PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Reader,

At the outset, I convey my warm Greetings to everyone at the beginning of the new academic year!

As we perceive our surroundings, we see that the only constant in this world is change. Our socio-economic environment is changing at a faster rate than ever before. Education system is no exception to this. As soon as a new information is received, it is quickly shared due to increasing use of internet. Devices such as smart boards, televisions, projectors etc. provide visual explanation that enhances understanding.

We at Rajasthan Sammelan Education Trust have the goal to empower the new generation through modern education which is duly supported by technology. It is this goal that motivates the work of everyone from the level of Management members as well as all institutions run by the Trust. This includes our esteemed Donors, our team consisting of Trustees, Members of Managing Committee, Faculty as well as Staff & Students.

RSET has provided all possible technological support and facilities to faculties and students to enhance their teaching learning that include Wi-Fi within our campus as well as state of the art computer laboratories with high speed computers, libraries subscribing e-books, journals & case studies. We have video-conferencing facilities at Devendra Lath Communication Centre which has proved to be very useful for our students for live interaction with people sitting in any corner of the globe.

We had started Kunjibihari S. Goyal Online Academy (GOLD Academy) in the year 2014 and today it has more than 46,000 students enrolled with its portal. GOLD Academy is providing learning content of B.Com syllabus of Mumbai University free of cost to the students enrolled in its portal. Students of many colleges affiliated to Mumbai University are benefitted by the learning content of B.Com syllabus provided by GOLD Academy. In today's world, no company is ready to invest time to train a fresh graduate and make him/her suitable for a job. Hence, GOLD Academy plans to launch some career oriented value added courses that will be paid courses apart from the free online courses.

We had started Draupadidevi Sanwermal Women's Hostel in the year 2012 to provide residential facilities to the girl students coming to Mumbai from other cities to pursue higher and professional education. We always had a keen desire to provide similar facilities to male students also. With the generous donations received from Shri Ramprakashji Bubna, we have succeeded to start shortly Jankidevi Bilasrai Bubna Boys' Hostel near RSET Campus from this academic year. The Hostel building has seven floors and provides accommodation for 152 students. All rooms are air-conditioned and aesthetically designed. There are air-conditioned study areas on all floors where the students can sit and study along with many other facilities.

To strengthen global connect in students, Durgadevi Saraf Institute of Management Studies signed a MOU with the prestigious Ottawa University, Kansas, USA in the year 2017. This year 14 students of the PGDM batch 2017-19 availed the opportunity to represent DSIMS internationally and study two courses as a part of four week Study Abroad Programme in May 2018.

I am very happy to state that Pravinchandra D. Shah Sports Academy organized a summer camp during the months of April – May that gave an opportunity to the children to learn basketball, football, skating and cricket. Due to the overwhelming positive response of the Summer Camp, PDSA has introduced some more activities that will be open to people across all age groups. It is also a matter of great pride that many students of our schools & colleges have excelled recently in prestigious sports competitions for which I extend my compliments to the students.

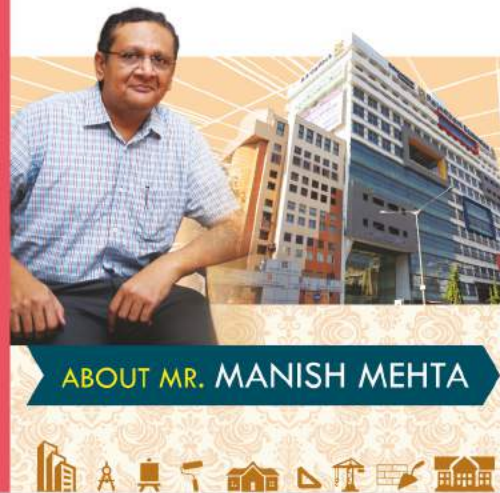

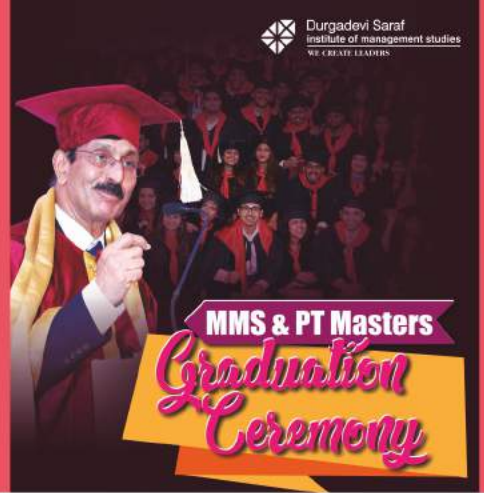

The new academic year began with a great moment of pride with 100% results of Kudilal Govindram Seksaria English School (at SSC Board examination), Mainadevi Bajaj International School (at IGCSE Board examinations) & Ramniwas Bajaj English High School (ICSE Board Examination). Results of other institutions were also excellent ranging between 95% - 98%. With the declaration of results, admission process started in junior college, degree college, media college as well as management institute. All our colleges and other institutions became busy with admissions.

I take this opportunity to thank each and every Donor past and present, Trustees, Managing Committee Members and well wishers who were involved with the development and progress of the educational activities of our Trust. I also convey my best wishes to our students in their future success.

HON. SECRETARY'S MESSAGE

Our Trust has very successfully completed 70 glorious years spreading the light of knowledge and information in all directions. After seven decades, we are poised to look back at the work started by our founding fathers and continued by us in the field of education. Academic merit of all our institutions go hand in hand with excellence in extra-curricular activities and sports. The conduct of our students, the general atmosphere prevalent in our premises, the outreach programmes conducted by our students from school level to colleges, management institute & media college make our institutions occupy a special place amongst the educational institutions in Mumbai. We impart education with a difference, striking balance of modern and traditional.

Our splendid infrastructure, well equipped labs, latest furniture in all institutions, an educational outlet & a health Centre have been praised by one and all visiting our campus. Every year, our Trust is adding a new step in the field of education and other related areas. I am pleased to state that this year, we are going to start Jankidevi Bilasrai Bubna Boys' Hostel which is located in the vicinity of RSET Campus and will be able to accommodate 152 students. The building with ground plus seven floors has air-conditioned rooms as well as study areas in all the floors. There is Wi-fi access in the entire building. CCTV & 24 x 7 security services are also provided for the security and safety of the students staying there.

To create global attitude in students, we have encouraged Student Exchange Programme with students of Mainadevi Bajaj International School and Scheffel Gymnasium School of Germany that was successfully conducted for the past few years. MBIS is also a member of EUMIND (Europe Meets India) Region 13. As a part of EUMIND projects, students of MBIS have many times participated in interactive video-conference with partner schools of Europe and have also won certificates of excellence for the projects prepared by them.

Durgadevi Saraf Institute of Management Studies has also undertaken several initiatives for international academic exposure of PGDM students in the form of Student Exchange Programme with reputed international universities in USA and UK for which MOUs have been signed with some of the universities of USA and Germany. This year, 14 students of the PGDM batch of 2017-19 availed the opportunity to represent DSIMS internationally at Ottawa University, Kansas, USA, and also studied two courses there as a part of four week Study Abroad Programme in May 2018. DSIMS also invited Prof. Hugh Munro from Wilfred Laurier University, Canada, to teach a paper to the students of PGDM previous year and in this academic year too, the institute is planning to invite him for the same.

Kailash Kejriwal, Hon. Secretary, RSET

It is a matter of great pride that some of our faculty members have been appointed on statutory committees of University of Mumbai and are playing active role at the University in framing of syllabus and also in taking decisions in many important academic matters. Many of our faculty members have recently been awarded Ph. D on completion of their thesis.

We give major emphasis on continuous improvement of our students not only in academics but also nurture their leadership traits so that they are geared up to deliver sustained value to their employers when they are placed after successfully completion of courses from the institutions of higher and professional education in our campus. Therefore, students are given the duty of organizing seminars, conferences and extra-curricular events under the guidance of in-charge faculty. To make holistic development of students, they are encouraged to participate in the outreach programmes through NCC, NSS, Women Development Cell, Rotaract Club and DLLE.

I am very happy to state that our students are nurtured to develop excellence in various sports at Pravinchandra D. Shah Sports Academy. Students of our institutions have won many prizes at State, National and International level sports competitions. The Sports Academy also organized summer camp in football, basketball, skating and cricket which was met with overwhelming success and response.

I take this opportunity to thank each and every Donor, past and present Trustees, Managing Committee members and well wishers who are involved in the development and progress of the educational activities of our Trust. I also convey my best wishes to our students for achieving greater success and scaling newer heights in their education and career ahead.

- Abraham Lincoln

Dear Reader,

The quarter ended 30th June 2018 gave us immense satisfaction in various activities of our schools and colleges. In our country, every year more than a crore of students appear for class X and XII board examinations respectively. The euphoria amongst students was very much visible as boards and competitive examination results were declared across country.

Our counselling center RMCC has been reaching out to various students within and outside campus to assist them with their career decision. Be it a question of choosing a right stream, course or specialization, our counselors are providing holistic guidance and support to students to live a satisfying and fulfilling life.

Sports and physical activity is the most valuable and accepted part of our school's curriculum. It contributes to the all-round development of a child. To encourage children and help them compete to their full potential, a summer camp was organized by PDSA. It consisted of 3 batches of 15 days each from the 15th of April to the 30th of May. It gave an opportunity to the children to learn and explore their interests with an exciting curriculum that included basketball, football, skating and cricket.

International Day of Yoga was celebrated in most of the institutes of RSET on Thursday, 21 June 2018, with great fervor and zest. The students were informed about the History of Yoga, how the International Day came into force and that India as a country has been practicing Yoga for the past 5000 years. The objective of the celebration of the International Day of Yoga was 'to strengthen the global coordination among people through Yoga' so as to enhance growth, development and peace all over the world, was also brought out very well as usual, various workshops, faculty development programmes, felicitation of rank holder students, PTA meetings, Alumni meet of schools and colleges, NCC activities and NSS activities were conducted at our Campus which are noteworthy. Our Institute "Deviprasad Goenka Management College (DGMC) has released first Research Journal titled "

International Journal of Media Communication and Management. It has also organized "Film Screening and Appreciation Course" which was a big hit. Through such activities, we are able to visualize the positive transformation and change in the building of the personality of our students. We are very happy that our students are progressing well in their career. There is a visible change in the confidence building and all round personality development of our students for which the credit goes to our dedicated teaching and non-teaching staff.

During the last three months we had been visited by large number of Guests from across the country and equally from foreign countries. Notable amongst them are Mr. Ninad Karpe author of the book 'Bond to Baba', Mr. Manoj Gursahani from travel industry, Mr. Kewal Handa a top executive from Union Bank of India, representatives of the management school, Frankfurt, Germany, Mr. Bharat Dhabolkar – Doyen of Advertisement Industry, Ms. Pratishtha Arora, Project Head Face Book India and Centre for Social Research, Delhi and many more. Our students have been very fortunate to have a direct one to one interaction and learn from the rich experiences of these celebrities. They have grabbed such opportunities which will be beneficial to them in their future life and career.

We have been very fortunate to have the esteemed presence of Hon'ble Governor of Maharashtra Shri CH Vidyasagar Rao with us as Chief Guest for our Durgadevi Saraf Institute of Management Studies (DSIMS) for its PGDM convocation 2018. The Hon'ble Governor during his speech has immensely praised the huge charitable contribution of the Marwari Community from Rajasthan in growth of educational institutions in Mumbai, which has benefited thousands and thousands of students in shaping their successful career.

Recently we have changed our old security service agency by bringing in "NISA security services" which is very reputed agency and well known for its professional services all over the country.

As usual the long summer break was utilized to carry out the routine and pending maintenance activities like painting of buildings, AMC's of: elevators, ACs, transformers, water purifiers. We had carried out the repairs of furniture and advance preparation for monsoon season to ensure that there is no leakage, seepage and flooding anywhere in the campus and its buildings.

Our state of art new Boys' Hostel is almost ready to accommodate the students who need an accommodation in Mumbai for pursuing their studies and shaping their future career.

Well, it is said that all that begins well will end up well. So, the academic year 2018 – 19 has not only begun well but brought many laurels and accolades to our Institutions and we are sure this will follow throughout the year. Our president Shri Ashokji Saraf believes and actively practices the saying "Don't find fault, find remedy; anybody can complain". This is the open secret of RSET team to move towards fulfilling the aims and objectives laid down by the management.

MESSAGE FROM DIRECTOR OF SCHOOLS

It is with pride that we report that the wholesome combination of academic and co-curricular activities at the four schools of Rajasthan Sammelan Education Trust have resulted in consistent performance at the state, national and international board examinations. At Mainadevi Bajaj International School students who appeared for the IGCSE examinations produced a 100 per cent result and some of them scored over 90 per cent marks. Our budding and fast growing ICSE school, Ramniwas Bajaj High School saw its second batch producing a 100 per cent result. At Kudilal Govindram Seksaria Sarvodaya School 311 girls appeared for the SSC examination and 97 per cent of them passed it. Of these 17 girls secured over 90 per cent marks. At Kudilal Govindram Seksaria English School 101 students appeared for the SSC examination and all of them passed, producing a cent per cent result. Five of them scored in the 90s.

This excellence in academics is an outcome of the holistic education imparted at the RSET schools. As the world celebrates International Yoga Day we are proud to state that yoga is one of the ways in which our students learn to focus on their academic life. Not only in international schools but at almost every academic forum, holistic education has become a catch phrase, almost an oft repeated mantra for educators, parents and school managements. It is becoming almost mandatory to use these words in schools' mission and vision statements as well as their numerous other publications. It clearly shows the desire of educational institutions to aim for a goal that is greater than that indicated by the numbers game. At RSET we surely aim for a holistic education.

But what does this holistic education really mean and how can one contextualise it in this fast paced world which is demanding children who will become successful overnight and gain acclaim? What role does holistic education have in this era of instant gratification? There are various facets of holistic education that include an international curriculum, a balance between academics and co-curricular activities, participation in international forums, student exchange programmes, incorporation of information technology in every facet of our lives, awareness of global issues and participation in community and service activities. However on the occasion of International Yoga Day, let us look at how this ancient, and yet very modern, practice which is being rapidly adopted across the world contributes to a holistic education.

Should holistic education not mean an education that helps you to be completely focused in the present and to bring about a harmony between your physical and mental abilities to achieve excellence? While the endless debate between left and right brain activation and the logical and creative functions that each of the sides performs remain inconclusive, with very renowned scientists claiming that both sides can perform all the cognitive functions equally well, there is one aspect on which there is a great deal of agreement. There is very little discord on the claim that if your brain (irrespective of which side of it) and body work together the outcomes are going to be more holistic. And this is where Yoga plays an important role in the field of education.

When we speak of the role that Yoga can play in the field of education we are not looking at the exclusive schools that allow for a liberal education where students can pick and choose courses and activities, but we are looking at the picture presented by mass competitive environments as presented by most educational systems. We can be ideological and aim for a system where each child is allowed to seek her own potential, but we are also talking about remaining grounded in a commercial city where students and parents are seeking to fit into a fast paced, ever changing and confusing scenario.

In such an environment, the daily practice of yoga can introduce a much needed break which will enable its practitioners to gain a sense of equanimity. It will allow them to reflect on the direction in which their hustle bustle life is taking them. A closer look at a child's daily schedule makes us realise that, as the poet William Daives has said, there is really no time to stand and stare, in a life which is so full of care. On an average a child spends between six to eight hours in a school, anywhere up to an hour and half in commuting and then on tuitions and other mandated classes. Examinations and homework put an additional burden on the child.

With the help of the numerous asanas and pranayams, what Yoga helps to do is that it develops the entire mind. In the yogic system, the mind is seen as having 16 parts and its four fundamental parts are the buddhi or intellect, the ahankara or identity, the manas or memory and chitta, which is pure intelligence. A holistic education needs to realise that the present focus on buddhi, or intellect, will lead only to the partial development of the mind leading to a lop sided approach to the challenges faced in life.

This focus on targeting buddhi means that we are ignoring manas which deals with what is right and wrong and hence the lament from many parents that there is no value based education. When educational systems focus on content, cramming and memorisation and when assessments also care only about this aspects, we are not dealing with holistic education and as they go into institutions of higher learning and seek jobs, the young adults who have gone through this buddhi-led education end up being confused.

In the schools of Rajasthan Sammelan Education Trust, the practice of yoga is incorporated in the curricular as well as the co-curricular programmes. It is amazing to see the complicated asanas that our students can perform as they put up special displays on the annual sports days of the schools. The Physical Education trainers are also yoga teachers and can be seen imparting knowledge about the various asanas and pranayams to our students.

There is a lot more to be done at our schools to make yoga a part of a continuous educational experience but at RSET we are surely moving in the right direction.

Month of July arrived with great excitement all over the world as 21st FIFA International World Cup for men which started from 14th June, 2018 in Moscow, Russia, ended on 15th July, 2018 with France winning the match against Croatia. Although, Croatian team lost at the final round, it taught us a lesson that true talent and hard work always emerges facing challenges all around. Croatia is a very small country with a population little more than 4 million and without any state of the art facility for football. Inspite of that it could reach up to the finals. Hence leadership lessons can be learnt from any arena.

The month of July also created history for India in the area of sports. On 12th July 2018, India received its first ever gold medal in a track event at world level. Ms. Hima Das clinched the gold at the world U-20 championship in the women's 400 meter final at the IAAF World U-20 Athletics Championship in Tampere, Finland. Ms. Hima Das, the daughter of the Indian soil indeed scripted history as she bagged the gold medal by becoming the first Indian athlete to do so in a track event at the U-20 world Athletics Championships.

In academics, confusion prevailed in the State of Maharashtra in the admission process of first year degree courses due to reservation of seats for backward classes in minority colleges that was challenged by some minority colleges. The State Government ordered universities across the State to immediately stay the admission process after the first merit list was displayed. Ultimately Bombay High Court came to the aid of minority educational institutes and held that minority institutions – both aided & non-aided are exempted from enforcement of the reservation policy of the State in respect of backward class students.

Admission time is also a testing time for parents. On one hand, they have to try their best to admit their wards in desired courses and institutions. At the same time, they have to make provision for the finances to pay the fees. Now a days, education at all level is becoming very expensive. It is therefore becoming difficult for middle class families to bear the expenditure of educating their children and especially to provide higher and professional education.

In recent years, exorbitant fees for medical education in private colleges are leaving young doctors struggling in a debt trap. Annual tuition fees in most private medical colleges are over 10 lakhs per year which means the sum shoots approximately to Rs. 50 lakhs for the entire course considering the other expenses like hostel, mess, library, examination, books etc. Such fees which very few parents can afford could make medical education the preserve of the rich.

In a crackdown on integrated programmes, the state government made it mandatory for Science Junior Colleges to install biometric system to mark students' attendance. Most city colleges began work but have faced difficulties in finding vendors and arranging finance. However at most colleges, principals expect to complete the process before FYJC classes begins. In integrated programme, coaching institutes hold classes at junior colleges. Hence, bio-metric attendance may not possibly be a crackdown on the system. The Education Department has directed education inspectors to conduct checks by sudden visits in the colleges.

Back to our campus, past few months are dotted with various noteworthy events and accolades. Students of three of our schools – Kudilal Govindram Seksaria English School (SSC Board), Ramniwas Bajaj English High School (ICSE Board) and Mainadevi Bajaj English High School (IGCSE Board) made us proud by giving 100% results at their respective Board Examinations held in February-March 2018. Other institutions also have fared excellently at their respective board/ university examinations.

Most of our institutions celebrated International Yoga Day with yoga & meditation related activities. Durgadevi Saraf Institute of Management Studies organized its 6th glorious Convocation of PGDM 2016-18 batch on 12th May which was graced by Hon'ble Governor of Maharashtra H.E. Ch. Vidyasagar Rao as the Chief Guest. The 3rd Convocation ceremony of Deviprasad Goenka Management College of Media Studies was also held on 19th May, 2018 at Durgadevi Saraf Hall. The Chief Guest for the day was Shri Bharat Dabholkar (theatre personality & Actor). Many school children made us proud by winning prizes at State level sports, swimming & other co-curricular activities.

Each issue of Abacus is a milestone that marks our growth, unfolds our imagination and gives life to our thoughts and aspirations. A committed and supportive Management, dedicated faculty members, caring and co-operative parents, blend harmoniously to create student-centric institutions. Team work is the hall mark of the institutes of Rajasthan Sammelan Education Trust. I am sure that through collaborative efforts, we can achieve more to benefit our students who are the future leaders of tomorrow.

Podar
Study Centre

Dear Reader,

Nearly six decades ago, my father late Shri Vishwanathji Podar had felt the necessity of girls' education and had started Sarvodaya Balika Vidyalaya School (now known as Kudilal Govindram Seksaria Sarvodaya School) with just two students. At present, our Trust is providing education from pre-school to Post Graduation in the fields of Commerce, Management, Information Technology and Media Studies. Nearly 16,000 students are receiving education in different institutions of the Trust. Besides, RSET has extended educational facilities beyond the boundaries of its campus through Kunjibihari S. Goyal Online Academy (GOLD Academy) & at present more than 46,000 students are enrolled at the portal of GOLD Academy. Rajasthan Sammelan Education Trust has started RS CA Study Centre and ICAI Extension Counter from July, 2015 which is running successfully for the past three years. The Study Centre is kept open from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. for the CA students so that they can study peacefully in the centre. RS CA Study Centre and ICAI Extension Counter has been extremely beneficial for the students staying in western suburbs as they are provided with study material from this centre only. The ICAI Western Regional Centre has deputed their staff to give all required information to the students and complete necessary formalities. I am happy to know about 100% results of Kudilal Govindram Seksaria English School (SSC) and Ramniwas Bajaj English High School (ICSE), Mainadevi Bajaj International School (IGCSE) at their respective board examinations while other institutions have also given excellent results. RSET is also in the process of starting Jankidevi Bilasrai Bubna Boys' Hostel near RSET campus.

Wishing excellent growth and development to all the institutions of Rajasthan Sammelan Education Trust.

Vijay Pal Singh
Health Centre

Dear Readers,

At the outset, I convey my heartfelt greetings to one and all at the beginning of the new academic year!

Vijay Pal Singh Health Centre was started in the year 2014 and since then it is running successfully in RSET campus and is able to address the health issues of school children that often go unnoticed due to the busy schedule of parents. Once health problems are identified, parents are also able to take proper action in time.

I am happy to know that renowned doctors are visiting Vijay Pal Singh Health Centre regularly and are advising the students on health related issues. In the past few months, Vijay Pal Singh Health Centre has successfully treated first aid cases in the clinic. Regular medical check-up of the school children in the areas of ENT, Skin care, general check-up, Eye and Dental check-up have been conducted successfully. The Health Centre has also been providing first aid to students during Annual Sports Day and Annual Day celebrations by providing a nurse to give medical support as and when needed.

It is heartening to note that Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust is providing training in various sports and games to the students by appointing expert coaches through Pravinchandra D. Shah Sports Academy which has resulted in winning many interschool/intercollegiate matches by the students. It is also a matter of great pride that many faculty members have completed their research projects and have obtained Ph.D. To develop global attitude, PGDM students of Durgadevi Saraf Institute of Management Studies visited Ottawa University, Kansas, USA and completed two courses of four weeks duration. Schools and Colleges of the Trust celebrated International Yoga Day on 21st June, 2018 by conducting yoga related activities.

EXCERPTS OF INTERVIEW OF MR. MANISH MEHTA

• What motivated you to take up a career in Interior Designing?

I was interested in Architecture ever since I was in school. My formal education in Architecture helped in understanding the built as well as un-built spaces. As an Architect, it is difficult to define boundaries for "Exterior" and "Interior". It is the overall experience that matters to the end user. To achieve this, a comprehensive approach is required. Expertise of both Architecture and Interior design helps in creating a complete solution which is seamless not only in terms of design, but also beneficial for clients as it saves time and duplication of work. This motivated me to develop the capability of Interior design as an extension to my core competence as Architect.

• How did you get associated with Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust?

In 2006, Shri Ashok Saraf was looking for an Interior designer to design an IT lab for Kirandevi Saraf Centre of Excellence. I met him in this connection and since then, I have been associated with various projects of RSET.

• With students spending large amount of time in classrooms, what aspects do you consider while designing classrooms.

I have been fortunate to design classrooms from KG to PG in the RSET campus. There are several aspects which are taken into account, such as student's age group, teaching methodology, fixed or versatile layout, use of technology and audio visual equipment, maintenance free surfaces, ergonomic furniture, optimum and energy efficient lighting, Air-conditioning system with proper fresh air intake, pleasant colour scheme and above all, clutter free and timeless design language which help students to focus in studies and other activities.

• Which was the most challenging project at RSET for you?

Each project at RSET had unique challenges. Most challenging among them was Deviprasad Goenka Management College of Media studies (DGMC). The project area had limited floor space and extensive operational and regulatory requirements.

• And which was the most creative one?

I would consider DGMC as the most creative one. The reason being, in spite of space constraints, it has created a strong identity as a media college through its inspirational and exciting design statement. The interior spaces have an element of surprise and celebration. The design looks fresh and encourages students to think out of the box.

• Have you used eco-friendly materials in any of your projects?

Selection of material usually depends on the type of project and budgetary provisions. Use of eco-friendly, maintenance free and cost effective material is always the priority.

• What advise would you give to young students who want to make a career in this field?

Career in Architecture and Interior design is slowly gaining acceptance and recognition over conventional career options. Students need to invest substantial time, innovate and be passionate about their work. Use of technology like Building Information Modeling, Virtual reality etc. should be learned not only as tools in the design process but also in project delivery.

Studies. Apart from its educational programmes, the Rajasthani Sammelan Trust has catered to the social and humanitarian needs of the community which is truly remarkable.

I congratulate Shri Ashok Saraf, President, Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust and all members, for their services to society and the State at large. May I also take this opportunity to salute the founding fathers of the Trust and their worthy successors who managed the institution with dedication and commitment.

Dear friends,

The city of Mumbai has evolved and transformed itself into a great metropolis over a period of three centuries. At every stage in its evolution, the city has been built and enriched by people belonging to different States who came here and made it their home. In this connection, I must say, the contribution of the people of Rajasthan to the making of the city of Mumbai is disproportionately high. The peaceful and industrious people from Rajasthan have made handsome contributions to Mumbai in the field of business, commerce, banking, finance, education, philanthropy and so on.

I was amazed to know that the people of Rajasthan have started hostels for students from Rajasthan who wish to pursue CA, CS and other professional courses in Mumbai. This has not only benefited large number of students, but it has also benefited the city and the State. The Rajasthani community in Mumbai deserves our wholehearted compliments for their wonderful work. I have come here to tell the Trustees that I am proud of you, Mumbai is proud of you & Maharashtra is proud of you.

The graduating PGDM 2016-18 batch

Ladies and gentlemen,
The Indian Higher Education system is the third largest in the world in terms of student enrollment, next only to China and US. In the years to come, India will emerge as one of the largest education destinations where students from various countries will be enrolling for various programmes.

As the higher education system grows with diversity, it also brings in challenges about the quality of programs, faculty, accreditation, international linkages, research & publications.

As Chancellor of 20 public universities in Maharashtra having enrollment of 3 million students, I am deeply concerned about the uneven quality of higher education in our country. While there are a few centres of excellence in the country, both in the public and private domain, a large majority of our higher education institutions are mediocre, paying little attention to quality.

At a time when India is aspiring to become a developed country, we need an education system that will maintain high standards of education and produce leaders in all disciplines.

Dear friends,

There was a time when Indian education system was regarded as the most coveted in the world. India gave the world one of the greatest civilizations. We produced great academic leaders in every stream. History informs us that Indian Mathematician Bhaskaracharya was the first to calculate accurately the time taken for the Earth to orbit the Sun, as 365.2588 days. Indians gave the world the concept of zero. We gave the world Yoga, we gave the holistic system of medicine - Ayurveda.

One of the notable scientists of the ancient India was Acharya Kanada who is said to have devised the atomic theory, centuries before John Dalton was born. He speculated the existence of anu or a small particle, much like an atom.

Unfortunately, we went through long spells of foreign dominations during which India not only lost its economic clout, but also lost a great education system that promoted innovation. The challenge is to revive the spirit of enquiry and innovation.

The beginning will have to be made by rebuilding our institutions of learning and higher learning with focus on quality and excellence. For this to happen we need commitment to excellence from managements.

Indian universities and educational institutions will have to engage with the best of educational institutions both nationally and internationally. Business and professional education institutions will have to forge alliances and partnerships with business organisations to gain insight into the needs of organizations.

Faculty quality is an extremely important factor in attaining excellence. Nurturing and sustaining quality faculty with industry experience, teaching ability, international exposure, and research experience has become extremely important. Today barring a few honorable exceptions, many educational institutions are functioning with faculty strength of 50 per cent of the sanctioned posts or even less, which is really scary.

I do feel that every reputed institution should develop a robust visiting faculty programme, use online teaching tools and hire retired teachers. I am of the view that the best of post graduate students, having inclination and aptitude for teaching, should be nurtured and hired for teaching positions in the same institution.

Dear Graduating Students,

Today, apart from 'innovation', the other buzzword is 'start-up'.

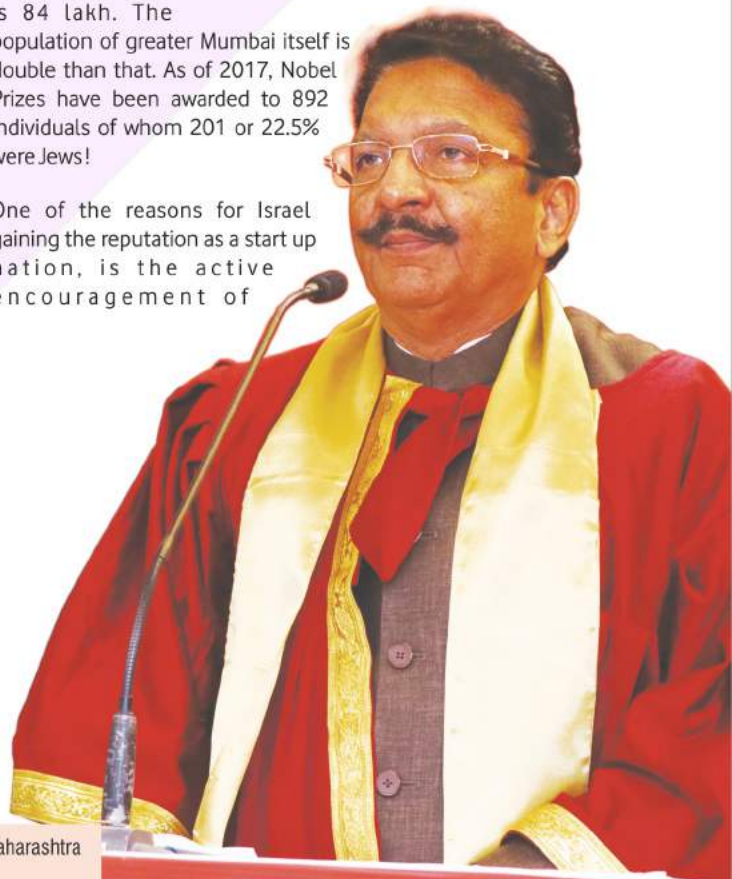

India has taken big strides in creating a startup ecosystem with the launch of the 'Start up India' programme in 2016.

According to the latest Global Innovation Index, India stands at 60th place and is the fourth largest start up economy in the world. Israel on the other hand is a leader, next only to USA.

The geographical area of Israel is 22145 square kilometers. Maharashtra alone has an area which is 13 times bigger than that of Israel. Population of Israel is 84 lakh. The population of greater Mumbai itself is double than that. As of 2017, Nobel Prizes have been awarded to 892 individuals of whom 201 or 22.5% were Jews!

One of the reasons for Israel gaining the reputation as a start up nation, is the active encouragement of government, private enterprises and universities to innovation. The country invests 4.3 per cent of its GDP on Research and Development. Not surprisingly more than 350 multinational companies such as Google, Apple, Facebook, Microsoft etc have their research centres in Israel.

Last week, I had convened a meeting of various stakeholders in Raj Bhavan to create a start up hub in Maharashtra. I do feel that creating a start up hub will also have a positive impact on the culture of research, innovation and enterprise in the State.

Dear friends

When you work for the nation, you give your best at your workplace. I will appeal to you to work with the spirit of nationalism. Let us not think in terms of 'salary packages' alone. Let us, instead think, how best we can serve the nation.

India has already emerged as the youngest nation in the world. By 2020, the average age of an Indian will be 29 years, which is 8 years younger than the average age of a Chinese or an American. Youthful population is our biggest strength. However our national challenges are equally daunting.

We need the power of innovation, research, enterprise and application of all these, to overcome the challenges faced by the nation such as poverty, hunger, disease, unemployment, energy, water security and others. Needless to say, I have great expectations from each one of you.

Convocation is the most important event both for the institute and for the student. I extend my heartiest congratulations to you and also to your parents and teachers.

I am pleased to note that Durgadevi Saraf Institute of Management Studies is establishing linkages with some of the foreign universities and also moving forward towards accreditation, both nationally and internationally. I am glad to hear that the institution is growing vertically in its rankings and performance.

I am confident that under the leadership of Shri Ashok Saraf, the Institution will become one of the most preferred Business Schools in the country.

Before I conclude, I would like to congratulate the faculty, staff and students who have received commendation for their excellent performance.

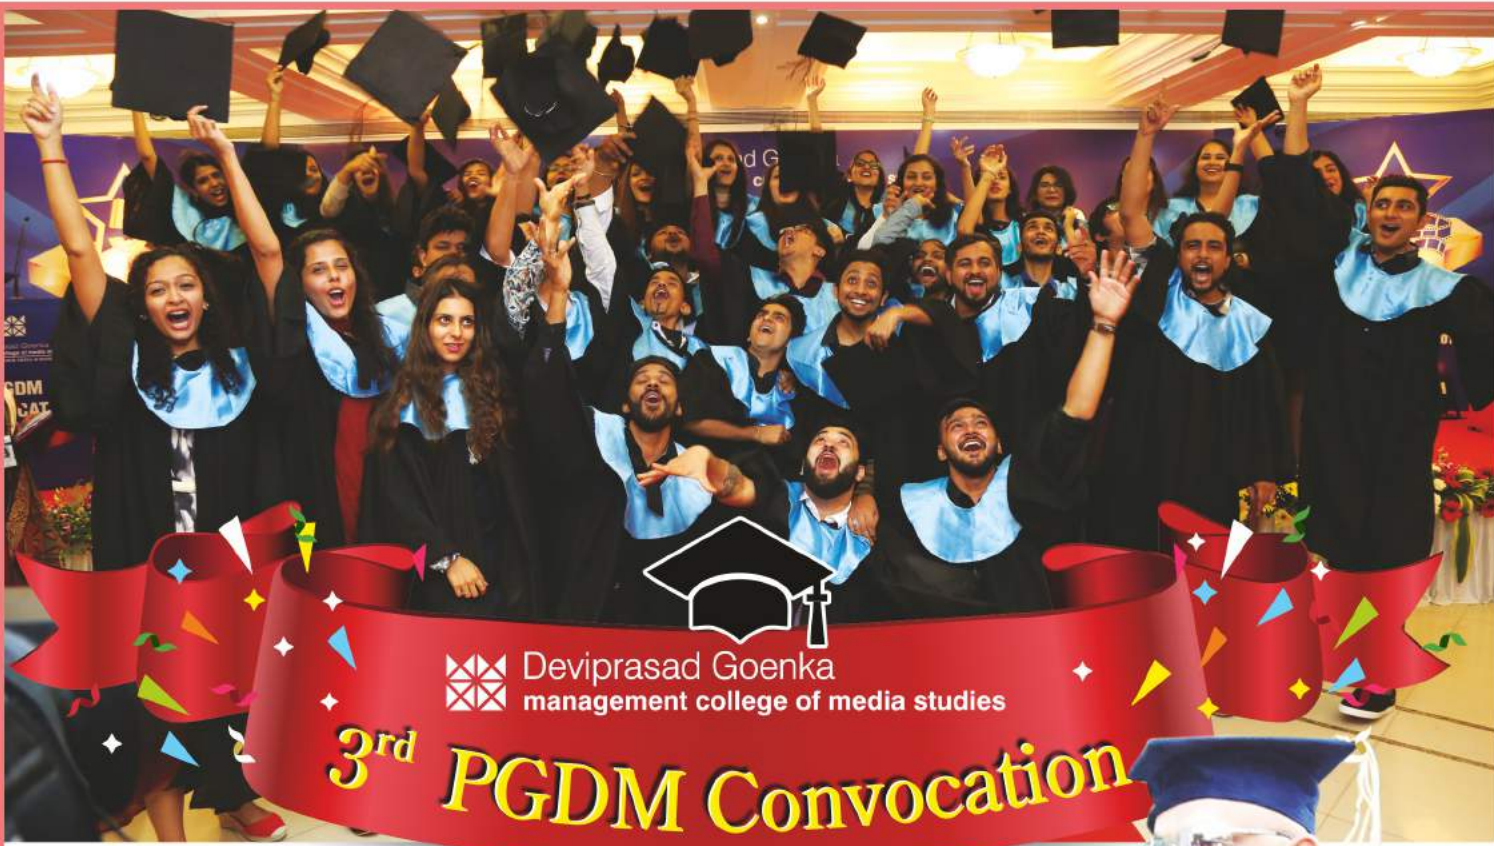

I wish all of you a bright future and wish the Trust Godspeed in its future endeavours.

Thank you

MBIS WORKS

TO MAKE MUMBAI FREE OF PLASTIC BAGS

As citizens of Mumbai, we are aware that the quality of life we live could do with much improvement. The air is polluted, most areas are noisy and there is garbage, and in particular, plastic littering every corner of the city. Many conscious citizens and organisations including the government have been taking steps to bring about a change.

However, every change and improvement in quality of life that a government tries to put into place needs support from all who live in a metropolis such as Mumbai. And if this change has to become sustainable then our young population needs to become involved. This is where schools, which empower our future global citizens play a major role in molding positive attitudes among its students. If attitudes that show a concern for and sensitivity towards our city are inculcated at an early age, they will carry this message with them for the rest of their lives.

At Mainadevi Bajaj International School environmental consciousness is an integral part of the school's academic and co-curricular programme. From a very tender age children are made aware of the impact our lives make on the environment. Culminations, which are conducted once in three months to showcase to parents the extent of our students' learning, reveal that even students from the Primary and Pre-primary section are aware of the need to preserve and improve our environment.

When the menace of plastic bags and other artificial waste littering our beaches was highlighted during the last monsoon, Grade 11 and 12 students of our school worked tirelessly on Saturday mornings to contribute their sweat equity to clean up the beaches. They did this despite the fact that they were part of a challenging IB Diploma Programme. They were supported in this by many of our teachers.

As the government now takes legislative and legal steps to cut down on the use of the harmful plastic bags, MBIS has once again taken an active role to support this. We have launched our own 'MBIS says 'No' to Plastic' campaign, an initiative that involves the whole school community including students, staff, parents and the school leadership.

As a part of this campaign the school has produced thousands of paper and cloth bags with the campaign slogans on either side of the bags. On these bags are slogans which not only urge people to say 'No' to the use of plastic bags but we also provide these users with alternative cloth and paper bags.

When they were informed about it, students were extremely enthusiastic to become a part of the programme. After initial briefing our students have taken these bags home and distributed them in their neighbourhood along with our message. Younger students have shown how they are principled risk-takers by going from shop to shop and giving out paper and plastic bags to vendors around the school. Each of the vendors that we gave the paper bags to expressed their appreciation for the work that the students had undertaken. This initiative has also been extended to the different online platforms that the school uses in an effort to make sure that the citizens of this busy city of ours do take notice and become a part of our campaign to eradicate plastic bags.

MBIS hopes that all the school within the vicinity and other schools in Mumbai will emulate this examples and work towards making the city cleaner, greener and a beautiful place to live in.

Visual Arts SHOW AT MBIS

At Mainadevi Bajaj International School, we offer a wide range of subject choices for students who wish to do the IB Diploma programme. While we cater to students who want to do the mainstream Science, Business and Economics courses we also offer subjects such as Psychology and Visual Arts. At MBIS we believe that Arts are an inherent part of the human condition and encourage students at all ages to participate in them. So we offer Dance, Drama, Music in our curriculum at the earlier ages and the Visual Arts course at the highest level, that is the Diploma Programme.

The visual arts are an integral part of everyday life, permeating all levels of human creativity, expression, communication and understanding.

They range from traditional forms embedded in local and wider communities, societies and cultures, to the varied and divergent practices associated with new, emerging and contemporary forms of visual language. They may have sociopolitical impact as well as ritual, spiritual, decorative and functional value; they can be persuasive and subversive in some instances, enlightening and uplifting in others. We celebrate the visual arts not only in the way we create images and objects, but also in the way we appreciate, enjoy, respect and respond to the practices of art-making by others from around the world. Theories and practices in visual arts are dynamic and ever-changing, and connect many areas of knowledge and human experience through individual and collaborative exploration, creative production and critical interpretation.

The IB Diploma Programme visual arts course encourages students to challenge their own creative and cultural expectations and boundaries. It is a thought-provoking course in which students develop analytical skills in problem-solving and divergent thinking, while working towards technical proficiency and confidence as art-makers. In addition to exploring and comparing visual arts from different perspectives and in different contexts, students are expected to engage in, experiment with and critically reflect upon a wide range of contemporary practices and media. The course is designed for students who want to go on to study visual arts in higher education as well as for those who are seeking lifelong enrichment through visual arts.

Supporting the International Baccalaureate mission statement and learner profile, the course encourages students to actively explore the visual arts within and across a variety of local, regional, national, international and intercultural contexts. Through inquiry, investigation, reflection and creative application, visual arts students develop an appreciation for the expressive and aesthetic diversity in the world around them, becoming critically informed makers and consumers of visual culture.

At Mainadevi Bajaj International School our IB art students are given a free hand in developing the themes that they wish to work on. Each of the students is given adequate guidance and exposure to work of many artists by providing the necessary resources. Students are also taken to art exhibitions at noted art galleries and are encouraged to get into conversations with professional artists. Thus they find adequate inspiration to do their course work. This year there were two students who had chosen to do the Visual Art course. As their teacher of the subject it was interesting for me to see their thinking process as they evolved from elementary art to explore complex themes. The two students were DiyuniPerera and Raj Saroya. While Diyuni is a highly focused student with a serious bent of mind, Raj is playful and explores contemporary themes.

Diyuni's work shows coherence through adequate communication of thematic relationships across individual pieces. The work demonstrates manipulation of media and materials and formal qualities. Her work visually elaborates concepts.

Raj has experimented with a variety of techniques and has taking a painstaking amount of time to develop his work. I could see his style developing and evolving over the last two years. Both the students demonstrated a remarkable staying capacity and patience, which are a must if you have to produce art works that meet with the exacting standards of the IB Diploma Programme.

Graduation Day Celebrations

"Remember the past, Live in the present and look forward to the future"

One of the hardest moments in the early years of parenting is to drop the child at the portals of the school and then walk away. Trusting the school to take care of the cognitive, emotional and social well being of the child is a huge leap of faith. The school, following the ethos of Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust believes that "From a tiny acorn, grows a mighty oak". The children of today will be the future global citizens of tomorrow & we wear the mantle of responsibility to effectively prepare them to take on that task. It has always been our endeavor to create a home away from home for them - a safe, secure & nurturing environment for our little ones to learn & grow.

Benjamin Franklin rightly said, "Tell me & I forget, teach me & I may remember, involve me & I learn". Pre-school graduation at KGES marks the new beginning of a new start towards Primary section. It is a special occasion that is celebrated by kids, their parents, teachers & the invited guests along with the trustees.

The day was celebrated with gusto & gaiety on 10th April, 2018 at D.S. Hall. The guests for the event were the donor trustee Mrs. Neera Saraf, Mrs. Urmila Jain, Mrs. Sarita Goenka, Trustees - Mrs. Archita Rajpuria, Mrs. Nishita Goenka, Director of schools Mr. Nitin Padte, HOIs and staff of RS Campus.

The celebration began with a welcome song by the tiny tots. The theme of the day was "SEVEN WONDERS OF THE WORLD". Our Principal Mrs. Mini Nayar extended a warm welcome to all the dignitaries. She emphasized that at KGES, the students are not only taught Reading and Writing, but also important lessons in life - like team spirit, leadership, discipline, obedience, the courage to reach for the stars, etc. She thanked the parents for joining in to build a sense of responsibility, ethics and good character in our students. The budding & poised students of the pre-primary section anchored the event as they spoke with confidence displaying their oratory skills. The dance performances set the tone & mood for the event. Their passion and zest had the audience mesmerized.

The pre-primary Coordinator - Mrs. Rakhee Pandya presented the glimpses of 2017-18. She emphasized that the school not only offered the best in academics but also encouraged the overall development of the students through various extra-curricular activities. The cultural extravaganza was culminated with the most important event of the day - The Graduation Day of Sr. Kg. to the Primary Section.

The students walked the ramp confidently to receive their Graduation certificates & medals from the honourable guests. The ceremony being the culmination of the academic year for the pre-primary section, the awards for the Best Student went to:

1) Ms. Kashvi Shah (Overall best student of Pre-primary Section)

- 2) Mst. Aman Yadav (Over all best athlete of Pre-primary Section)
- 3) Ms. Riya Patil (Best student of Pre-Nursery)
- 4) Ms. Ahana Ash (Best student of Nursery)
- 5) Mst. Uzair Shah (Best student of Jr. Kg)

Appreciation at any stage of life motivates one to perform better. The Principal declared the best teacher award to Ms. Sunita Koshy for her dedication & commitment. She was congratulated and was awarded with an Appreciation certificate by the Trustee, Mrs. Neera Saraf.

The colorful ceremony came to an end with the vote of thanks by Ms. Hema Lohani thanking the esteemed guests, parents, teachers & the support staff for their efforts in making the function a great success.

Annual Day Celebrations

One of the most anxiously awaited celebrations at MBIP is its Annual Day. The preparations for the Annual Day had begun much ahead of the day itself. We had our annual day on 7th April 2018 at Durgadevi Saraf Hall from 10:30 am onwards. Parents, grandparents, along with all the other family members were sent an invitation well in advance.

We started the event with a welcome speech, where in we were delighted to welcome our academic head Mrs. Urvi Pal, our trustee Mrs Archita Rajpuria, and our admin head Mrs. Khyati Shah. We had special pleasure when we welcomed the audience of our beloved grandparents, mom, dad, and family members of the tiny tots at MBIP who have extended their unconditional support throughout the year. We lastly welcomed the pillars of our institute our team of teachers and the support staff.

The journey with toddlers had so far been very exciting. We started the programme with a mesmerizing presentation called JOURNEY 2017-2018. We at MBIP believe the path to a smart kid isn't about rote learning but instead it is about finding ways to help kids fall in love with learning. Hence we showcased it through a brief presentation of activities done creatively in class throughout the year. We could look over a sea of faces in the audience proud parents, friends and family members as they were overwhelmed with joy looking at the journey of their kids at MBIP.

After the presentation we started the much awaited performances by the kids. Parents were excited when they saw the youngest group of kids from playgroup perform on a medley of rhymes. The audience was amazed to see the tiniest of tots spreading their magic with performances on stage. Parents also cheered the kids by singing along at the time of the performance. At MBIP it was proved through various performances that everything is taught through fun. We had the Daffodils and Lilies batch kids performing on various songs i.e. My heart goes Sha la la la, To the music, the very famous Hokey Pokey song and on the song Better when I am dancing. Kids learnt to follow the steps and use their props appropriately, which was a huge milestone in the lives of our kids at an early age. MBIP kids enjoyed their daily dose of fitness by a performance on the very famous Zumba song along with display of various animal poses learnt during the year. Last but not the least we had all the shining stars on stage as they gathered to sing their favorite "LOVE YOU" finale song.

We also had a graduation ceremony at the end of all the performances. Kids from all the batches were called on the stage and were awarded a graduation hat along with certificates for successfully completing their playschool at MBIP.

It was a memorable day and a fun filled event at MBIP. In the end we reached out to parents for their feedback and we could see parents with tears of happiness after seeing their kids on stage. A thank you note along with snacks was provided to all as we came to the end of Annual Day at MBIP.

We are happy and we know it

The audience watching with rapt attention

We are proud MBIP graduates

We had fun performing Boogie Woogie

Let your creative work tell your story.' Keeping this in mind, an Art and Craft exhibition was organized at RBHS on Friday, 20 April 2018 as a collaborative effort of teachers and students. The exhibition was held to provide a platform for children to demonstrate their talent. Beautiful art and craft work made by the Primary and Secondary students was on display. The students smeared the white canvasses with a spectrum of colours and gave vent to their imagination. There were collage work, landscape, design, still life, glass painting and nature drawing. The Craft work involved puppets, lovely wall hangings, decorative diya designs, door archways and objects made with the theme 'best out of waste'. As many as 300 exhibits were displayed. The exhibited works revealed that our teachers and students had put in very hard and creative hours to come up with such marvelous exhibits.

Composition helps the student to express his views on what is happening in the world around, besides expressing personal thoughts, feelings and experiences. The myriad designs that were on display lit up the exhibition area and made it beautiful. The preparation for the exhibition started in the class itself wherein students were given various themes to work on. Their creative talent was at the fore and it was surprising to see the children come up with bright ideas to make their work a masterpiece.

The students were very enthusiastic right from the beginning and each work of art or the craft item to be displayed was rendered carefully and lovingly. The exhibits were very attractive and colourful for they had been prepared and designed well by the students with guidance from the Art teachers.

Parents were extremely happy to see their children's work and amazed at the creative aspect of their child being unleashed. They appreciated the Art teachers for their persistent efforts in bringing out the best in each child.

The beautiful paintings and art work left the spectators mesmerized and the creative talent of students was highly appreciated. This helped boost the confidence of students and it revealed that 'Art can permeate the very deepest part of us where no words exist.'

INTERNATIONAL YOGA DAY CELEBRATION AT RSET

Every year all over the world, International Yoga Day is celebrated on 21st June, 2018. The proposal to celebrate 21st June as the International Yoga Day was put forward by Hon'ble Prime Minister Narendra Modi in September, 2014. He proposed this suggestion during his speech at the United Nations General Assembly (UNGA) during his address. The UNGA members soon gave a positive nod to it and 21st June, 2015 was celebrated as the First International Yoga Day.

Yoga enthusiasm continued in 2nd and 3rd International Yoga Day and people participated in large numbers, practiced yoga asanas on this day. A series of yoga related events were also organized across the world to mark the occasion. Calling yoga a unifying force and passport for wellness, Prime Minister Narendra Modi along with 50,000 volunteers started India's Fourth International Yoga Day by celebrating in Dehradun on 21st June, 2018. In Mumbai, Vice – President of India, Venkaiah Naidu along with Chief Minister of Maharashtra Shri Devendra Fadnavis performed yoga at Bandra Reclamation on the occasion of International Yoga Day.

Institutions of Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust also celebrated the occasion with great enthusiasm. Following are the details of the celebration of International Yoga Day at RSET Campus on 21st June 2018.

Yoga day was celebrated in Kudilal Govindram Seksaria Sarvodaya School on 21st June, 2018 in a grand manner. Yoga is a physical, mental and spiritual practice attributed mostly to India. The Ayush Ministry, Government of India issued an International Yoga day Protocol to be followed by all schools and government institutions. Yoga heals the soul and thus must be practiced regularly by young and old alike. Students of KGSS are taught Yogasanas, deep breathing exercises and meditation techniques during their physical education periods throughout the year.

Students assembled in the PDSA ground in spotless white uniforms for the Yoga Session on 21st June at 2pm. The PT teachers - Mrs. Alka Gharat and Mrs. Mebal Rodrigues conducted the session with extreme perfection beginning with the chanting of "OM" and the Gayatri Mantra followed by the various warm up exercises which consisted of neck stretching exercises, shoulder stretching exercises, shoulder rotation etc.

Students were fully charged to perform the Asanas under the efficient supervision of the teachers. Tadasan, Vrikshasan, Ardha chakrasan, Dandasana, Vajrasana, Bhujangasana and many more asanas were performed with ease and perfection by the students which was a clear proof of the year long practice given to the students.

The students were informed about the History of Yoga, how the International Day came into force and that India as a country that has been practicing Yoga for the past 5000 years. The objective of the celebration of the International Day of Yoga was 'to strengthen the global coordination among people through Yoga' so as to enhance growth, development and peace all over the world, was also brought out very well.

A few students demonstrated various asanas; including Suryanamaskar; which were emulated by the audience. Yoga is the journey of the self, through the self, to the self Yoga is a physical, mental and spiritual practice originated in India. Maharishi Patanjali is the 'father of Yoga' who compiled 195 Yoga Sutras that became the foundation of Yoga philosophy. The commentary on these sutras is called Bhasya. The core essence of Patanjali is the eightfold path of Yoga (Ashtanga Yoga) that focuses upon healthy living through Yoga.

Yoga and meditation have the power to improve our intuitive ability so that we spontaneously realize what needs to be done, when and how, to yield positive results. There are many benefits of yoga. It purifies the body and the mind at the same time.

Durgadevi Saraf Institute of Management Studies celebrated International Day of Yoga on Thursday, 21st of June. Yoga brings many benefits, physical and mental to its practitioners. It's practice is very relevant to students of B-Schools also, given the regular pressures of assignments, presentations and extensive study, they have to deal with.

The celebrations at DSIMS were led by Dr. Jayant Apte, Vice-Principal of Ghanshyamdas Saraf College of Arts and Commerce who was invited to enlighten the students & staff. He informed all students, faculty members and other staff present, about importance of doing Yoga not just on yoga day but every day. He also explained about Yoga being supplemented by BrahmaVidya. He emphasized that physical exercises should be accompanied by deep breathing exercise and meditation. He has been teaching this method of wellbeing for many years to Mumbaiikars. The participants appreciated being given an insight into these ancient practices which will enable them to live holistic lives.

It is indeed amazing how this age old way of healing mind, body and soul still works. Yoga practitioners around the world advocate people to inculcate yoga in their routine life. The reason behind recognizing a particular day as International Yoga Day is also to emphasize the importance of embedding it in our life.

Au Revoir...So Long

All good things come to an end and so does the academic year 2017-2018 but with the promise of better and greater experiences unfolding in the next academic year.

It is with a sense of pride that we look back at the year gone by: a culmination of our teaching-learning spirit, a keen participation in co-curricular activities and events, various accomplishments at Inter-school events and a general sense of well-being fostering kinship and camaraderie.

April was the harbinger of culminations of sorts with plenty of fun, both academically as well as through extracurricular activities.

Culmination – Speech and Drama:

Being afraid of public speaking is a fear acknowledged by many adults. That children are afraid of it too, shouldn't be a surprise. Helen o Grady edudrama academy focuses on the speech, pronunciation, expression, intonation and body percussion and our students participated in these Speech and Drama activities to build their self-confidence, develop communication skills and interpersonal skills through creative imagination. The above activities were showcased in a form of plays during the Specialist Culmination.

International Sports Development and Peace Celebration:

The Annual International day of sports development and peace was celebrated by MBIS students and teachers on Friday, 6th April, 2018. This was one of the main sports events of the year. The event kicked off in the morning with the students and teachers of Grade 1 to 5 playing Dodge ball and Lagori.

Show and Tell is a key part of the school day and it is an important part of the child's learning development.

Transportation is the most popular topic in preschool as it is part of our everyday lives. Children loved to talk about the various modes and means of transport system and shared their experience with others. Students of Nursery enjoyed going on the Transport Parade to see different types of vehicles going up and down the street. They enjoyed making the connections by singing songs, counting cars and observing different types of road transport.

Water is clearly a mystery to me,
A solid - a liquid - a gas - it's all three.

Water is clearly a mystery to me.

Students of Nursery and Jr. KG actively participated in the campaign to spread awareness about conserving water and importance of clean water.

EVENTS AT DSIMS

3rd April, 2018 – Meet the Celebrity

Mr. Ninad Karpe Author Bond to Baba What could be common between Marathi blockbuster Sairaat movie, Baahubali, Pro Kabaddi League and corporate strategy? The book "BOND to BABA - Successful Strategies" by Mr. Ninad Karpe, Director, Aptech Limited and former Chairman, Confederation of Indian Industries – Western Region, draws corporate strategy lessons from real life examples across entertainment, sports and politics. Inspired by a range of subjects, the book derives useful lessons for business leaders, managers, students and anyone interested in the practical application of strategy.

Mr. Ninad Karpe, the author, interacted with the students and faculty of Durgadevi Saraf Institute of Management Studies under program Meet The Celebrity.

While introducing the book to the audience Mr. Karpe, said, "The book draws parallels from recent happenings and significant historical events to understand the strategies that could be used in creating brands.

Mr. Kewal Handa and Dr. Kondap presenting MMS Graduation Certificate to Mr. Akshay Dave, Finance

It is my endeavour to reveal practical applications of strategy in today's dynamic and ever-changing digital world."

From James Bond to Baba Ramdev, Mr. Karpe gave an account of strategic insights that can be extracted from 10 unconventional illustrations like James Bond; Kabaddi; Formula One; Hardik Patel; Alexander the Great; soccer; Baahubali; Arvind Kejriwal, Baba Ramdev; and the surprise Marathi blockbuster, Sairat.

Mr. Karpe sprinkled the narrative with his personal experiences and perspectives, adding high credibility to his keen observations. He asserted that leaders need to "constantly rethink, reinvent, and reboot."

Mr. Ninad Karpe addressing the students under its Meet the Celebrity Program

For instance, using Skyfall he illustrated how the five-decade-old legendary Bond franchise, highlighted the key role of emotional quotient, judgement, and intuition in business. Equally fascinating is how "pincer strategy," a war tactic or a manoeuvre used by Alexander to attack the enemy from both sides, has been applied worldwide by corporates to unsettle competitors.

Towards the closure of the event he interacted with students and faculties admitting that there is no perfect roadmap for evolving and implementing strategies using snippets of relevant examples. He was felicitated by Director Dr. C. Babu.

Thought Leadership – The Art of Business Networking - Mr. Manoj Gursahani

Mr. Manoj Gursahani, Chairman – US India Investors Forum and Founder - Travelmart India interacted with the students and faculties of Durgadevi Saraf Institute of Management under its Thought Leadership Forum emphasizing the significance of business networking.

You arrive alone. Your heart is beating a little faster than normal and suddenly all of your charisma and charm go out the window. You try to lock eyes with someone so that you can find a temporary home in what can feel like a sea of strangers. But everyone looks happily engaged in conversation. It's also what many people feel when they enter a networking event. Using simple and easy to relate anecdotes like these Mr. Gursahani highlighted the importance of networking.

He stated that building a network that really works for your business is about having a continuous audit of the ways people you know connect and create opportunity.

He clarified, "Building a network that works is both an art and a science. It is an art in that it requires basic human skills in communication, connection, authenticity and the ability to be 'in the present' and engaged with people and conversation."

He advised the students to always identify the 'critical few' with whom they could maintain stable relationships, remember each other's names, keep in contact and do each other favour. Engage with a smaller group of people who provide quality thinking and behaviour. Individuals that can push and stretch thinking, that can open doors and teach mastery and knowledge. Identify the quality of people and stop obsessing about the quantity." He concluded giving a few useful tips like building rapport, nurture a relationship, value people and more importantly look for long term opportunities not quick gains. He was felicitated by Director Dr. C. Babu.

credit courses. The first batch comprising of 19 students attended two courses for a period of eight weeks in 2017.

This year also, 14 students of the batch 2017-19 availed the opportunity to represent DSIMS internationally and study two courses as a part of a four-week Study Abroad Program in May 2018. The subjects learnt during this span of 4 weeks were Value Systems and Professional Ethics and Servant Leadership.

The subject Value Systems and Professional Ethics enlightened our students that at the very core of the business lay the values that the people at the very top believe in and these are what makes or breaks a business.

The students were also introduced to the still evolving subject of Servant Leadership, which strove to give them an understanding of a new, unconventional form of leadership. The subject accentuated the fact that the leader needs the permission and trust of the followers to be able to lead. This ancient philosophy motivated the students to introspect and hone themselves as better and sensitive leaders.

Dr. C. Babu, Mr. Ashok M. Saraf, Mr. Andreas Emser, Director, Frankfurt School of Finance and Management and Ms. Larissa, Regional Head, India, Frankfurt School of Finance and Management at the MoU signing ceremony

Both the courses helped the students to develop on their emotional quotient and empathy in different business situations. During their period of stay the students underwent timely evaluations in the form of assignments, presentations and short quizzes pertaining to the subjects, and were challenged to think differently and innovatively, be creative and put their abilities to test. The students were introduced to a different method of learning and evaluation. The students learnt a new way towards education and were intrigued by the different atmosphere and approach to the learning in the country.

In addition to imbibing knowledge, this international exposure provided the students with the unique opportunity to learn about the work culture and how the industries, both small and big function in the US. They visited the magnanimous Wal-Mart Distribution Centre, where they got to see the workings of the hypermarket procurement and distribution; Hasty Awards, a company responsible for manufacturing, producing and distributing medals, plaques and trophies for local, regional sports as well as the swimming qualifiers for Olympics; Hallmark Cards, the Kansas-bred world renowned company which is now a household name for all festivities; Moon Marbles; Kansas City Speedway, where everything is dedicated to the successful hosting of two races in a year.

The faculty and administration at OU also organized recreational visits for the students to give them a taste of life beyond the vigorous class room study schedules, and sequestered small, quaint town of Ottawa. The students visited Kansas City and got to solve a mystery at hand at the Breakout KC and enjoy the food trucks at the city's liveliest and most popular event 'First Friday' on the sidewalks of the Crossroads.

Dr. Sarita Vichore, Associate Dean accompanied the students in the initial face of the program. Dr. Sarita Vichore was invited as a Guest Speaker at Kauffman Foundation on 4th May, 2018 at Kansas City. This foundation is funded for entrepreneurs who have business revenue of over 1 million dollars.

Dr. Sarita delivered a lecture on "CREATING AND TRACKING VALUE GENERATION IN YOUR COMPANY". This was arranged by Dr. Marylou De Wald, Ottawa University.

Towards the end of the program, the university hosted a sumptuous graduation ceremony for the students on the successful completion of the 4 week long journey, which was attended by the staff and administration along with the students and their host families. FITNESS REGIME

Established in 2015

Mr. Dharamraj Yadav, Sports Incharge

"The Importance of Sports & Physical Fitness in Students."

In the pursuit of academic success, children sometimes need a break from the classroom and an opportunity to release pent-up energy. While academic success is no small feat, students who participate in at least one extracurricular physical activity are proven to reap more benefits than those who do not exercise regularly. PDSA provides children with the facilities to engage in sports activities each week which helps improve students' overall focus on school work, as well as help them live happier, healthier lives. Here are four reasons why students should be involved in structured, after-school physical activities.

1. Academic Performance – Studies show that students involved in athletic programs maintain a higher GPA and achieve higher test scores.

2. Fitness Habits – Sports help students develop coordination and teaches them how to care for their bodies through proper stretching and the development of fundamental mechanics. Participating in athletics at an early age instills physical fitness habits that carry over into adulthood, helping to avoid health problems.

3. Mental and Emotional Benefits – Athletics have great physical benefits, but also help children to improve mentally and emotionally. While the body exercises, the brain releases endorphins. From a biological standpoint alone, students who are physically active are happier and have a constructive outlet through which to relieve stress.

4. Development of Specific Skills – Through athletics, students are able to accumulate a whole host of skills and abilities. Leadership, teamwork, confidence, and self-reliance are the big character focuses. Critical thinking is developed on the playing field as athletes need to quickly solve problems created by their opponents. Time management, a skill necessary in adulthood, is also brought into play as children learn to balance their time between schoolwork, sports, and family life.

Even if your child is not interested in team sports, there are plenty of less intense, solitary options. Activities such as swimming, gymnastics, track, martial arts, yoga, and golf provide physical benefits and allow students to engage in an extracurricular activity where they can advance at their own pace.

Summer Camp

Sports and physical activity is the most valuable and accepted part of our school's curriculum. It contributes to the all-round development of a child. To encourage children and help them compete to their full potential, a summer camp was organized by PDSA. It consisted of 3 batches of 15 days each from the 15th of April to the 30th of May. It gave an opportunity to the children to learn and explore their interests with an exciting curriculum that included basketball, football, skating and cricket. The summer camp was instrumental in fine tuning their skills in various activities. It also helped instill the spirit of sportsmanship and importance of teamwork in them. Due to these positive take-aways, the summer camp was a huge hit among the parents as they requested for more activities in the near future. We hope to exceed their expectations soon.

Reset your FUN clock

Sports camp aims to introduce children to different team and independent athletic options so that they can choose a sport that resonates with their interest. It will offer all the benefits of physical activity for the child's improvement in social and motor skills along with basic technical know-hows. The camp will be conducted by professionals who shall play a major role in helping the children develop new skills as well as encourage the sprightly ones to give their best.

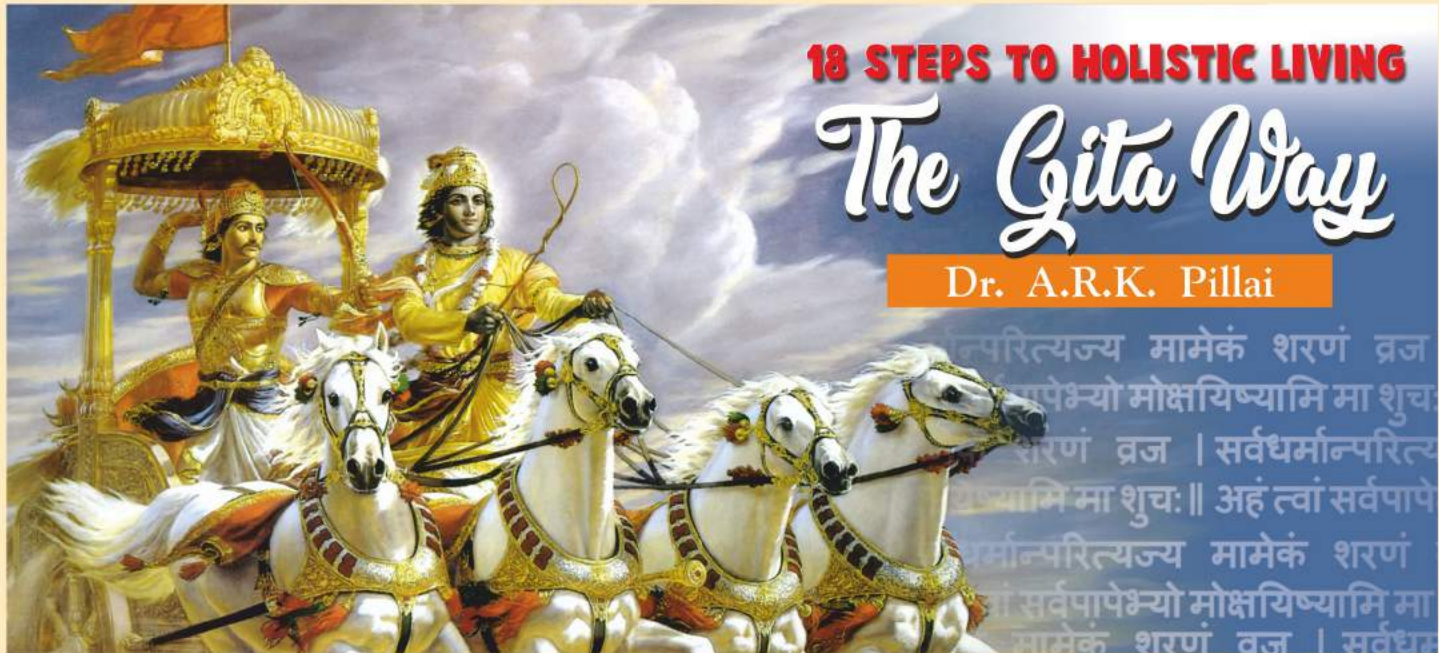

Owing to the overwhelming positive response of the Summer Camp, PDSA has introduced 10 activities namely chess, cricket, mini tennis, table tennis, dance, enjoy ball, kit-fit, Karate, Martial Art, football and basketball. The facilities will be of an international standard and will focus on providing a direct and positive effect on the well-being of the youth in the community where they live.

Due to its popularity, this activity programme will be open to people across all age groups. Through this provision we aim to create a positive impact on people. We also expect great enthusiasm and a high level of energy among potential participants.

Dr. A.R.K. Pillai

Children today are born in a world that communicates so much through technology that the child of today has forgotten the world of print media. Black and white are colours that seem to be sparingly used as parents document their information and data, and share everything about themselves and their relatives more through social media. Blogs, YouTubes, online scrapbooks, and various other means are used to connect with one's kith and kin and to display one's creativity and art form. Anything handwritten seems to be novel and unique for the man today.

But one must also recognise the unique role of a teacher or leader to enhance the learning experience and motivate the students in a way that technology alone cannot. It has been observed that the parent or a teacher connects best with a child either by telling a story or by reciting a poem or a song.

Sreemad Bhagavad Gita is itself a song that is revered and respected for its rich values. It is called the 'Song of the Lord'.

Sreemad Bhagavad Gita is worth reading and adopting its tenets in daily life. I had the pleasure of writing the short volume of Gita, a summary which I understood after reading a few Gita books by different authors. Gita covers complex issues of our life and every effort has been made to simplify the tenets into common usage. The compilation put in '18 steps to holistic living' is meant for children, though persons of all ages can read and adopt the values.

Bhagavad Gita needs to reach millions who haven't read it so far. A lot of good changes are bound to happen to the readers and it is our fervent hope that the readers will prompt their family members and friends to read the crispy version for better understanding. I had noted down my own version after reading a few editions composed by eminent persons and simplified the message into common language for easy absorption by readers. I have kept children as my focus while writing this booklet. By adopting some values given in the booklet, children will change for the better, brighter and well accepted by all around.

Bhagavad Gita is the text of conversations between Sree Krishna and Arjuna in the battlefield of Kurukshetra. The conversations were heard by Sanjaya and later related to his master. The Kurukshetra battlefield is ready with a mighty force of Kauravas with Duryodhana as its captain and a comparatively smaller opposing unit with Arjuna as its captain. Sree Krishna, doesn't participate in the warfare, but steers the horse driven chariot. At Arjuna's request, Lord Krishna draws the chariot before the theKauravas to enable Arjuna to see the captains of the opposing army. Arjuna sees his respected elders and important friends in the opposing battalion and downs his arms, telling Lord Krishna about his inability to engage in battle and kill his elders. Lord Krishna counsels Arjuna that duty is important and he should never withdraw from his mission. The battle is between the values of good and evil, summarises Lord Krishna. Thereupon, Arjuna gets empowered and takes up the arms again and after-a-while the bugles on both sides are blown to start the battle. The advice given by Lord Krishna to Arjuna in the battlefield is the text of Bhagavad Gita.

We face a variety of problems in our life and we are often perplexed to face and combat these vexing issues. The advice contained in Bhagavad Gita can help all to combat the issues with triumph. Bhagavad Gita is thus a guide for life's issues and problems. The war between the Pandavas and the Kauravas is a situation that needs to be visualised as a life-situation or corporate situation and every lesson that one learns from the Gita needs to be applied in reality, to be successful. I for one have experienced such situations in personal and work front. Duty, Dharma and Decision are the three lessons which can be learnt from this administrative handbook.

The book is an attempt to reach out to the young and old alike. I enjoyed writing it at the age of 90. Also I enjoyed painting the coverpage of the book. It took 180 days for me to write this crisp summary and 18 days to design the cover-page which goes perfectly well with 18 chapters of Sreemad Bhagavad Gita.

The sloka from Sreemad Bhagavad Gita (chapter 18, verse 66) is most close to my heart.

Abandon all varieties of dharmas and simply surrender unto me alone. I shall liberate you from all sinful reactions; do not fear. I take this opportunity to wish you all a blessed life ahead.

Former Chairman of ISRO and Mangalyan Man, Dr. K. Radhakrishnan wrote on Dr. Pillai's book – '18 steps to holistic living – The Gita way'.

"I have had the opportunity to write about a star today. Dr. A. R. K. Pillai, is an amazing author, a great exemplary leader and a management consultant. He is the Founder of Indian Leprosy Foundation, which later evolved as Indian Development Foundation, working in three major areas of Health, Education and Development. He specializes in teaching leadership development and team building and has great oratory skills. He's trained thousands of "change agents", thus creating the second line of leaders ready, with new ideas, to prevent any kind of saturation or stagnation in society. Dr. Pillai is a man of action and selfless duty. He serves unconditional, true to the Gita dictum, 'karmanyevaadikaraste, maaphaleshukadachina'. He believes strongly that what one sows is what one begets.

Dr. Pillai's power to motivate needs no explanation or example to prove. At the age of 90, he is still a learner. He walks the talk. This book "18 Steps to Holistic Living - The Gita Way" written by him is published as it is written by him, handwritten, primarily to show that it was not dictated by him and typed by someone else, to make things easier, for the techno world to take over. He kept his human touch dominant. He developed passion for painting as he entered 90 in life. The cover page too, designed and painted by him, with the young and trembling fingers, show his undying passion and unflinching promise to himself and his arty, creative soul.

Having watched planets and satellites for so many years, and having written about them so many times, during my tenure at ISRO, I feel honoured to write about THIS SHINING STAR". I have read his book and I wish him and his book all success. May all the readers enjoy and gain wisdom from the simplistic manner in which he has brought this profound philosophy."

Dr. A.R.K. Pillai

Dr. Pillai was grief stricken at the plight of underprivileged and disabled people right from his childhood. He has been working in silence to eradicate the social evils which has gripped our society due to centuries of injustice heaped on the downtrodden and poor.

Born in 1928, Dr. Pillai saw various turn of events as his family went through financial hardships. Faced with question of survival, Dr. Pillai had to suppress his social inclination. He understood the stark reality of having sufficient resources, if one has to fulfill his dreams of helping fellow human beings. Difficult times drove Dr. Pillai from his hometown in Kerala to distant land, Mumbai. For months he struggled with new language, place and people and survived by doing odd jobs. Sheer luck got him a job in Railways at clerk level. With determination and hardwork, he climbed ladder after ladder and completed his MA and LLB. His creative nature took him to advertising agency backed by new qualifications in advertising, PR and journalism. He soon realized that media is the best medium to highlight the evils of society.

Deliberations and discussions in family and one day he quit his work to take up the cause of eradication of leprosy. He continued his life by writing to papers and managed his affairs with limited money he had saved. During this time, he was approached by Germany and Switzerland to take up Public Relations role for their Leprosy Projects in India. He spent years visiting Germany and Switzerland raising funds for leprosy patients in India. With the help of some friends ILEF (Indian Leprosy Foundation) was formed in 1984.

It was a daunting task to run ILEF with meager resources. Dr. Pillai could not even raise a 4 figure amount in his first year of operation. But as was his nature, he never gave up and worked hard to raise funds. He has done this successfully year after year for last 33 years with public participation. IDF today works with hundreds of health and education institutions in India. The service model is unique and Dr. Pillai has been invited to assist not only Indian but also international organisations. People who work with him do not work for money (as NGOs cannot pay handy salaries like corporates) but they are social soldiers who are continuously inspired by their leader.

Dr. Pillai had received International Awards like Albert Schweitzer Award, Diploma of Honour from France, Italy, Invitation from the Vatican City and blessings from Mother Teresa. He has received the President of America's Social Service Award at Chicago, Special Awards from Government of Maharashtra, Tamil Nadu, Dr. Radhakrishnan Award, LifeTime Achievement Award from Rotary International and several others for outstanding social work for over 50 years.

At 90, Dr. Pillai starts his day before sunrise, spends lots of time in corresponding with various agencies, visits to projects, inspires people continuously to strive for development. He is truly an 'icon of inspiration'.

A resolution to do something concrete crept up as he entered 90, thus joined a painting class, did over a dozen of paintings which were exhibited in art galleries and the proceeds given for leprosy and education cause. He has demonstrated that there is no age bar for learning new skill in life. Age does not stop him from travelling and Dr. Pillai continues to travel widely and address students across the nation. Dr. Pillai also wrote a handwritten Bhagavad Gita for younger generation in crisp format titled '18 Steps to Holistic Living – The Gita Way'.

Thank you Donors

Our family of donors include illustrious business families, individuals, corporate partners, foundations and all those people who are committed to our philosophy of providing "Quality Education for All" and have been coming forward with their contribution from time to time to create an institution of educational excellence.

Through these columns, we thank and acknowledge the support of our donors for their generous contribution over the years. Your support and contribution plays an important role in helping Rajasthani Sammelan to achieve its mission of developing a community dedicated to achieving national and international levels of excellence in various fields of education.

Your generosity has significantly contributed and helped the students in various areas. Every donation that you make impacts the life of our students in some way or the other. Your contribution has helped us build various institutes of excellence with the best infrastructure that include state of the art computer labs, knowledge resource centre, communication centre, health centre, educational outlet, sports facilities and scholarships instituted for meritorious students. All our institutes have benefitted immensely from your support.

Undoubtedly, you as our esteemed donors have made Rajasthani Sammelan stand tall in stature and have helped it grow from time to time. Like you, there have been many others whose contribution to Rajasthani Sammelan way back in the early 1950s has been significant and notable. And we gratefully acknowledge their noteworthy contribution in setting up the edifice of this great institution.

We gratefully acknowledge the contribution made by Late Shri Kudilalji Seksaria who donated the land on which the current structure of Rajasthani Sammelan stands. This contribution cannot be valued in terms of money, and it would only undermine his contribution if we were to measure this in monetary terms.

At the same time, had it not been for the significant contribution of Rs. 50,000/- by Shri Brijmohan Ruia (Brijmohan Laxminarayan Ruia Charity Trust) way back around the year 1950, the landmark Sarvodaya Balika Vidyalaya would not have come up. A small dream way back in early 1950s has today paved the way for a number of institutions under the banner of Rajasthani Sammelan. As they say, "It all begins with a Dream".

We are proud to have you all as an integral part of the positive impact and an enduring legacy that we are creating at Rajasthani Sammelan. May your benevolence continue to bring about the change we wish to see in our educational system. We stand committed to spread our wings and fly higher. In this journey of growth, we seek your continued support.

We constantly endeavour to maintain accuracy in the list of donors and we thank you for the feedback in case of any discrepancy that has been noted. Should there be any errors or omissions in this list, we urge you to contact our Donations Officer on rs@rajasthani.org.in.
