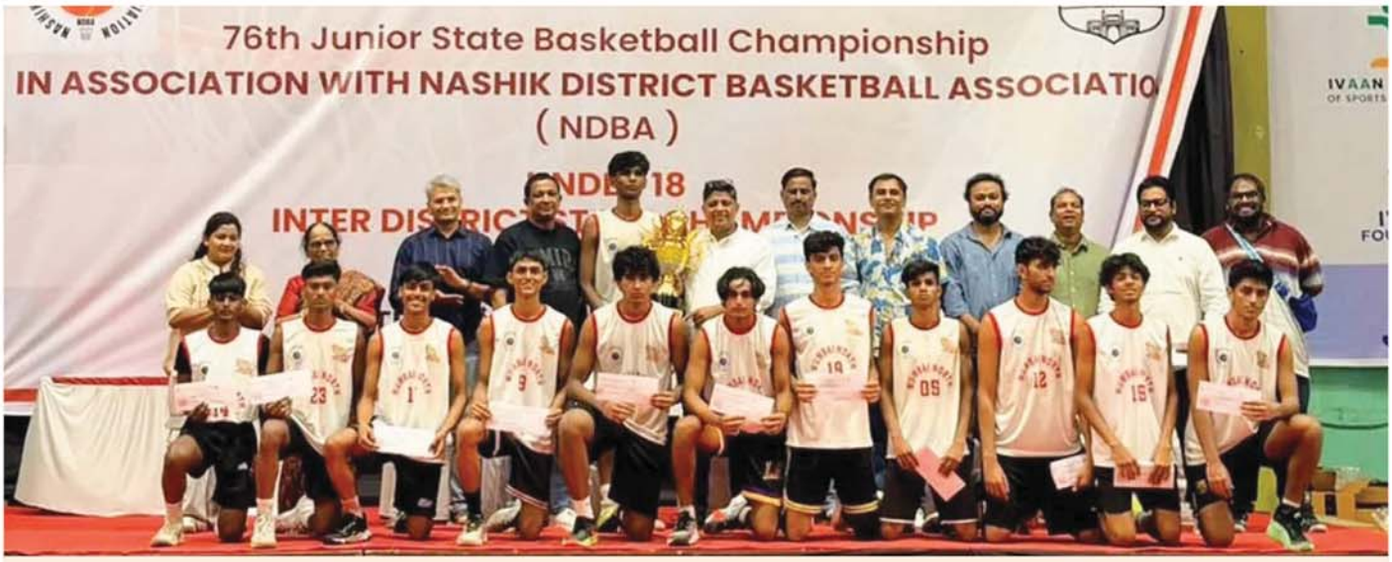

The month concluded with immense pride as PDSA celebrated yet another milestone in its journey of producing quality athletes and respected coaches.

MAY 2026 – A Month of Learning, Development and National Recognition

The overwhelming response from parents and students once again demonstrated the growing trust that the community places in PDSA's coaching programmes.

Adding another feather to PDSA's cap, Basketball Coach Mr. Vivek Yadav successfully completed the prestigious NSNIS Basketball Diploma Course at the Sports Authority of India (SAI), Bengaluru, securing Distinction.

The Netaji Subhas National Institute of Sports (NSNIS) is India's premier institute for sports coaching education and functions under the Sports Authority of India. The diploma programme is considered one of the country's highest coaching qualifications for sports professionals.

The course provides comprehensive training in:

- Modern basketball coaching methodology
- Sports science

- Sports psychology
- Strength and conditioning
- Injury prevention and rehabilitation

Throughout the programme, coaches undergo intensive theoretical learning, practical coaching sessions, physical assessments, technical evaluations, lesson planning, and final examinations. Successfully completing this demanding programme with Distinction is a remarkable achievement that reflects Coach Vivek's dedication to continuous professional development and excellence in coaching. His enhanced knowledge and exposure to advanced coaching methodologies will significantly benefit the young athletes training at PDSA, ensuring that they receive scientifically designed, modern, and internationally aligned basketball coaching.

The month concluded with another proud moment as PDSA Football Head Coach Mr. Maloy Sengupta received national recognition for his exceptional contribution towards youth football development.

With over 26 years of dedicated service to football, Coach Maloy has played a pivotal role in nurturing young footballers across India and has contributed significantly towards grassroots football development. His coaching philosophy emphasizes technical excellence, discipline, character building, and long-term athlete development.

In recognition of his lifelong commitment to the sport, he was honoured with the prestigious Heroes of India Sports Excellency Award 2026, presented by the Hindustan Book of Records during one of Rajasthan's biggest award ceremonies.

A Teacher: The Living Constant in an Era of Educational Flux

Smitha Matai
Asst. Vice President, Training
Orient Blackswan Pvt. Ltd.

The 21st century has ushered in an era of unprecedented acceleration. Around the world, computers and the internet are rapidly taking over traditional ways of working, and information is moving faster than our minds can naturally process. In the middle of all this massive change, education is reaching a major turning point. Smart screens have replaced traditional blackboards, artificial intelligence designs personalised lessons for every child, and enormous digital libraries have made learning available to everyone like never before. Today, a student in a small, distant village using an affordable tablet can watch the very same university lectures taught at top global institutions like Oxford or MIT, complete with instant language translation and tests that adapt to their level.

Even as the way we learn undergoes massive changes, we must ask a simple question: What is education really about?

If school is only about memorising facts and passing tests, then computers and apps could easily replace people. But if education is truly about shaping a child's heart and mind-building good character, teaching right from wrong, and helping them find their way in life—then technology is just a modern tool, nothing more.

Through all the digital upgrades and changing trends, the one thing that must never change is the caring, humane teacher. Only a real teacher can pass on core values, nurture true empathy, and guide children with the real life skills they need to grow into good human beings.

Teaching the Mind vs. Shaping the Heart

It is easy to mistake access to information for the attainment of wisdom. Today's educational technology platforms are marvels of cognitive engineering. They can diagnose a learner's difficulty in solving quadratic equations in milliseconds, offer differentiated practice modules, and gamify complex historical timelines to keep dopamine levels high. They do not tire, they do not lose patience, and they operate around the clock.

However, an algorithm operates purely on logic, pattern recognition, and probabilities. It cannot look into a child's eyes and discern that an unsubmitted assignment is not a sign of intellectual deficiency or laziness, but the quiet cry of a young spirit wrestling with turmoil at home. A machine cannot sense the sudden withdrawal of an introverted teenager, nor can it offer the delicate, unspoken reassurance of a calm presence in a chaotic world.

The Moral Ecosystem of the Classroom

Values cannot be taught through bullet points on a screen; they are absorbed through real human connection. A child's character is shaped by daily moments in the classroom, guided entirely by the teacher.

Take integrity. A computer system uses tracking cameras to catch cheating, teaching children to obey out of fear. A teacher, however, builds true honesty by praising genuine effort over easy marks, treating mistakes as learning steps, and offering trust. This helps students develop a real conscience rather than just looking for shortcuts.

The same is true for empathy. The classroom brings together children from all backgrounds. When heated arguments happen, no software can heal hurt feelings. It takes a caring, thoughtful teacher to calm tensions, listen to different viewpoints, and show students how to disagree respectfully without being unkind.

The teacher's physical presence embodies values in real time:

- Fairness: The consistency with which praise and correction are distributed without prejudice.
- Resilience: The calm demeanour of an educator when a planned lesson collapses, demonstrating how to pivot gracefully under pressure.

• Kindness: The quiet, unrecorded gesture of keeping a student back for thirty seconds just to say, "I noticed you were quiet today; is everything alright?"

These are not curricular line items that can be coded into a learning management system. They are the living pulse of human community.

Cultivating Real Life Skills for an Unpredictable Future

Much has been written about the "skills of the future"-critical thinking, creativity, collaboration, and emotional agility. Interestingly, these skills cannot be copied by machines. They come naturally from real human relationships and depend entirely on the situation.

1. Emotional Resilience and the Grace of Failure

Modern software is designed to optimise success and minimise friction. If a student fails a level in an educational app, the system gently lowers the difficulty or prompts an immediate hint. But real life does not offer dynamic difficulty adjustment. Real life presents heartbreak, professional rejection, personal loss, and prolonged periods of uncertainty.

A teacher teaches students how to sit with failure. When a student pours weeks of effort into a project and still falls short, the machine issues a red score and moves on. A teacher sits beside that devastated child, acknowledges the sting of disappointment, helps them deconstruct the missteps without shame, and looks them in the eye to say, "This result does not define your worth. Dust yourself off; we are going to try again." That single interaction builds a reservoir of psychological resilience that carries an individual through life's inevitable crises decades later.

2. Learning to Think to Find the Truth

Today, children are surrounded by endless online content, from fake news and altered videos to social media bubbles that only show one point of view. Teaching young people to think clearly is no longer just about following textbook logic; it is about giving them the courage and good judgement to spot the truth.

A real teacher helps students recognize their own blind spots as they happen. They encourage children to question what they take for granted, ask why an app shows them certain posts, and understand the real human motives behind events in history. By guiding classroom discussions, a teacher gets students to explain their views out loud, defend them with sound reasons, and willingly change their minds when faced with new facts. This back-and-forth conversation between human minds is where true intelligence is built.

3. Collaboration, Conflict Resolution, and Compromise

Putting students into online group calls with a shared document does not teach teamwork; it just manages the setup. Real teamwork is messy. It means dealing with teammates who do not do their part, sorting out disagreements over different ideas, and learning to give feedback without hurting feelings.

Teachers are the ones who guide students through these difficult moments. They watch how groups interact and step in-not just to fix the problem for them, but to teach students how to negotiate, compromise, and take responsibility together. These are the vital life skills that help a person succeed at work, build strong personal relationships, and become a good member of society.

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops."
– Henry Adams

Behind almost every great thinker, scientist, artist, or leader, there is a teacher who believed in them before anyone else did.

Think of the struggling student labelled "unfit for school" whose life completely turned around because one teacher noticed his curiosity for nature and gave him extra time after class. Or the first child in a family to finish school, frightened by the idea of university, until a teacher said, "You belong here, and I will help you apply."

Teachers have the rare power to rewrite how children see themselves. Many students walk into class weighed down by negative labels: "I am not smart enough," "I am bad at maths," or "No one notices me."

While a computer program only judges a child by current test scores, a caring teacher sees who that child could become. By looking past the labels and offering steady encouragement, a teacher changes what a student believes is possible.

When adults look back on the moments that truly changed their lives, they never mention an app, a textbook, or an exam score. They remember a quiet conversation after class, a handwritten word of praise in the margin of a notebook, or a teacher who simply refused to give up on them. That kind of human support never fades-it shapes who they become and ripples forward through generations.

The Harmonious Future: Technology as the Assistant, Teacher as the Soul

Standing up for the teacher's role does not mean being against technology. In fact, when used well, digital tools can free teachers from endless paperwork, repetitive grading, and routine practice drills.

Technology should take care of the everyday chores so teachers have more time to focus on what truly matters: the human side of learning.

In the ideal modern classroom:

• The digital app spots where a student struggles; the teacher gives them the confidence to keep trying.

• The digital visual shows how shapes and nature work; the teacher sparks real wonder and curiosity about the world.

• The software shares the lesson facts; the teacher shapes the values, ethics, and kindness that give those facts meaning.

Technology is simply an instrument, and the teacher is the musician. Without the musician, even the finest instrument makes only cold, lifeless sound.

The Unshakable Foundation

As we look toward an unpredictable future where automation will reshape industries, careers, and the very fabric of daily living, our educational priorities must become clearer, not cloudier. The more automated our external world becomes, the more intentional we must be about preserving our internal humanity.

We do not need fewer teachers in the digital age; we need more deeply valued, empowered, and human-centred educators. We need teachers who understand that their primary calling is not merely to cover a syllabus, but to uncover a child's soul.

Systems will change, curricula will evolve, tools will modernise, and artificial intelligence will continue to expand its frontiers. But the sacred, transformative dynamic of a dedicated teacher standing with a young learner-guiding them through confusion, steadying them through failure, inspiring them through example, and anchoring them in timeless human values-is an eternal truth. It has stood for millennia, and it must remain the unshakable cornerstone of education for all generations to come.

Memorable Events/ Journey in the Institution:
In my experience Annual Day celebration is a major attraction of the institution, as it is a time to celebrate the efforts put in by the students in the domain of academics as well as extra-curricular; in the form of Certificates and Trophies. Annual Days are not only gathering of participants but also ideas which are presented in the form of various dance performances, skits, singing event and anchoring. Skits have always regaled me so much so that I offer my ideas even today as an alumni to train the students to stage effective skits to take the event further in a smooth way. The positive environment which gets created due to the celebratory mood of everyone present at the event soaks you in and gives you the kind of energy required to train students for presenting Skit. They reciprocate the same and present entertaining performances. The Cheers and Claps which one receives for the performance makes one to go a step further and make it more interesting, engaging and entertaining. One really needs to enjoy these moments as these times will never come back in life.

Beyond his generosity, Mr. Kerk was an exceptional educator, known for his ability to make complex concepts approachable and engaging, which greatly inspired my interest in learning.

Reflecting on my journey, I am excited to announce that I have been accepted into the University of California, San Diego, where I will pursue my bachelor's degree in Aerospace Engineering. UCSD is renowned as the 3rd best public university in the United States, offering a dynamic environment that I believe will be instrumental in shaping my future career. # Our Gratitude to the Large Donors of

Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust

Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust today is a reputed name in the field of education with multiple educational institutions offering education from Nursery to post graduate studies in management and media studies. Approximately 16,000 students study across various schools and colleges located in the state-of-the-art RSET campus in Malad (Mumbai).

This transformation and growth of RSET has been brought about by some of the visionaries who were associated with the Trust since 1948 and had the far sightedness to empower the community through education. What started as a single school for the girl child way back in 1950's today has metamorphosed to multiple educational institutions and students.

RSET owes its gratitude to the benevolence of its Large Donor families who had the vision to invest for the cause of education way back in the early years and have continued to do it over the years, knowing fully well that investment in knowledge pays the best interest. And rightly so. From time to time all our Large Donor families who have been associated with RSET have seen their investment in education come to fruition and we are reaping the fruits of their vision through the various institutes and the infrastructural facilities that have been built at RSET some of which have been named as per the desire of our esteemed Donors and membership as per RSET rules were given as per the membership rules prevailing at that time.

RSET today is an aspirational brand and is on a growth run. While we are fortunate to have many large existing Donor families associated with us, there are still a large number of Donors wanting to associate with us.

All our Donor Trustees, Office Bearers and Managing Committee Members bring with them an extensive experience and knowledge of running their successful enterprises. It is largely due to their efforts, vision and commitment that RSET has grown in the size and stature. Our gratitude to all our Members for joining with us in our educational endeavours.

Thank you Donors

Our family of donors include illustrious business families, individuals, corporate partners, foundations and all those people who are committed to our philosophy of providing "Quality Education for All" and have been coming forward with their contribution from time to time to create an institution of educational excellence.

Through these columns, we thank and acknowledge the support of our donors for their generous contribution over the years. Your support and contribution plays an important role in helping Rajasthani Sammelan to achieve its mission of developing a community dedicated to achieving national and international levels of excellence in various fields of education.

Your generosity has significantly contributed and helped the students in various areas. Every donation that you make impacts the life of our students in some way or the other. Your contribution has helped us build various institutes of excellence with the best infrastructure that include state of the art computer labs, knowledge resource centre, communication centre, health centre, educational outlet, sports facilities and scholarships instituted for meritorious students. All our institutes have benefitted immensely from your support.

Undoubtedly, you as our esteemed donors have made Rajasthani Sammelan stand tall in stature and have helped it grow from time to time. Like you, there have been many others whose contribution to Rajasthani Sammelan way back in the early 1950s has been significant and notable. And we gratefully acknowledge their noteworthy contribution in setting up the edifice of this great institution.

We gratefully acknowledge the contribution made by Late Shri Kudilalji Seksaria who donated the land on which the current structure of Rajasthani Sammelan stands. This contribution cannot be valued in terms of money, and it would only undermine his contribution if we were to measure this in monetary terms.

At the same time, had it not been for the significant contribution of Rs. 50,000/- by Shri Brijmohan Ruia (Brijmohan Laxminarayan Ruia Charity Trust) way back around the year 1950, the landmark Sarvodaya Balika Vidyalaya would not have come up. A small dream way back in early 1950s has today paved the way for a number of institutions under the banner of Rajasthani Sammelan. As they say, "It all begins with a Dream".

We are proud to have you all as an integral part of the positive impact and an enduring legacy that we are creating at Rajasthani Sammelan. May your benevolence continue to bring about the change we wish to see in our educational system. We stand committed to spread our wings and fly higher. In this journey of growth, we seek your continued support.

We constantly endeavour to maintain accuracy in the list of donors and we thank you for the feedback in case of any discrepancy that has been noted. Should there be any errors or omissions in this list, we urge you to contact our Donations Officer on rs@rajasthani.org.in
