EDITORIAL

“ Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky,
The flying cloud, the frosty light...
The year is going, let him go;
Ring out the false, ring in the true...
Ring in the nobler modes of life,
With sweeter manners, purer laws...
Ring in the love of truth and right,
Ring in the common love of good... ”

The poem 'Ring out wild bells' was penned down by famous British poet laureate Alfred Lord Tennyson welcoming the New Year with the wistful desire of all good things to happen in the New Year. Through this issue of Abacus, we wish all the readers a very happy New Year and wish that the New Year brings happiness and joy along with it for all.

The month of January started with many interesting events taking place in our country, in Mumbai as well as in our campus. On Saturday 12th January, 2013 Mumbai joined the nationwide celebrations to mark the 150 birth anniversary of Swami Vivekanand. This day is observed as National Youth Day in his memory. Born as Narendra Nath Dutta in 1863, the young sanyasi was instrumental in spreading the values of Vedanta and Yoga to the world. He passed away at the age of 39.

It was felt that the philosophy of Swamiji and the ideals for which he lived and worked could be a great source of inspiration for the Indian Youth. That is why, his birthday is observed as National Youth Day every year. Swamiji's most unique contribution to the creation of new India was to open the minds of Indians to their duty to the downtrodden masses. He also stressed upon inculcating moral values in youth.

As we celebrate the 150th birth anniversary of Swami Vivekanand, we must question ourselves about how much moral values are taught to our young generation. The recent heinous crime committed on a young woman at Delhi followed by her death is a blot to humanity and reminds us that how much Indian youth need to be taught moral values. Educating the youth in proper way, further engage them in gainful employment and to sensitize them to respect women, children and elders is the need of the hour. All academicians, administrators and NGOs must unite together to work for strengthening the character of modern youth and also work for the downtrodden. Then only we can truly contribute in the celebration of the birthday of Swami Vivekanand.

Month of January also witnessed beginning of Maha Kumbh Mela in Allahabad, one of the important cities in Uttar Pradesh. This religious gathering is held on the sacred spot on the banks of river Ganga and the devotees take a holy dip at the confluence of Ganga, Yamuna and mythical Saraswati river known as Sangam. This year the number of devotees is assessed of 30 million on main bathing days by the city planners.

This year the Maha Kumbh Mela has attracted a group of Harvard professors, students and researchers to study the life of this mela as a market place, as a place of teaching, of entertainment, of evening performances also seems spectacular and exotic to the Harvard team. The outcomes by each school's research team would be represented by students and faculty at a university-side symposium hosted by the South Asia Initiative in the spring semester 2013, and will be submitted for a final visual and textual publication. We had the opportunity to welcome Dr. Kashyap Choksi in R.S. Campus, who is a part of the Harvard team conducting research on Kumbh Mela at Allahabad.

The month of January saw many interesting activities in R.S. Campus. The NAAC Peer Team visited Ghanshyamdas Saraf College for re-accreditation on 17th & 18th January, 2013. They interacted with the management, principal, teaching and non-teaching staff, students, parents and alumni. The college is eagerly awaiting for the results of the visit.

We also celebrated Annual Day of schools and colleges from 25th January, 2013 to 30th January, 2013. We had the opportunity to welcome many distinguished personalities as our Chief Guests. Mr Anand Rathi, Chairman, Anand Rathi Group of Companies (GSC), Shri Dilip Chhabria, Chairman and Managing Director, D.C. Design (DSJC), Shri Sajjan Goenka, Chairman, Texport Industries Ltd. (MBIS), Shri Ashutosh Tiwari, Renowned Actor (KGSSS), Shri R.L. Toshniwal, Chairman & Managing Director, Banswara Syntex Ltd. (RBES) and Dr. Indira Shukla, Principal, G.E.S. College of Education and Research (KGES) graced our Annual Day functions as the Chief Guests. All of them took a round of our campus and praised the infrastructure and the efforts taken by the Management in their educational endeavour.

With final Board and University examinations approaching, students are very busy preparing for their respective examinations. ♦

Dear Reader,

The New Year heralded with new hopes and aspirations for further growth and development of all the institutions in R.S. Campus. Our recently launched Pledge One Scheme has been welcomed by many generous donors, trustees, managing committee members and well wishers. They have come forward and have joined hands with us in our mission to 'Educate All' irrespective of the economic background of our students.

We aim to provide enriching and holistic learning experience to all students studying in all our institutions. For this, we have created a state of art infrastructure to facilitate excellent teaching-learning experience. We have provided latest technological support to all institutions and also recruited well qualified staff to empower students with quality education.

The New Year has also come with our association with Goenka family who have given a handsome donation for our media school that will now be named as Deviprasad Goenka Management Institute of Media Studies. Construction work of a new building for the institute is going on at a fast pace and we are providing best possible facilities to the Media Institute.

We started our educational endeavour with just one school in 1959 and at present, we have twelve institutions with more than 13000 students studying in our educational complex from play group to post graduation and management studies.

To cater to the demand of students for degree courses, we have applied to Mumbai University to open a night college. The night college will run in Ghanshyamdas College building in late evening once regular lectures of the college are over.

Information Technology is rapidly changing the systems and tools of education. In recent times, Online education is becoming popular day by day. In last August, I had the opportunity to attend a workshop at Harvard University on Leadership Development for understanding the scope of improvements in higher education in Maharashtra. In that workshop, I learnt about how online education is becoming popular day by day.

In that workshop, there was a talk on Khan Academy of Salman Khan, the Executive Director and Founder of that Academy which was founded as a non-profit organization to provide free online education to the school students. Khan Academy has received accolades for their innovative use of technology to educate millions of students across the world. Like Khan Academy supporting online school education, we learnt about Sebastian Thrun, Google's Vice-President and Pioneer in artificial intelligence and robotics who launched Udacity, an independent online education company that provides high quality education at low cost to virtually everyone. Recently two institutes MIT and Harvard, who stand as an icon for education in the world, have partnered to enhance online learning.

We at Rajasthan Sammelan are also set to launch our online education to be known as Rajasthan Sammelan's Online Academy to reach to those who cannot attend regular classes in schools and colleges. This initiative would be another milestone for Rajasthan Sammelan and a step further towards its objective of 'Education for All'.

We have also taken an initiative of starting an Endowment Scholarship Fund to encourage students to excel in academics. For this, IRB Infrastructure Developers Ltd., have joined hands with us to create IRB Endowment Scholarship Fund.

With all sincerity and dedication, we are continuously moving onwards in our educational endeavour. We solicit co-operation and support of all donors, trustees, members of managing committee and well wishers to join us to strengthen our hands.

Shri Balkrishna Lakhota, Chief Guest, felicitated by Shri Ashok M. Saraf, President, R.S. during Republic Day celebrations.

Dear Reader,

Greetings for the New Year!

Quality and Excellence in the education sector is the need of the hour in this competitive world of today. Good education is the result of the interaction of multiple factors. First and foremost an educational institution requires good physical infrastructure that energizes and motivates all stake holders in their teaching learning activity. At the same time, appointment of qualified teachers with the ability to motivate the learners plays a lead role in the development and progress of an institution. In today's world, education needs technological support so that teachers and students can access valuable information with the use of technology. A good computer laboratory with latest computers, smart boards, internet facility, provision of virtual learning, video-conferencing facilities are needed to broaden the outlook of the students. Thus today, education and training have taken on a whole new meaning. Computers are an essential part of every classroom and teachers are using DVDs, CD-ROMs and videos to show students how things work and operate.

Online learning is becoming popular day by day. Twelve leading universities in the US and Europe have joined an internet platform created by two Stanford University scientists which provides free online access to classes designed by academics at elite institutions. Harvard University has produced online courses and other form of digital learning for several decades with the goal of making educational content available to a global audience. Harvard University has collaborated with MIT and is providing learning content online. Looking at the changing educational scenario, our trust has always provided the best physical infrastructure to all the institutions running in R.S. Campus. Our twelve storied building facing Swami Vivekanand Road houses Durgadevi Saraf Institute of Management Studies, Mainadevi Bajaj International School, Kudilal Govindram Seksaria Sarvodaya School, Kudilal Govindram Seksaria English School, Draupadidevi Sanwalmal Women's Hostel and Ramdhar Maheshwari Career Counseling Centre.

We believe that all our students are equal regardless of the financial or social status of their parents. For this we provide them best possible educational facilities by appointing well qualified teachers who can teach and nurture our students in such a way that they can make their own mark in society and function as responsible citizens in future. Our teachers are sincere and hardworking and they are always given opportunity to update their knowledge by attending workshops, orientation and teachers training programmes. Our teachers are also tech-savvy that helps them to interact well with the students.

All our libraries are well stocked with books, magazines and reputed journals and we also have e-library facilities in our campus. Our future plans include starting our online academy to provide education at under graduate as well as post graduate level to all who are unable to attend their regular classes. In the recent past few months, our campus is buzzing with many interesting activities such as sports day, annual days, interschool / intercollegiate cultural festivals. All our institutions vie with each other to show case their talents in best possible way. Many of our students have made us proud by winning many prestigious awards and prizes at interschool / intercollegiate cultural and sports activities. Recently all the institutions celebrated Republic Day jointly in our campus with Shri Balkrishna Lakhota as the Chief Guest. In short, our R.S. Campus is a hub of knowledge as well as fun-filled activities.

We solicit co-operation and support from all our trustees, well wishers and members in our educational endeavour.

Dear Reader,

A warm New Year greeting to one and all!

I have great pleasure to note that Rajasthan Sammelan is progressing ahead with new educational projects along with massive expansion and modernization of the educational complex. The enlightened team of office bearers, trustees and managing committee members have come out with many innovative and new educational projects in the past few months such as to start a Night College, Online Academy, Scholarship Scheme as well as Freeship Endowment Funds for which I compliment the President and his team. Dear Reader,

A warm New Year greetings to all of you this year!

Rajasthan Sammelan has very aptly followed the English proverb "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" and has taken care to construct Pravinchandra D. Shah Sports Academy for the physical well being of the students. Academics serve the purpose of nourishing the mind but physical activity keeps our body alert & healthy. I am very happy to know that the plans of Pravinchandra D. Shah Sports Academy are in progress & very soon the present playground will go for a major revamp. The academy will have stadium style of sitting & will be the hub of all sports activities. It will also have two International size basket ball courts & one volley ball court. The academy will also have a gymnasium & a walking track to support the physical fitness activities. I compliment the management for supporting various extra-curricular, cultural & sports activities in all the institutions to nurture the overall development of the students. Education is definitely needed for the future progress and career development of a student. However, in the modern world children are often stuck to television in their houses. Besides burden of home work and competition for professional courses makes them neglect the physical activities I am sure that once the sports academy is ready, it will be extremely beneficial not only for the students of all the institutions for carrying out various sports activities but also for the staff who can utilize the gymnasium facilities. I wish a great future for all concerned with Rajasthan Sammelan.

Dear Reader,

Wish you a very Happy New Year!

Rajasthani Sammelan has taken a progressive step in its educational endeavour by taking initiative to start Vishwanath Podar Study Centre. In a city like Mumbai many households face space constraints. Often students find it difficult to study in their own homes due to space problem. Vishwanath Podar Study Centre will prove extremely beneficial for such students.

Vishwanath Poddar Study Centre will be located in the new building of Rajasthani Sammelan which will start functioning very soon.

My late father Shri Vishwanathji Podar was dedicated to the cause of women's education as well as education to young generation. He was closely associated with Rajasthani Sammelan and way back in 1959 started Sarvodaya Ballika Vidyalaya now known as Kudilal Govindram Seksaria Sarvodaya School. Throughout his life, he worked very hard for the cause of education. Therefore, I feel proud to carry his mission forward with the establishment of the Study Centre.

I am very happy to know that in the past few months many interesting activities have taken place in all the institutions of Rajasthani Sammelan. Dear Reader,

Greetings for the New Year!

Rajasthani Sammelan has taken an important initiative by starting IRB Endowment Scholarship Fund to encourage students to excel in academics. Rajasthani Sammelan has four schools, a junior college, a degree college, a professional and vocational institute, a management institute and a media school. There are many brilliant students in each institution, each class or in each division of all these institutions. However, they will be further encouraged to excel when there are merit scholarships to recognize their academic talents.

We are pleased to know about the recent achievements of all the institutions. Many institutions have celebrated their Annual Sports Day by organizing interesting sports programmes. Some of the institutions have won in sports at District Level and students have been selected to play at State as well as National Level. The colleges have undertaken interesting NCC and NSS projects to create a sense of social responsibility and a sense of discipline in students. Indeed, we feel extremely proud to be associated with Rajasthani Sammelan in its educational endeavour. We admire the concern of the management to provide all educational facilities to the students regardless of their financial and social status. Like plants which provide shade after growing into big shady trees, we are sure that students cared and nurtured by all the institutions of Rajasthani Sammelan will turn into rich human resources for our country as they become mature individuals.

My Dear Brothers & Sisters,

Wish you all a very Happy and Prosperous upcoming Samvatsar 2070 & Gudi Padwa.

I feel very happy for my association with Rajasthani Sammelan with the naming of the Media School as "DEVIPRASAD GOENKA MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE OF MEDIA STUDIES" in the memory of my late father SHREE DEVIPRASAD GANGABUX GOENKA.

Every day we encounter the Media in sundry forms. It could be waking up to the sound of Radio or passing by the Billboard on the Streets, watching Television or Movie, reading News Papers/Magazines, surfing the Internet and so many other modes of communication. Media has become almost as necessary as Food and Clothing in the 21st Century. The meritorious role that the Media plays in regeneration of the Society is undeniable.

The role of Media in education is evident today by the number of Computer labs, Television sets and Studios that have become part of curriculum in Schools and Colleges. Often we find many Institutes cropping up to teach students various aspects of Media Studies. However, there is an urgent need to start proper courses affiliated to Universities for Media Management along with courses like Acting, Sound Recording, Photography, Cinematography etc. It is with this objective of providing suitable knowledge in the area of Media Studies to Students that our family has joined hands with Rajasthani Sammelan in their educational endeavour. Yes, the new State of Art building under construction for "DEVIPRASAD GOENKA MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE OF MEDIA STUDIES" will have Hi-tech Sound Recording Studio, Acting Lab, and Open Air Amphitheatre along with host of other facilities.

I am sure DEVIPRASAD GOENKA MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE OF MEDIA STUDIES will excel in imparting Media education to students and will become one of the Premier Institutes in Mumbai.

R.S. Campus, Opp. Bajaj Hall, S.V. Road, Malad (W)

DOWN MEMORY LANE

DHURMAL BAJAJ BHAVAN

On Swami Vivekanand Road, opposite R.S. Campus stands Dhurmal Bajaj Bhavan as a landmark to many people who are coming for the first time in Malad (West). Dhurmal Bajaj Bhavan is a Community Hall having three floors that is owned, managed and run by Rajasthani Sammelan.

Rajasthani Sammelan has always cared for the need of the community along with its passion for educating the young generation. In early seventies, there was no community hall in the western side of Malad-Goregaon area of Mumbai. Hence an idea of constructing a community hall was born in the minds of the founding fathers of Rajasthani Sammelan - Shri Deviduttji Bajaj and Shri Vishwanathji Podar took the lead role in this direction. Other office bearers who supported in their mission were Shri Ghanshyamdasji Jalan, Shri Hariramji Saraf, Shri Kishorilalji Ruia and Shri Ramgopalji Ruia. Soon a piece of land opposite to R.S. Campus belonging to Shri Kudilal Govindram Seksariaji was purchased by Rajasthani Sammelan for construction of Dhurmal Bajaj Bhavan. Shri Deviduttji Bajaj came forward and Shri Dhurmal Bajaj Charitable Trust gave the largest amount of donation to start the construction. The hall was named as 'Dhurmal Bajaj Bhavan' in memory of late Shri Dhurmalji Bajaj.

Many other philanthropists also came forward with handsome donations while others worked hard to collect donations. Shri Mungtu Ramji Jhunjhunwala (father of Hon'ble Justice S. M. Jhunjhunwala (Retd) collected a large amount of donation for this noble cause. A cultural programme was also organized on the same plot where Dhurmal Bajaj Bhavan stands today. A large number of like minded people from the community attended the cultural programme and contributed with open mind to serve the community.

The construction work started in 1973 when foundation stone was laid on 6th October, 1973 by Shri Vasudevji Somani. The Bhoomi Poojan ceremony was performed by Shri Deviduttji Bajaj on that occasion. Within two years, Dhurmal Bajaj Bhavan having three floors was constructed. It consisted of three halls with rooms on the right side of the hall on each floor. The ground floor hall was named as Smt. Nanibai Bajaj Hall. Once the construction work was completed, it was the time for the inauguration. It was a dream come true for the residents of Malad when on 16th April, 1976 Dhurmal Bajaj Bhavan was inaugurated by Shri Aditya Birla, the renowned industrialist at a glittering function organized by Rajasthani Sammelan. Shri Ramkrishna Bajaj renowned industrialist and philanthropist graced the occasion as the Chief Guest. This was also the year of Silver Jubilee celebrations of Rajasthani Sammelan. This function was attended by many industrialists, educationists and philanthropists.

Since then Dhurmal Bajaj Bhavan is regularly used by the community for various purposes. It is also being used by our schools and colleges for organizing many co-curricular and cultural activities. In the year 2008, it was felt by the Managing Committee of Rajasthani Sammelan that Dhurmal Bajaj Bhavan needed renovation.

Accordingly renovation work started. The halls as well as adjacent rooms were air-conditioned and lift was also made available to go to higher floors. The lift was inaugurated by none other than Smt. Mainadevi Bajaj. The renovation work was completed in 2009. After the renovation, 'Deepavali Sneha Sammelan' was held in newly renovated Dhurmal Bajaj Bhavan.

For smooth running of day to day matters of Dhurmal Bajaj Bhavan, there is a Sub-committee comprising of Managing Committee members. There are adequate staff to look after the booking as well maintaining cleanliness of the premises.

The story of Dhurmal Bajaj Bhavan goes on and on. It reminds of the dedicated efforts of our founding fathers. It connects us to the next generation of Philanthropist of Bajaj family Shri Ramniwas Bajaj and his worthy sons Shri Vinodkumarji Bajaj and Shri Rajkamalji Bajaj who have taken lead role in philanthropy by giving handsome donations for Ramniwas Bajaj English School as well as Mainadevi Bajaj International School.

Excerpts of Interview of Shri Vinodkumarji Bajaj, Main Donor

Q. Tell us about Late Shri Dhurmal Bajajji and your relation with him.

Shri Dhurmalji Bajaj was my grandfather. He was true devotee of "Lord Venkatesh". He came from village Lachmangarh (near Sikar), Rajasthan to do business in Mumbai. He frequently travelled from Mumbai to his native place i.e. Lachmangarh. He was a very polite, gentle and kind hearted person. In Financial services business, he was held in a very high esteem in our community and also in the banking community. He was the first person to start the financial services business in our family.

Q. How did your family get associated with Rajasthani Sammelan?

My uncle Shri Deviduttji Bajaj and my father Shri Ramniwas Bajaj started our families association with Rajasthani Sammelan in 1970s. I

Was very young at that time. Late Shri Vishwanathji Podar and my uncle late Shri Deviduttji Bajaj & my father Late Shri Ramniwas Bajaj took great initiative for starting this project of constructing "Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan".

Q. What was the objective and vision of your family for giving donation for Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan?

At that time, there was no Community Hall in Malad-Goregaon area to provide facilities for marriage and such other ceremonies. I still remember that a grand cultural programme was organized and my uncle Late Shri Devidutt Bajaj & my father late Shri Ramniwasji Bajaj also worked very hard for this project. Many people of the community came forward for giving donations. Of course, our family was the largest donor but many other members of the community also took great initiative to start this unique project of constructing a community hall in Malad (West) at that time. Shri Adityaji Birla was invited for the inauguration of "Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan".

Q. Do you feel that the objective has been realized?

Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan is constructed in such a way that all the facilities are provided under one roof. It has three halls in each floor along with rooms on one side. It also has sufficient place on either side of the building. The fact that Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan is booked in advance by the community people throughout the year for marriage and such other ceremonies proves that the objective of providing marriage hall to cater to the needs of the community has been realized. Besides, the ground floor hall named after my grandmother late Smt. Nanibai Bajaj is also used by schools and colleges of Rajasthani Sammelan to conduct many activities in the morning. The days when marriage are not there, it is also used for Religious / Dharmik programme which also helps the Community in big way. In Malad "Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan" has become a well known brand by itself.

Q. Are you directly or indirectly associated with Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan?

Our family is the Main Donor of not only "Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan" built in memory of my Late Grandfather Shri Dhurmaj Bajaj and my Late Grandmother Smt. Nanibai Bajaj but also main donor for "Ramniwas Bajaj English High School" built in the memory of my late father Shri Ramniwasji Bajaj. Our family is also the main donor of Mainadevi Bajaj International School named after my mother Smt. Mainadeviji Bajaj. Our family members are also trustees of Rajasthani Sammelan and we are always taking part in the working of Rajasthani Sammelan by attending meetings, functions and other activities. "Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan" has its own Sub-committee which is looking after the day to day running of it. In this way we are indirectly associated with "Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan" as all the important decisions regarding "Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan" are taken at the meeting of Managing Committee and Board of Trustees.

*Excerpts of Interview of Shri Rajkamalji Bajaj,
Main Donor*

Q. What is your vision for further improvement of facilities in Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan?

Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan was recently renovated in 2009. All the halls and some of the rooms have been air-conditioned. The Sub-committee is taking care for the improvement of facilities. I feel that the present arrangement is quite satisfactory. As main donors, we strive our best to improve the facilities of "Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan" from time to time so that the Community at large is benefitted from the same.

Q. How are you associated with Rajasthani Sammelan?

My family is associated with Rajasthani Sammelan for the last more than 40 years. In fact the association started with the Rajasthani Sammelan approaching my uncle late Shri Deviduttji Bajaj for contributing for the construction of a marriage hall in Malad way back in 1970. The Bajaj Bhavan was built by Rajasthani Sammelan and named after my Grandfather Late Shri Dhurmajji Bajaj as our family was the Main Donor for the Bhavan. The Marriage Hall on the ground floor is named after my grandmother Late Smt Nani Bai Bajaj. My grandfather Late Shri Dhurmajji Bajaj was very soft spoken, generous and kind hearted person and enjoyed a very high reputation in the Marwari Community & the Banking Community. In fact when Shri Sorabji Pochkhanawalla founded Central Bank of India, my Grandfather Shri Dhurmajji Bajaj was one of the early underwriters to the shares of Central Bank of India. Over the years, the association with Rajasthani Sammelan has grown and become deeper and today we are associated with the Rajasthani Sammelan as Main Donor for Ramniwas Bajaj English High School which is named after my father, Late Shri Ramniwas Bajaj and Mainadevi Bajaj International School, which is in my mother's name.

Q. Tell us something about the role played by your family for the welfare of the community.

Bajaj family is associated with a number of philanthropic activities since the last more than 40 years for the welfare of the community in the field of education, medical and social development. One of the first such initiatives taken by the family as mentioned earlier was building the Marriage hall for the welfare of the community. Thereafter contribution to the Bombay Hospital and the Dhurmaj Bajaj Orthopaedic Centre at the KEM Hospital were some of the initiatives taken in the field of medical. In the field of education the family contributed to setup the English Medium School and an International School to offer educational opportunities to children in association with Rajasthani Sammelan.

Q. Are you inspired by the philanthropic services rendered by your father? If yes, then in what way?

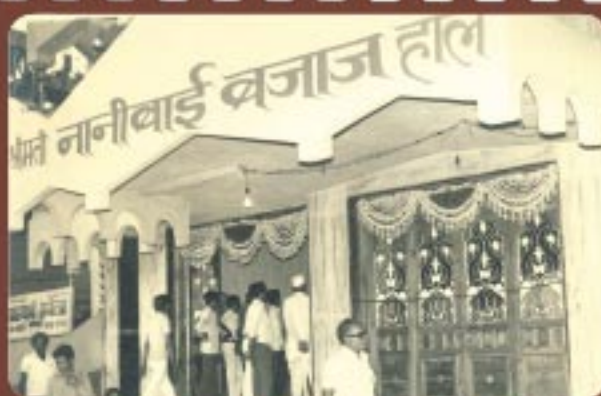

Yes, My father was our main source of inspiration. He believed in humility & charity for the welfare of the society & community. He was the one who taught us that one must give back to the Society a part of what one has earned from this Society. This inspired us to contribute in the field of education to set up the English Medium School in his name and thereafter contribute further for setting up the International School.

Q. Do you think that Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan is a boon to the community?

At the time when Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan was set up way back in the 1970's, there was no such Marriage Hall in the suburbs. People in those days could not find an affordable place for having marriage ceremonies. The whole idea to set up the Bajaj Bhavan was to provide all the facilities for marriage under one roof to the community in the suburbs at affordable prices. I still remember when I was very young that my uncle & my father had invited late Shri Aditya Vikram Birla to inaugurate the Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan and in those days even to mobilize the resources for constructing this hall was a big task. The fact that the Bajaj Bhavan has been seeing advance bookings from the community of a year is itself a testimony to the fact that it has been a big boon to the community in the suburbs over the last so many years.

Q. What are your views for further growth and improvement of Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan in the near future?

Today the Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan has been renovated completely to the current standards so as to provide all the facilities for marriage and other functions. The Dhurmaj Bajaj Bhavan has been recently renovated a few years back by the Rajasthani Sammelan and I feel that it fully caters to the current needs of the community for which it was established.

A NEW GENERATION MEDIA SCHOOL

The Media & Entertainment Industry is slated to grow at 15% CAGR to reach an overall value of Rs. 1457 billion by the end of 2016. To fuel this growth, the industry will need trained media professionals in large numbers. Rajasthani Sammelan which is at the forefront of providing "Quality Education" through its educational endeavours seeks to fill the gap and develop the skill-sets that the Indian media and entertainment industry would require to meet the projected growth. The Deviprasad Goenka Management Institute of Media Studies which will come up in a new state of the art building will cater to the need of the media and entertainment industry through various innovative graduate and post-graduate courses that would enhance the student's employability.

Prof. Vinay Dhumale, takes us through the various interesting aspects of the media and entertainment industry and how DGMIMS aims to play a leading role in the media and entertainment education space.

Undoubtedly the world is racing in F1 track especially the media world. If you don't believe it just think about following news items:

Newsweek closes down its print edition in favor of its digital edition.

Kodak files a bankruptcy petition and decides to gradually stop manufacturing celluloid film.

The advent of paper thin tablet in next 2-3 years which can be crumpled twisted and dropped down safely will again generate exciting possibilities all across the board.

Its digital revolution...

Our borderless world is experiencing the awesome power of digital revolution, enabling traditional media like Print, Film and Television to interact with smart new entrants like Tablets, Fablets, Smart-phones, DTH, and web based internet media like Google Twitter Face book etc. This interaction can truly be described as revolutionary in nature. Not only that it will usher in new age of business but will fundamentally alter the social behavior and the way society consumes intellectual as well as virtual products. It has dramatically altered the markets all over. Education too will undergo a huge change, the way it is delivered and consumed. Even the definition of knowledge will undergo a vast change.

This Digital information revolution will truly democratize the societies unleashing the potential of millions of talented human beings all across the globe who have been denied the access to knowledge high way all these years. Good number of societies could be literate, knowledgeable and empowered with life sustaining skill sets even without physical infrastructures like schools and colleges in the nearby vicinity obviously because the virtual world will take care of intellectual, emotional and professional aspirations.

The interactive, 24x7, borderless media will usher in monumental changes the way the societies have survived and succeeded.

This new media can be termed as 'Hyper Media' having potential of unleashing infinite creative and business opportunities across the globe.

Though an interaction with Hyper Media might sound little alien concept to the generation above 50 but Young amateurs above 14 are successfully doing it every day across the globe & some of them are even being chased by the industry leaders in Los Angeles, Mumbai or Shanghai for sheer innovation and flight of imagination which the youngsters have been able to bring in to the domain. Sociologically the advantage is being shifted in favor youngsters, as this new revolution is dismantling the age old hierarchy.

The Need for a Media Management Institute:

This awesome expansion of Hyper Media would require professionally trained manpower in huge numbers to take care of new and innovative media products along with innovative services and associated emerging business practices. The recent closure of the Print edition of Newsweek or KODAK winding it's celluloid business are glaring indicators of devastating and disruptive power of Hyper Media.

Taking this in to consideration Rajasthani Sammelan has seized the initiative and has dared to launch Deviprasad Goenka Management Institute of Media Studies (DGMIMS) perhaps the only institute in India dedicated to address the above mentioned challenges and associated opportunities for young students.

DGMIMS will train students in Media Business Management Practices in the form of approved MBA courses in the field of Hyper Media, including Web Analytics Web Media Planning and Web Media advertising.

The institute will also run graduate and post graduate courses in Creative media faculties like Digital Film Making, Animation, and Special visual effects, Histrionics, Editing, Web Media and Gaming.

Never before in the history of the mankind was India placed, in such a favorable situation, especially with regards to demographics. India would be a unique country in the world to have maximum number of younger population for over next 40 years and the pleasant surprise is, media requires young mind sets with vibrant energies. India is destined to be a global media hub in next 15 years.

The Global Media & Entertainment industry

The Global M&E industry is pegged at USD 1956 billion and projected to grow at 6.4% CAGR. It is imperative to note that there is rapid and accelerating digitisation of elements across the value chain; be it content production, distribution or advertising. Also Social Media, mobility and the explosion of apps have already had profound impact on the manner in which consumers prefer to experience content or communicate. This is also evident in the fact that currently Global Internet advertising revenues are at USD 51.6 billion & growing at 18.1% CAGR and Internet access revenues are at $214 billion & growing at 11.9% CAGR.

The Indian Scenario

The Indian Media and Entertainment (M&E) industry is expected to grow at 15 per cent compounded annual growth rate (CAGR) to reach an overall value of Rs 1457 billion by the end of 2016. This spectacular growth will be due to the huge growing middle class and associated aspirations of the multitude. This coupled with technological breakthroughs, advancements, and policy initiatives, global media giants will prefer India as its important hub.

To fuel this growth, the industry will need trained media professionals in huge numbers in all across the media bandwidth, especially in the media business domain. This will be the key driver for Indian media industry. The industry has been forecast to outperform economic growth in each year till 2016.

These profound changes in societal needs, in the very near future, has encouraged Rajasthani Sammelan to enter in to the educational aspects of media and launch Deviprasad Goenka Management Institute of Media Studies (DGMIMS), a new generation media school in the heart of Mumbai - the media capital of India.

The objective of the school is to encourage individuals to pursue their dreams of being a part of the Media & Entertainment (M&E) industry and contribute their best efforts for the growth of the industry by offering them a platform of formal education thus empowering them to be well trained media professional ready to be inducted in the media industry.

The USP of the institute will be the fact, that it will be a centre of excellence where students will get an opportunity to produce any form of content, test it by launching it on web circuits, use web analytics and arrive definitive conclusions, so as to generate value for the stakeholders.

World Class Infrastructure @ DGMIMS:

A media Institute is a different ball game all together, as it requires specialized equipments and highly sophisticated technical as well as physical infrastructure. DGMIMS will be the only institute in this part of the country to have a huge Video shooting studio, a chroma floor, 5.1 acoustically treated surround sound studio, in addition to a normal stereo studio exclusively for teaching, along with a fully equipped Preview Theatre with a seating capacity of 70 persons which will be at par with any multiplex in the town. The Institute will have a range of well equipped professional digital cameras along with an editing hub, equipped with Avid and FCP.

Mumbai being the media & entertainment capital of the country the city has knowledgeable and towering personalities all across the media spectrum who are ready and willing to share their knowledge acquired over their life time by being the industry leaders.

Aided with this kind of wonderful infrastructure DGMIMS promises to be a much sought after destination for new and innovative programs covering the entire spectrum of M&E landscape be it content production, content management or content marketing. Come June 2013, DGMIMS will be a new landmark on the horizon of Media learning in this part of the globe.

We Truly Differentiate... Creating Local Experience Global Impact

A selfless man who walked the earth

Late Shri Deviprasad G. Goenka

Shri Deviprasad G. Goenka was born on 12th August 1924 to Smt. Ginni Devi wife of Shri Gangabux Phool Chand Goenka, in Nawalgarh, a town in Jhunjhunu District of Indian State Rajasthan known for the origin of many great business families of Marwari Community prominent amongst them being the Poddars, Seksarias, Morarkas, Mores etc.

The Shekhawati region is known for education in Rajasthan. Shri Deviprasad G. Goenka too pursued his education from this Educational Hub. After completing his education, post Independence he shifted to Mumbai to join his elder brother Shri Bhagwati Prasad Goenka who was in the Textiles. However, Shri Deviprasad G. Goenka chose to tread the path less travelled, particularly by Marwari Community and instead joined the stock market. This was a demonstration of his first streak of pursuing in what he believed as creating his own path and going by his belief. After working for few years as a sub-broker, he later became a member of the Bombay Stock Exchange in March 1953. Known as DG Goenka in the Shares & Stock Trading Community, he carved a niche for himself in the market.

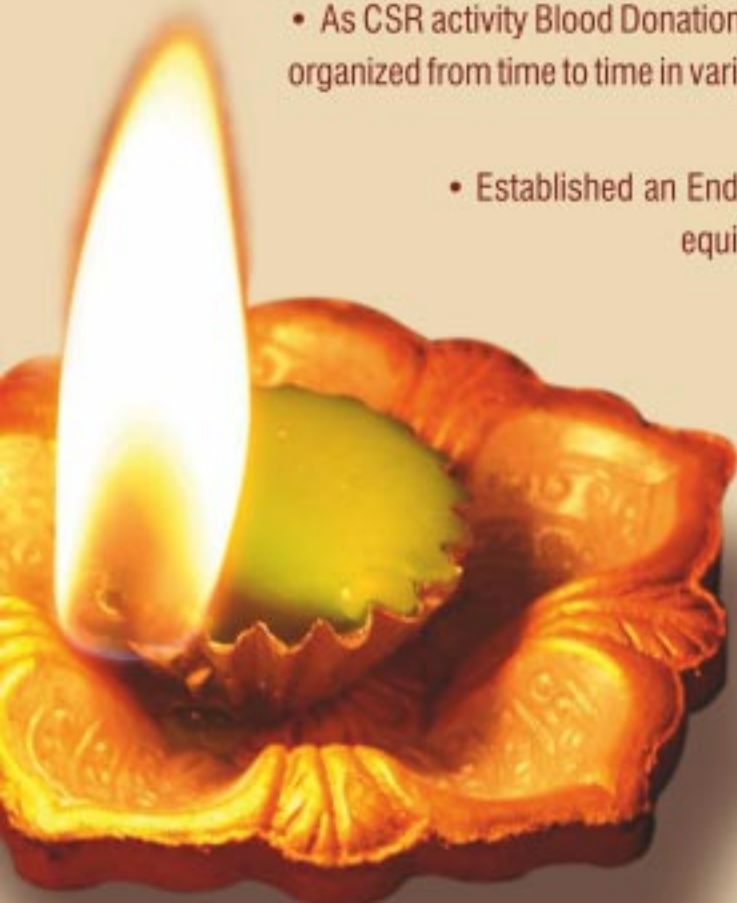

Gifted with a unique quality of Caring, Sharing and Compassion, Philanthropy was a trait that he inculcated from his beloved parents. Shri Deviprasad G. Goenka believed in the idiom, "Charity begins at home". Always the one to lend a helping hand, he was at the forefront to help anyone when they were in need for it. Be it the domestic help or neighbours, Shri Deviprasad G. Goenka was always full of selfless love and care for others doing charity in different forms. To see others happy and contented gave him self-satisfaction.

With his beloved wife Smt. Shivdevi's untimely death when he was just 53, he took up the challenge to look after his children & gave them the love & care of their mother as well, which reflects how a family oriented person he was.

This trait of selfless love and concern for others prompted Shri Deviprasad G. Goenka to establish a trust called "Smt. Shivdevi Deviprasad Goenka Foundation" named after his beloved wife. The trust has been contributing significantly in the areas of health and education for the downtrodden people of the society more particularly in his native place Nawalgarh.

Smt. Shivdevi Deviprasad Goenka Foundation has been doing yeomen service and is credited with significant contributions for welfare of the society. Some of the milestones achieved by the trust include:

- Established Rotary D. G. Goenka Blood Bank at Brahamkumaris' BSES Hospital, Andheri-east, in the year 2003 in association with The Rotary Foundation of The Rotary International. The Blood Bank is very modern and equipped with Blood Component Laboratory, facilitating the whole blood to be separated into 4 different parts so that 4 persons can be benefitted.
- Organized 43 Health Care Camps in Nawalgarh in the last decade in which over 50000 patients have been treated in the OPD for various ailments. The most significant has been with over 6650 people benefitting through cataract surgeries implanting Intra Ocular Lens thereby not only restoring their vision but also making them self-sufficient.
- Established a hostel in the name of Shri Deviprasad Gangabux Goenka in Keshav Shrishti Complex, Uttan, Bhayender, Thane.
- Scholarships to needy people in Nawalgarh as well as children of the employees.

- Helped ISKCON in construction of their New Guest House.
- Contributed a handsome amount for construction of a floor in New MRC Building of Bombay Hospital way back in early 70s.
- As CSR activity Blood Donation Drive & Health Check-up Camps are organized from time to time in various establishments of the trustees.

- Established an Endowment Fund worth US $ 1,00,000 equivalent to INR 55 Lacs in association with The Rotary Foundation, the earning of which will be used for Educational purposes.

- Contributed US $ 1,00,000 equivalent to INR 55 Lacs towards Polio Eradication Campaign of Rotary International.

- Established X-Ray Unit at Government Hospital, Nawalgarh

- Promotes Family Planning in association with Govt. Hospital by providing Gifts & Promotional Material for Family Planning Camps

In recognition of the services of his family, Rotary has displayed a portrait of Shri Deviprasad G. Goenka & Smt. Shivdevi Goenka at their World Head Quarters in Evanston, Chicago, USA. Truly a befitting honour for a person who always believed that it is only by giving a share of your wealth to the needy that you will realize the true value of your wealth and lead a Happy & Quality Life in the future.

A true Philanthropist, Shri Deviprasad G. Goenka always believed that one should give back to the Society from where we have earned. His thought was we owe it both to our Karma Bhoomi (Work Place) and Janam Bhoomi (Birth Place). He had his roots in Nawalgarh his birth place. It is this thought that often kept taking him back to his native place so much so that he was a regular visitor. All his service activities were therefore based either in Nawalgarh or Mumbai. It was due to his initiative that an old & dilapidated ancestral Community Centre was restored & today it is one of the most sought after Guest House in Nawalgarh.

When it came to contributing, he would not limit himself, and always felt that there was something more substantial that he could do. Shri Deviprasad G. Goenka had an ardent wish to make more significant contributions for a larger community cause. Unfortunately his dreams could be fructified into reality only after he became one with God. His children carried forward his dreams and set up a hostel in his memory in Keshav Shrishti Complex, Uttan, Bhayender in the year 2000.

A God fearing and an altruistic Human being, Shri Deviprasad G. Goenka led a disciplined and healthy life till he departed to be one with his creator on 3rd November, 1999 at the age of 75. His soul got peaceful place at the Lotus Feet of Goenkas' Kuldevi Shree Beera Barjee Dadiji's. He had complete dedication & devotion towards Kuldevi's temple at Fatehpur, Rajasthan & always took keen interest in its development.

The legacy of Philanthropy continues in the Goenka family, with his children Shri Sajjan Goenka, Shri Satish Goenka, Shri Suresh Goenka & Shri Narendra Goenka carrying forward the dreams of their beloved father Shri Deviprasad G. Goenka and they have been looking forward to pay their tribute to their beloved father by commemorating his name for a worthy social cause. In pursuit of this, when the Goenka family received a proposal from Rajasthani Sammelan to set up a Media Management Institute in the name of their Father, they readily accepted it as the credentials of Rajasthani Sammelan were well established in the education space. In a rapidly changing world, Media plays a very important role for dissemination of information. With a vision of being globally competitive, it was felt that there should be a new generation Media Institute that would impart University approved courses. It is this thought that saw the dream being fructified as Deviprasad Goenka Management Institute of Media Studies - a fitting tribute to a visionary who truly deserves his name to be inscribed in Golden Letters.

Mainadevi Bajaj International School

Welcome at Mainadevi Bajaj International School

October 18, 2012 was a landmark day and this date will be etched for time immemorial in the history of MBIS. In its first Students Exchange program, 13 students from Scheffel Gymnasium, Bad Sackingen Germany along with two faculty members were in India for ten days. Around the same time last year ten students from MBIS visited Germany and had a 10 day exposure to the cultural and historical make up of Germany. "For a school that is just into its third year, this is indeed a big leap of faith", said Smt. Archita Rajpuria, Trustee, Rajasthani Sammelan, who devotes a lot of time in the growth plans at MBIS. The arrival of the German Students brought back memories of the MBIS student's visit to Germany last year. Turning the clock back, the students of MBIS recounted on how they went about connecting with their German counterparts exchanging mails and chatting over skype. The memories of their visit to Germany were vivid as they were all set to receive their friends. It was a moment of great anticipation of a union with their German friends.

"For a school that is just into its third year, this is indeed a big leap of faith", said Smt. Archita Rajpuria, Trustee, Rajasthani Sammelan, who devotes a lot of time in the growth plans at MBIS.

The famous trumpeter of Bad Sackingen

Back in 2012 when the students of MBIS and the teachers travelled to Germany, they received a warm welcome by the host parents and staff of the Scheffel Gymnasium. Ms. Margaret while recounting her visit said "It was amazing that the students bonded so well with their exchange partners from day one. Fortunately, connecting with people doesn't have to be about sharing words, there can be a certain kindness and intimacy in bonding over similar gadgets, grooving to the same kind of music, playing football which was a big ice breaker, cooking Indian dishes for their host families etc." Language was no barrier and the host families and the MBIS students shared unique experiences trying to understand each other.

Learning Beyond Classroom:

The ten days that the MBIS students spent at Germany was a holistic experience which was a blend of culture, history, language and a connect with nature. A visit to the Black Forest, River Rhine and the majestic Swiss Alps was a dream come true. At the reception hosted by the Mayor he advised the students to take maximum benefit of their rich cultural exchange. Their stay with the host parents was like a home away from home and they spent the weekend at France visiting the Swiss Alps, Europa Park etc. which was truly mesmerizing!!!

With this unique and rich experience of their stay in Germany and the learnings, the students of MBIS eagerly looked forward to welcome their German friends. The arrival of the students was preceded by a lot of curiosity and excitement in the minds of the students who had travelled to Germany last year. A lot of meticulous planning went into chalking out an itinerary for them for their ten day stay. The whole of MBIS school was buzzing with activity much before the students could set their foot on the Indian soil. The school underwent a total transformation of sorts. Students and the teachers created an ambience that reflected a perfect blend of the cultures of both the countries.

Welcome at Mainadevi Bajaj International School:

The German exchange group consisting of twelve students and two teachers arrived in Mumbai on October 18, 2012. They were given a traditional welcome and the Parent committee hosted a lunch. It was like a big family reunion!

During her welcome address on the occasion, Ms. Shagufta Parkar, Head of School, MBIS commented :

"It is our privilege to host our German friends who will stay with us until

Traditional welcome at MBIS

October 27, 2012. Students, host parents and staff of MBIS are all excited and geared up to reciprocate the gesture extended to our students. We have planned some exciting events for our friends from Germany that will expose them to the rich cultural diversity of our country"

There could not have been a more appropriate time than the festive season of Navratri for the visit of the German students to India.

A Garba nite was organized and the German students were given a dance lesson in the dance studio. The German girls enjoyed dressing up in traditional festive wear for the garba nite and had matching accessories as well as henna on their hands.

A rejuvenating yoga class and a language workshop to teach basic Hindi vocabulary was conducted to familiarise our German friends with the language and the ancient arts. The next few days had a lot in store for them. Visits to the Global Pagoda, Keshav Shruti, Alibaug beach as well as a tour of Mumbai city where they visited Mani Bhavan, Prince of Wales Museum, Dr. Bhaudaji Laud City Museum, Discovery of India building, Crawford Market were some of the highlights of their visit.

Not to be left behind, our enthusiastic host parents ensured that the students carry with them lasting memories of our rich cultural heritage and the scenic beauty of our magnificent country. The students witnessed the burning of the effigy of Ravan at one of the local Dassera celebrations and this was something they had only read about. They could now witness this ritual which is a demonstration of victory of "good over evil".

It was fun, galore and merry making with a lot of sight-seeing and visiting some great places in and around Mumbai. A weekend trip together at Lonavala, Visit to the Karla Bhaja caves, an early morning trek to Sanjay Gandhi National Park to be amidst nature, a visit to Elephanta caves which is a world heritage site, and a shopping experience in some of shopping areas like Colaba causeway and Linking Road a shoppers paradise for most of the international tourists, all added to a great experience for our German friends.

A dinner at a restaurant "The Village" was a fun experience for the students as they bonded over pani puri, golis, watched a puppet show, shopped for jewellery as well as got henna tattoos on their hands, they also tried their hand at pottery and made a few cool pots. Here they experienced a vegetarian thali and enjoyed it thoroughly. They got a feel of what rustic village life is about.

The faculty members of Scheffel Gymnasium were in for a big surprise when they saw their students break into dance along with their partners

"This kind of programme meant a lot to us. It was a "dream come true" for all of us, it opened new vistas of relations and communications. Besides, it was also very interesting, informative and entertaining to share our views among friends and with the staff members, so much so that we did not realize how time flew."

as these students were very reserved and had never participated in any dance form in Germany.

Coming back to School, while in Mumbai the German students attended School along with their peers and were in awe of the modern infrastructure, methods of teaching, the well stocked library –a few students also borrowed some books from the library during their stay here. There were healthy discussions on the differences in the educational systems in both the countries.

Time indeed flew, and before we could realize, it was time to bid adieu to our friends. The farewell function that was hosted for them on October 27, 2012, was a mix of joy and choked emotions. The two teachers Cornelia and Margret were dressed in traditional sarees. The Chief Guest and the Guest of Honor for the evening were Mrs. Kiran Rao and Mr. Vinod Sethi, prominent industrialists in the city. Mr. Sethi during the evening mentioned that the Student Exchange Programme is a very powerful concept as it helped the student to stretch their minds and have a 360 degree view of life.

The German students and teachers were gifted a book each on Mahatma Gandhi, personally autographed by his grandson Mr. Tushar Gandhi.

It was indeed a momentous occasion in the history of MBIS.

Ms. Cornelia Trischler while handing over the logo of the Scheffel Gymnasium to Mr. Ashok Saraf on behalf of their Head of School Mr. Albert Lienemenn said that the student exchange programme helped cultivate respect for different cultures. She was overwhelmed with all the love and affection that all of them had received and said that parting would be very difficult.

One of the teachers of MBIS mentioned that:

Besides, it was also very interesting, informative and entertaining to share our views among friends and with the staff members, so much so that we did not realize how time flew."

Mr. Ashok Saraf thanked the host parents for their help in making the stay of the German students an enriching and enjoyable experience and paid rich tributes to the students, faculty and the entire staff of MBIS who made this a momentous occasion. He is of the opinion that such programs provide the students an opportunity to gain an insight into the cultural and historical make up of different regions, besides improving their skills in communication and expose them to live and work in a more culturally diverse society. Such programs also help in broadening personal and educational perspectives and provide diverse, multicultural, and meaningful experiences.

Acknowledging the support of the sponsors, Shri Ashok Saraf thanked Shri Madhusudan Maheshwari, Shri Vinod Kumar Bajaj, Shri Pawan Kumar Sanwarmal and the Saraf Family for their generosity in sponsoring this programme.

The verse "Atithi Devo Bhava" could not have been better demonstrated than what one saw during the ten days period of the German students stay in India. MBIS students and the teachers did not leave any stone unturned to extend the true Indian hospitality that is so much a part of our culture.

A beautiful graffiti painted on the glass door of MBIS titled: "Vermisse dich" (Miss You) will serve a constant remembrance of the deep bond that they established with their peers. Ms. Cornelia Trischler in her farewell speech rightly said. "Don't be sad because it is over but smile because it happened." Indeed, and there are many more smiles that we will see on the faces of our students as they continue building bonds with their friends and imbibe a global perspective as a part of their learning at MBIS. ♦

REFLEXIONS

"Our daughter Katharina joined the Exchange Program. She has returned this afternoon from India full of joy and good memories and we think this is due to the hospitality and care you gave her during the last ten days. Thank you for the excellent organisation and program and the good experiences she was allowed to learn at your school!"

We were extremely pleased about the photo-gallery which allowed us to follow the events. It was a little bit like being in India ourselves..."

-Martina and Franz Wang, Katrina's parents

"The student exchange programme was a great idea. As I plan to study abroad maybe somewhere in Europe this has given me an experience to learn the culture, food habits etc. in terms of culture and family ties we are much richer and stronger. The highlight of my trip to Germany was when I saw my host mom crying on the day of my departure to India that really touched my heart".

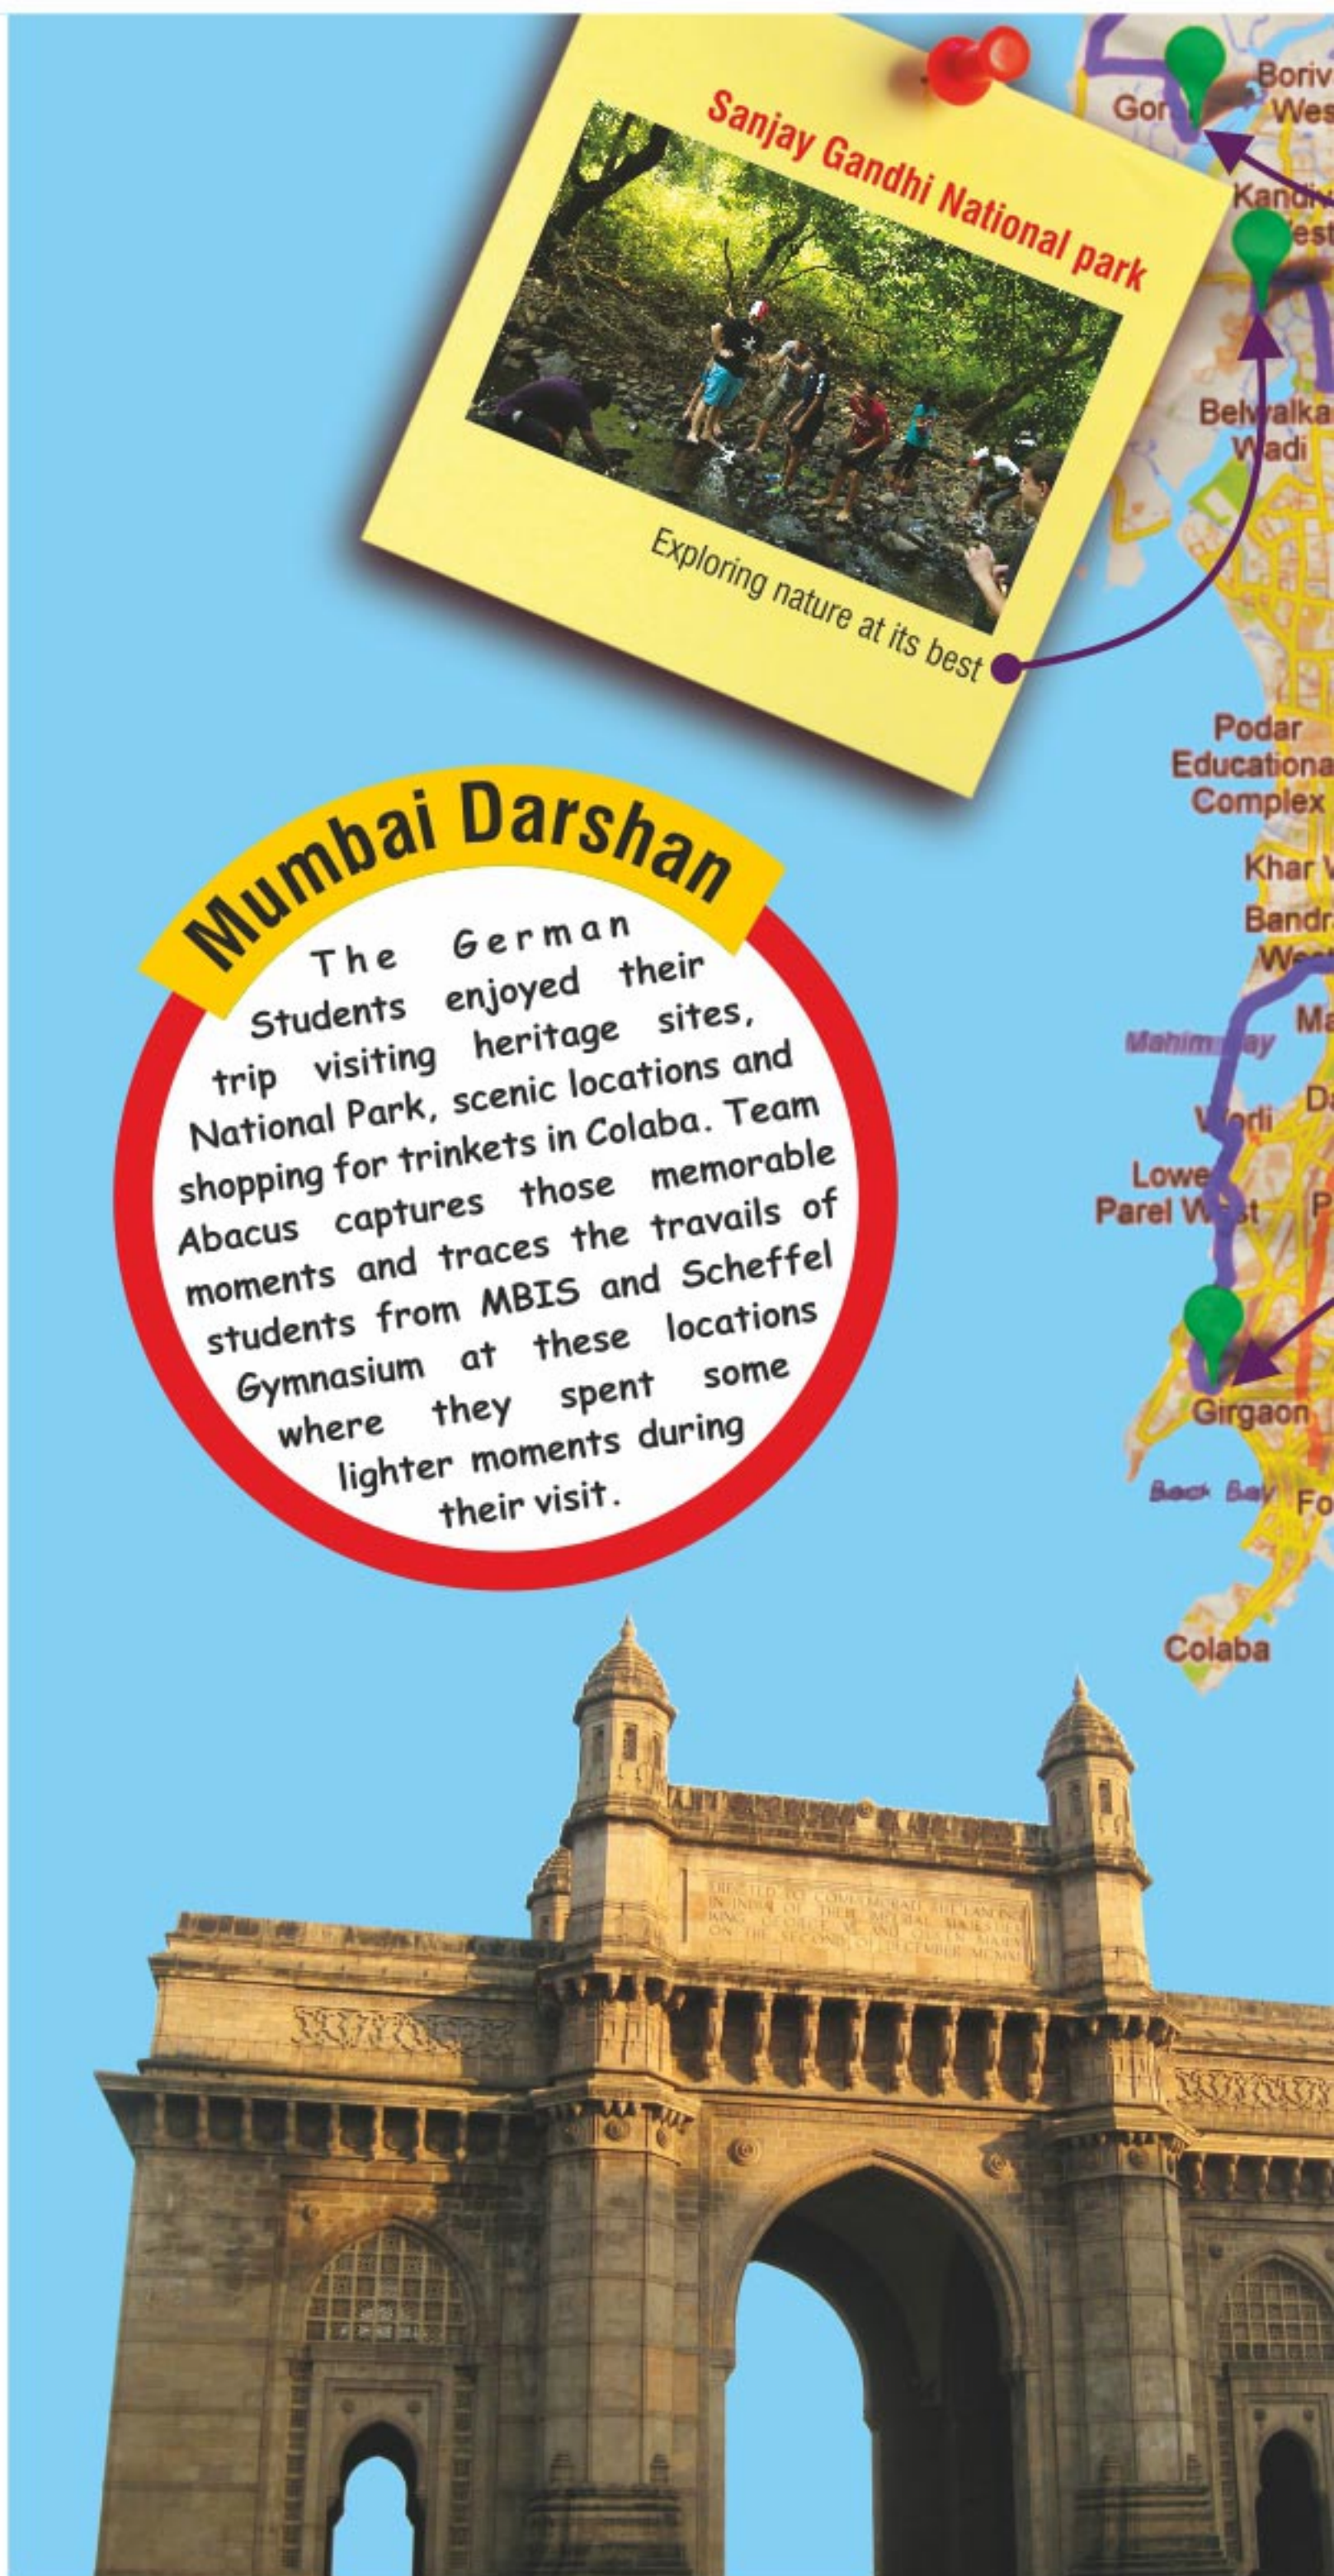

-Soha Ansari, Grade 9

"The programme was an awesome experience, my host family travelled to Switzerland and France with me they also pampered me with a lot of gifts and I was well looked after. The highlight of my trip is the natural unspoilt beauty of Bad Sackingen".

-Rupin Kothari Grade 8

"The programme was a fun way of learning and I enjoyed every bit of it, I lived like the locals and I suggest that the duration of the programme should be extended for a longer period as two weeks was really short. The highlight for me time spent with Anna."

DGMIMS plans to offer undergraduate as well as post graduate programs from the new academic year starting in June 2013. It is appropriate to mention here that the entire academic syllabus for all the above mentioned courses has been structured by the in house faculty of DGMIMS.

DGMIMS completed a sensitive and informative film for one of its sister institutions 'Mainadevi Bajaj International School'

A touching and inspiring film based on a unique relationship between a Robot and a little young girl is on the drawing board. Efforts are on to make this film a 3D version.

The sound studio of DGMIMS was overflowing with young students from all across the campus to record their annual day songs and Sound Engineer/Recordists Raktim Roy had hard time managing the overflowing enthusiasm of young budding singers on the campus of Rajasthani Sammelan.

The new year will see DGMIMS moving into a new hi tech media space specially designed to undertake all the activities mentioned above.

All this is possible only because of generous donation received from the Goenka family in the memory of their late father 'Shri Deviprasad Goenka'.

waiting list of students seeking admission. We are inundated with requests coming in from parents for seeking admission to the hostel for their wards who are pursuing their post-graduation in Mumbai. Considering the surge in demand, we are contemplating increasing the capacity so that more students can be accommodated.

The feedback of the hostel given by many parents and students constantly motivates us to strive towards setting new benchmark of providing a safe abode for the girl students.

The month of October has been very promising one as the hostel enrolled students to its fullest capacity. We received good feedback of the hostel from parents and students. In this month two more staff were appointed for smooth running of the hostel administration.

All the aspects regarding the hostel are being looked upon well. We have been richly rewarded for the hard work and efforts done by the hostel team by way of our success in enrolling the students as well as running the hostel.

The months of November and December had been very pleasant for all of us. November was an auspicious month because of Diwali falling on 13th of the month. We had reached the peak of the hostel strength and even few extra admissions were also taken.

All the students were settled and satisfied with our hostel facilities and went home happily for Diwali celebrations. When they returned from vacation none of them felt home sick and were happy to join the hostel where they have been provided with suitable atmosphere for them as termed as home away from home. The girls staying in the hostel are busy with their studies for their forthcoming examinations. In short, we are marching ahead to provide all possible facilities to our students and making our hostel as one of the best Women's Hostel in Mumbai. ♦

Learning fun or torture

he human being is by instinct here to learn. In fact every living thing wants to learn including plants and animals. You must have observed very many animals learning, but if you observe you shall see that even a plant learns. Many plants learn to find support and climb up. They learn to prepare the photosynthesis. They learn to move towards the sunlight. So learning is by instinct in living being. However, we see that children today feel learning is more a burden and torture than fun and that is due to the pressure which may give rise to the existing difficulties in a child. The purpose of this article is that parents and teachers become aware that there are remedies and early and apt interventions can bring about a substantial effect in the child's approach towards learning and developing the skills required.

It would be necessary to understand some of the common difficulties that children face. These difficulties may not be visible handicaps on the surface however they do make a child unequipped for a lifetime and would always come as an obstacle whenever he or she has to perform a reading, writing, comprehending, calculating, reasoning, or learning a new task in the future.

Many children may take the easy route and discontinue learning and adapt a practical method of learning or work. However they lose out on the potential they have as they lose confidence in themselves in the process.

Some very common difficulties are as follows:

- Learning Difficulties (LD)
- Attention Deficit Hyperactive Disorder (ADHD)
- Attention Deficit Disorder (ADD)
- Oppositional Defiant Disorders (ODD)
- Scholastic Backwardness

I shall focus more on the Learning difficulties as the percentage of children facing these difficulties is very high.

What are Learning Difficulty (LD)

Learning difficulties (LD) are neurological disorders that interfere with a person's ability to store, process or produce information, and create a 'gap' between one's ability and performance.

Struggling with Reading, Comprehension, Spelling or Writing?

Individuals with LDs generally have average or above average intelligence. LDs can affect one's ability to read, write, speak or compute math, and can impede social skills. Individuals with LDs can have marked difficulties on certain tasks while they may excel in other areas. Students with LD may have difficulty in all three areas or more than one, that is reading – dyslexia, writing – dysgraphia or arithmetic – dyscalculia. Dyspraxia can be defined as difficulty in visual motor coordination. Children are often termed as very clumsy.

We realized that many parents are still unaware that, there are many children who are otherwise normal are slow in their development or have some learning difficulties. Due to this unawareness, these difficulties go unrecognized. There is immense damage done to the self-esteem of the child who is suffering as he or she is labeled as lazy and careless and more often than not comparisons are made with the other children or immediate siblings and kin.

The visual motor coordination is weak and though they are trying hard they do not even realize when the spelling mistakes happen while writing. After trying a number of times, they give up completely and avoid situations where writing, reading or arithmetic is treat me.

Treat the root cause and not just the symptoms.

Equip your child with the required skills.

involved. If the parent or teachers ask them to write the full page, they will barely manage two lines or leave a blank page. This is because they are highly threatened with words like complete, full page, finish all, do it in a limited time, etc.

Whenever parent (especially the mother) shouts and beats the child, the child does perform because of the fear or the negative attention that the child gets from the parents.

60% of the difficulties are due to a genetic predisposition. One of the parent or a close relative also would have been suffering from the same. The other 40% is due to birth trauma, epileptic seizure, head injury in infancy, vacuum or forceps delivery, asphyxia during birth, etc.

The common signs are:

- Delayed speech, or difficulty in listening and speaking.
- Difficulty in reading, writing and spelling.
- Difficulty in understanding the basic concepts in arithmetic
- Difficulty in organizing the thoughts and maintaining a link while talking.
- Difficulty in application or recalling in written format
- Substituting of alphabets while reading and writing
- Reversal alphabets also known as mirror image.
- Difficulty in completing the work or incomplete books
- Shabby handwriting and slow work
- Inability to focus on a topic or stay with one activity
- Inability to make judgment and often impulsive

It would be necessary to understand some of the common difficulties that children face. These difficulties may not be visible handicaps on the surface however they do make a child unequipped for a lifetime and would always come as an obstacle whenever he or she has to perform a reading, writing, comprehending, calculating, reasoning, or learning a new task in the future.

These are few of the symptoms and it is not necessary that every child has all the symptoms. Some may be more common than others.

Also the symptoms do not necessarily mean that there is a difficulty as the next step would be to assess and evaluate with the appropriate tests. It is very essential to see a counselor if any of the symptoms match and get an IQ assessment. This would be followed by detailed assessments and therapy which would ensure a long term cure and benefit for the child.

What Parents can do.

- Do not ignore the symptoms. They are as important to be treated as parents run to the doctor with slight cough and cold but often ignore the learning difficulties they see in the child.
- Sending children to tuition does not help as learning in a traditional method does not help. Remedial Education would be helpful.
- The child may need to strengthen his phonics, reading and writing skills, without pressurization. After the assessment the duration of the intervention would be set by the counselors.
- Try and understand the strengths of your child. Become good listeners.
- Involve in one outdoor and one indoor game.
- Concentrate on treating the cause rather than focusing on the symptoms.

- In order for our children to turn out well, we need to spend twice the time and half the money.
- Keep at least one and half hour for playing.
- Schedule a game for improving motor co-ordination on a daily basis.
- Schedule Reading on a daily basis.
- Schedule clay or coloring activity at least thrice a week.
- Avoid comparison with other children.
- Always talk in pleasant & positive tone. Remember you are the role model.
- Never taunt or use sarcastic words. This will teach him to speak in the same manner.
- Improving relationships will also raise self esteem and confidence

How the school and the teachers can help

Teachers play a major role in identifying the difficulty as well as building the confidence of the children. Labeling the children as day dreamers or complaining to the parents that they are not completing their work and disturbing the class does not help the child nor does it help the parents to take appropriate steps.

Teachers could speak to the parents regarding the observation in confidence and give them a clear indication of the difficulty such as difficulty in comprehension, reading, writing, etc.

Teachers could also highlight the strength of the student and recommend the parents to seek help to strengthen the areas of concern.

The confidence of the child if built and maintained helps everyone in the long run to overcome the difficulty or bring about improvements in written performance.

It is necessary to understand that with adequate support and timely intervention by getting the child assessed and with appropriate remedial education, this difficulty can be dealt with and the children can be easily integrated into the further course of higher studies. ♦

University goes online to curb paper leaks

Indian Express, Mumbai, November 16, 2012

After a series of paper leaks in May, Mumbai University (MU) has decided to do away with, in a phase-wise manner, the practice of sending hard copies of questions papers to exam centres.

Colleges offering law, engineering, pharmacy and education degrees will have to download papers from a web portal for mid-terms starting November 19.

Twenty-seven law, 61 engineering, 18 pharmacy and 125 BEd colleges are affiliated to the university.

MU will send password-protected web links to the colleges. Principals will be provided user names and two passwords, one to access the portal and the other to open question papers.

"University officials held meetings with principals and senior faculty to explain the new system. We were told we can change the passwords. We will have to download the question papers and make photocopies," said N M Rajadhyaksha, dean of law faculty at MU and principal of New Law College, Matunga.

"As a pilot project, we will implement the system for four faculties. By next academic year, we will try to extend it to more colleges and by 2013-end, all 654 affiliated colleges will receive papers through web links. The technology involves security checks at various levels to curb malpractices. The initiative is part of our exam reforms," said Subhash Deo, director of examinations at MU.

However, many senior faculty members are not sure the system will be foolproof.

"MU cannot discontinue sending hard copies of question papers as many colleges in rural areas do not have the technology required for the new system. Colleges need high-speed internet and photocopy machines to download and print papers in scheduled time," said principal of an engineering college in Navi Mumbai.

"The initiative sounds systematic, but I am not sure how it will prevent leaks. It will cut transportation time, but paper leaks never happen during transportation. They happen during or before papers are dispatched," said Rajadhyaksha.

How the system will work: The 27 MU-affiliated colleges offering law, 61 engineering, 18 pharmacy and 125 education degrees will have to download papers from a web portal for mid-terms starting Nov 19.

MU will send password-protected web links to the colleges. Principals will be provided user names and two passwords, one to access the portal and the other to open question papers. Colleges will have to download the papers and make photocopies by 2013-end, all 654 affiliated colleges will receive papers through web links.

University goes online to curb paper leaks

AFTER a series of paper leaks in May, Mumbai University (MU) has decided to do away with, in a phase-wise manner, the practice of sending hard copies of questions papers to exam centres.

Colleges offering law, engineering, pharmacy and education degrees will have to download papers from a web portal for mid-terms starting November 19.

Twenty-seven law, 61 engineering, 18 pharmacy and 125 BEd colleges are affiliated to the university.

MU will send password-protected web links to the colleges. Principals will be provided usernames and two passwords, one to access the portal and the other to open question papers.

"University officials held meetings with principals and senior faculty to explain the new system. We were told we can change the passwords. We will have to download the question papers and make photocopies," said N M Rajadhyaksha, dean of law faculty at MU and principal of New Law College, Matunga.

"As a pilot project, we will implement the system for four faculties. By next academic year, we will try to extend it to

CAT 2012 results: Ten candidates secure perfect scores

Times of India, January 9, 2013, Mumbai

Ten candidates have secured 100 percentile scores in the Common Admission Test, scores of which determine admission to the prestigious Indian Institutes of Management in the country. Results of the test were declared on Wednesday.

Nine of the 10 toppers are engineers, with eight of them from the Indian Institutes of Technology.

One candidate who secured the perfect score in the test studies science at Delhi University. Five of the 10 students are still in their final year of graduation. All the 100 percentilers are boys.

Four girls share the honour of scoring 99.99 percentile, all of them engineering students in their final year studying in different parts of the country, including Karnataka, Orissa, Delhi and UP. In all 255 girls and 1,640 boys scored more than 99 percentile in the test.

Many of the IIMs have awarded additional points for candidates from non-engineering backgrounds and for women to ensure diversity in the classroom.

"It's heartening to note that the IIMs are ushering in the New Year with a talent pool that is both diverse and inclusive representing all sections of the society. The CAT 2012 results indicate that the rhetoric of inclusion indeed matches the reality inside IIM classrooms. We are glad that we started the trend of greater gender diversity inside IIMs. We trust that the classroom learning will be an enriching experience for those who finally find their way to the IIMs this year," said Debashis Chatterjee, director, IIM Kozhikode.

As many as 191,642 candidates appeared during the 21-day-long testing window, from October 11 to November 6, 2012.
