PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Reader,

'I have never found any Trust so trust worthy' was the remark made by Dr. Kiran Bedi, Hon'ble Lt. Governor of Puducherry, referring to Rajasthan Sammelan Education Trust at the Foundation Day and Academic Inauguration of Durgadevi Saraf Institute of Management Studies on 16th August, 2017 at Durgadevi Saraf Hall in the educational campus of RSET. The remark made by Hon'ble Dr. Kiran Bedi summarized all our efforts in the journey of educational endeavours. Truly, we always stood high to the expectations of all our stakeholders - the parents and students in terms of providing quality education, best infrastructure, latest technological support and well qualified faculty for teaching learning right from the playschool to schools, colleges, management institute and media college.

Overall development of the individual is the goal of education and we at RSET have ensured that there is no stone left unturned to equip the students by providing complete education so that they can face challenges in life and also pursue a good career. In recent years, government is taking strong steps to improve standard of school as well as higher education. The School Education Department of Maharashtra has introduced baseline tests for state affiliated schools for the past two years and is also strict on students' attendance. Teachers are also being made responsible for the performance of the students. The State Government also plans to link student and school performance to the appraisal of teachers and their promotion. In the area of higher and technical education, a recent verdict of Supreme Court of India restrained all Deemed Universities to carry on engineering degree courses through distance education mode from the academic session 2018-19. Therefore, while selecting institutions for higher studies, students have to be very careful in terms of the academic standing of the institution as it is the student who has to pay biggest price for violations of rules by any institution or university and also further regulatory failure.

As far as institutions run by our Trust are concerned, two of our schools i.e. Kudilal Govindram Seksaria Sarvodaya School and Kudilal Govindram Seksaria English School are affiliated to Maharashtra State Board, Ramniwas Bajaj English High School to ICSE Board and Mainadevi Bajaj International School to IBO Geneva and IGCSE Board, Cambridge University. All our institutions of higher education are affiliated to University of Mumbai while Durgadevi Saraf Institute of Management Studies and Deviprasad Goenka Management College of Media Studies are also approved by AICTE as well as DTE. In the past few months, many of our institutions have made us proud by winning awards and accolades. Mainadevi Bajaj International School has been ranked 6th in Mumbai and 1st in North zone with International Curriculum as per Times International School Survey 2017. Ghanshyamdas Saraf College is in the process of starting Bloomberg Research Lab having twelve terminals in the college. The PGDM students of Durgadevi Saraf Institute of Management Studies recently visited Germany and Switzerland for International Immersion. DSIMS also hosted IIT Kharagpur's Entrepreneurship Awareness Drive (EAD) in which keynote address was delivered by Shri Dilip Chhabria. DGMC organized a panel discussion on Gender Stereotypes in Films in collaboration with US Consulate General on 18th August, 2017 at RSET Campus. DGMC & DSIMS celebrated Foundation Day in a grand manner with Shri Anuj Poddar, Senior Vice President, Viacom 18 and Dr. Kiran Bedi, Hon'ble Lt. Governor of Puducherry as the Chief Guest respectively.

In the area of sports, Pravinchandra D. Shah Sports Academy has been selected for FIFA Selfi Point organized by DSO, Government of Maharashtra, as one of the 15 centres in Mumbai to support FIFA U-17 World Cup. To promote FIFA World Cup, PDSA organized a football tournament in which 06 schools participated and the winner of the boys tournament was Mainadevi Bajaj International School. The winner of the girls team was Ramniwas Bajaj English High School. The girls Kabaddi team of Durgadevi Saraf Junior College won final match at Regional level and has been selected for State level. Two girls students of DSJC are selected for U-19 National Team (Maharashtra Team) for Kabaddi. Also, one student of Ghanshyamdas Saraf College has been selected to represent India in the Asian Championship in Girls' Kabaddi. One of the student from RBHS has made us proud by securing first position in U-10 Boys Judo Competition at the State Level Interschool ICSE Sports Meet.

The renovation work of the building of Jankidevi Bilasrai Bubna Boys' Hostel is in progress and we hope the work to be completed very soon in the coming months. A state of the art, Shooting Floor has been constructed in DGMC to provide the college with shooting facilities. It is a great pleasure to inform that Shri Arvind Poddar of Bal Krishna Industries Limited (BKT), has given a handsome donation for naming iMAC Computer Lab as Mahabirprasad Poddar Computer Lab at DGMC.

I take this opportunity to thank each and every Donor past and present, Trustees, Managing Committee Members and well wishers who were involved with the development and progress of the educational activities of our Trust. I also convey my best wishes to our students in their future success.

HON. SECRETARY'S MESSAGE

Dear Reader,

Rajasthan Sammelan Education Trust has successfully completed 69 glorious years spreading the light of knowledge and information in all directions. Our Hon'ble Prime Minister of India Shri Narendra Modi has given a clarion call to create a new India. This is possible only by providing proper education to the young population of our nation. At the same time, we have to empower them with proper skill development training. This will enable them in future to efficiently use their abilities to engage themselves in gainful employment and contribute to the economic and social growth of our country.

At RSET, ours is a journey of eleven educational institutions and an online academy along with approximately 15,000 students and more than 700 faculty members and office staff. Our persistent effort in this journey is to achieve excellence in the field of education. From the Management's side, we have never lagged behind to provide required facilities needed for teaching-learning in our campus. We have provided latest technological support that include high tech computers and science laboratories, smart boards and facility of teaching through power point presentations. Libraries of all our institutions are full of required books, journals, magazines, DVDs and in some libraries, we have also subscribed to e-books and journals.

Some of our institutions of higher education are also equipped with research facilities. Ghanshyamdas Saraf College is a research centre affiliated to University of Mumbai in Commerce and Economics and is also in process of setting up a Bloomberg lab with 12 dedicated work stations for Financial Research Training. Some of our faculty members are approved research guides of Mumbai University as well as other reputed universities of India. Research activities are also carried out by faculty of Durgadevi Saraf Institute of Management Studies under Remsons Research Centre.

We had started Draupadidevi Sanwamal Women's Hostel in RSET Campus in the year 2012 which is running successfully to its full capacity of accommodating 135 students. We are now in the process of starting Jankidevi Bilasrai Bubna Boys' Hostel and have purchased a building with seven floors. At present, renovation work of the building is going on and we hope that the work will get over soon. The boys hostel will be able to accommodate 152 boys.

We give major emphasis on continuous improvement of our students not only in academics but also nurture their leadership traits so that they are geared up to deliver sustained value to their employers when they are placed after successful completion of courses from the institutions of higher education in our campus. Therefore, students are given the duty of organizing the seminars, conferences and extra-curricular events under the guidance of In-charge faculty. To make holistic development of students, they are encouraged to participate in outreach programmes through NCC, NSS, Women Development Cell, Rotaract Club & DLLE units. Blood donation drive was organized by students of Rotaract Club & NSS unit of Ghanshyamdas Saraf College, Durgadevi Saraf Institute of Management Studies & Ladhidevi Ramdhar Maheshwari Night

Shri Kailash Kejriwal, Hon. Secretary, RSET

College of Commerce. Student volunteers of DLLE (Department of Lifelong Learning & Extension) of Ghanshyamdas Saraf College distributed food items to the poor people in the slum area of Bangur Nagar on the occasion of Independence Day celebrations on 15th August 2017. We have also provided facility of scholarships & free ships to the needy as well as meritorious students through many endowment funds given by our Donors from time to time.

In the recent months, our students have made us proud by their noteworthy team and individual achievements in sports. Two girls of Durgadevi Saraf Junior College are selected for U-19 National team to represent Maharashtra in Kabaddi. One of the girl student of Ghanshyamdas Saraf College has been selected to represent India in Asian Championship in Girls' Kabaddi. The Girls' Kabaddi team of Durgadevi Saraf Junior College won at the regional level match and has been selected to play at the State level. Little children from Schools have also not lagged behind. Students of Ramniwas Bajaj English High School have won prizes in U-7 & U-9 GMAA Interschool Swimming Meet 2017. One of the student of the school secured first position in the U10 Boys' Judo competition at the Maharashtra Region Interschool ICSE Meet conducted by AISM.

Pravinchandra D. Shah Sports Academy of RSET has been selected for "FIFA Selfi Point" organized by DSO (Maharashtra Government). PDSA is one of the centers amongst 15 centers in Mumbai region to promote the FIFA world cup. PDSA organized a Football tournament for Boys and Girls on 15th September, 2017 in which 6 schools participated. The winner of the boys' tournament was Mainadevi Bajaj International School while the winner of the girls' tournament was Ramniwas Bajaj English High School.

We do not believe in resting on our laurels. Each academic calendar, each academic term of all the institutions are dotted with noteworthy events and we are sure that each success story will motivate us to work harder and aim for further excellence.

CEO'S MESSAGE

How can we be left behind and hence we too have whole heartedly participated by involving our thousands of students by organising a interschool football tournament at our PDSA ground. Even the girls played the football and enjoyed it to the core. We feel proud by getting associated in such national integration programmes where our staff and students gets extra dose of the creative work.

When challenges arrive it comes in multifold and when Nature's fury is there then we can be just humbled and do what best can be done under the circumstances which is beyond one's control. During the recent heavy down pour of rain twice in the month of August and September the whole Mumbai came to standstill and was crippled for few days. At RSET also we faced this Nature's wrath and many places got water logged. Our service teams from BMS, Project, Housekeeping and Security rose to the occasion and resolved the issue by working very hard and bringing back the normalcy in the quickest possible time. The Management has conveyed their appreciation towards this for the each and every team member for doing everything possible and ensuring that there is no unnecessary hold up in smooth running of the schools and colleges.

During these three months we had galaxy of nationally and internationally known speakers who graced their presence and motivated our students and staff by addressing them in our Campus. But the most notable amongst them was Dr. Kiran Bedi, Honorable Lt Governor of Puduchery who not only addressed our management students on the foundation Day of the DSIMS but actively interacted and spent considerable time with lots and lots of students by answering their queries to their utmost satisfaction. The students were immensely benefitted by this interaction and the programme was overwhelmingly successful.

To sum up I will take the help of the one of the quote cited by Dr. Bedi

"Building good educational institutions is the best gift citizens can make towards nation building"

I am proud to say, that's exactly our Management is doing at RSET. All the aforesaid activities in various Institutions and many more that could not be elaborated here that actually took place are testimony and ample proof, that, at our Institutions we are following the best practices in the field of Education and keeping the flag flying high of RSET.

Jai Hind !!!

Dear Reader,

The second quarter of the Academic Year 2017 began with lots and lots of action in addition to the academic activities at RSET Institutions. At RSET we proudly say that we are involved from KG to PG. During this quarter of July, August and September the activities involving the sensory training to the tiny tots on one hand and highly intellectual level activity at PG level of presenting the thesis papers have taken place in our campus. Just to give a glimpse of the activities and generate interest amongst the readers, I am quoting few of them in succeeding paragraphs that took place in this quarter. However I sincerely request one and all to please go through the HOIs reports to understand in details about the action packed activities during these three months.

To inculcate the cultural, traditional values and develop the patriotic feelings amongst our students we celebrated the events like Independence Day, Janmashtami, Navaratri, Rakhi, Hindi Diwas etc.

The NCC and NSS volunteers from various Institutes have taken up various social events like Coastal Cleaning, Hepatitis-B awareness programme, peace rallies, parade, rifle drill, save rivers abhiyan, SwachhaBharat Abhiyan Etc. Other students too have taken part in interesting initiatives like save trees and environmental pollution, student leadership programmes, participation of student exchange programme at international level, so on and so forth.

Moving towards the global level we had our share of mixing with the world community by inviting the world renowned speakers and also a visit by our students to various countries abroad.

At RSET we take pride in communicating to all our readers that in order to promote the national spirit for the upcoming FIFA under 17 world cup event, to be hosted by our country, millions of students across the country have played football on 15th September 2017.

Do all the good you can, by all the means you can.

MESSAGE FROM DIRECTOR OF SCHOOLS

We live in a day and age when education in our country has been obsessively defined by numeric performance indicators such as marks and percentages scored, ranks within a school, ranking in the state and the country, rating at competitive examinations and Olympiads. In such an age a breath of fresh air is a 90 year old educationist and philosopher, Dr Vasanti Padte. When she was 80 years old she managed to convince the board of governors of a very successful state board private school in Goa to ban all forms of competitions and testing till Grade 5. She believed, as many other educationists such as myself do, that competition is contraindicated in a good educational environment.

The parents of these young students, who would not do ANY testing till Grade 6 were a worried lot as they thought that the learning process of their children would come to a halt and that they would perform poorly compared to students from other schools. They were also worried about how they would perform in competitive examinations later in life. In meetings conducted in small and large groups parents of these children were explained the destructive role that competition plays in good education and how removing this burden would free them up.

Within days parents realized that a huge burden had been removed from their lives as well as the lives of their children who now learnt without fear of examinations, ranking and competition. Learning became a joyous process and they learnt for the love of learning rather than to stand first in a class or to pass an examination. When these children subsequently joined the mainstream it was discovered that most of them had become independent learners and clearly stood out when compared to students who had gone through the competitive environment.

So then what are the alternative systems of education that exist in our country and across the world and what are the lessons we can learn from such systems? The IB programme that is offered at our international school in Grades 11 and 12 is a highly progressive one. The learning is entirely concept based in all the subjects and students are encouraged to take onus for their own learning and become independent young adults who can understand what is going on in the world around them and respond sensitively. In its Diploma Programme, while the IB prescribes a curriculum, it leaves many teaching and learning approaches open and does not prescribe or recognize any text books.

In its Primary Years as well as Middle Years programme the IB merely gives an outline of course objective giving the teachers full freedom to chalk out their own paths for their students to achieve these objectives. What is radical about the IB programmes is that they are progressive, their curriculum is concept and skill based and they cater to the needs of all kinds of students. Recognising the harm that competitive assessments can do the IB encourages schools not to give pointless homework to the young children studying in the Primary section and even in the DP they do not have international or national 'toppers'. This keeps students from trying to do better than each other and focus on doing the best they can. Even more radical than the IB Schools are the Waldorf Schools. Waldorf education, also known as Steiner education, is based on the educational philosophy of Rudolf Steiner. Its pedagogy emphasizes the role of imagination in learning, striving to integrate holistically the intellectual, practical and artistic development of pupils.

Steiner divides child development into three major stages. Early childhood education, an equivalent of our pre-primary, focuses on practical, hands-on activities and creative play. The elementary education, equivalent of our education up to Grade 5, focuses on developing artistic expression. The secondary education focuses on developing critical reasoning. This is where it aligns with the goals of the IB which also emphasises on developing critical reasoning skills among its students. The main goal of Steiner education is to develop free, morally responsible, and integrated young adults. The emphasis is on formative assessment where students' daily learning process is assessed regularly rather than summative assessment which takes the forms of tests and examinations in our schools. Quantitative testing plays a very minor role in this system and standardised testing is mainly undertaken to fulfil university requirements.

There are even more radical educational systems where learning is driven by what a student wants to learn. In such systems the school provides all the learning infrastructure, including highly qualified teachers, and when a student shows an interest in a particular field the school encourages inquiry in that direction.

Caught up as we are in this world of competition which demands that we train our students to fit into this world and do better than others, it is important to keep in mind that there are systems that truly emphasize a good education for its own sake and to understand our world better rather than to be materially successful.

Do what you can, with what you have, where you are.

The first half of this academic year was a great challenge for all Heads of Institutions. On one hand, teachers had to complete syllabus in time followed by unit test of schools and junior college and also first term/semester examinations of colleges and other institutions of higher education. In between there were celebrations of national importance such as Independence Day, Teachers' Day, Hindi Diwas and so many other extra-curricular and co-curricular activities. At the same time, festivals were also lined up in a row. Starting from Parsi New Year, Rakshabandhan, Ganesh Chaturthi, Eid and Navratri - all created a feeling of joy and enthusiasm in the minds of schools and college students & also broke the monotony of studies.

In the last week of August, Mumbai witnessed heavy rains leading to water-logging in many parts of the city and making all activities to a standstill. The Government declared holiday for schools and colleges for 2-3 days. However, the optimistic attitude and strong conviction of Mumbaiers made them overcome those bad days replaced by good days and resume routine activities within a short time.

The positive & optimistic attitude of Mumbaiers remind us of a few lines from the poem 'Ode to the West Wind' composed by Percy Bysshe Shelley, the English Romantic Poet of 19th century also known as poet of hope and aspirations.

Drive my dead thoughts over the universe,
Like wither'd leaves, to quicken a new birth!
And, by the incantation of this verse,

Scatter, as from an unextinguished hearth
Ashes and sparks, my words among mankind!
Be through my lips to unawakened Earth

The trumpet of a prophecy! O Wind,
If Winter comes, can Spring be far behind?

(Winter is here metaphorically compared to bad days and spring to good days).

Back to academics, State Board affiliated school children appeared for baseline line tests as made mandatory by State Education Department followed by first term tests and then they enjoyed holidays and also Deepawali, the festival of lights. Kudail Govindram Seksaria School hosted an interschool recitation and debate competition as a part of Hindi Diwas celebrations on 14th and 15th September respectively wherein 20 schools from all over Mumbai participated. The Principal of the school as well as some teachers were also felicitated for achieving excellence in education. Many students of KGSS also bagged prestigious prizes in singing, debate, quiz etc.

For Ramniwas Bajaj English High School, it was indeed a proud moment when students from Grade I to Grade V won Gold and Silver medals at swimming and Gymnastics at interschool competition. Our Pravinchandra D. Shah Sports Academy organized U-17 Inter school Football Tournament to promote FIFA U-17 World Cup which was won by Boys' team of Mainadevi Bajaj International School. Many students of Durgadevi Saraf Junior College won prizes in team as well as individual events such as volleyball, kick boxing, chess and kabaddi. The Rotaract Club and NSS volunteers of Ghanshyamdas Saraf College organized blood donation camps. Students of Durgadevi Saraf Institute of Management Studies and Ladhidevi Ramdhar Maheshwari Night College of Commerce also enthusiastically organized Blood Donation drives.

Deviprasad Goenka Management College of Media Studies and Durgadevi Saraf Institute of Management Studies also celebrated Foundation Day in a big way by inviting Shri Anuj Poddar, Senior Executive Vice-President Via Com18 and Dr. Kiran Bedi, Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor of Puducherry as the Chief Guests. In the past few months, our Government is giving lots of incentives for excellence in higher education. Recently, few colleges in the city have received two years extension for their NAAC accreditation for their consistently high performance in academics as well as other activities. We hope that the colleges under RSET will also work harder to achieve excellence.

Our Kunjibihari S. Goyal Online Academy (GOLD Academy) is also progressing well and the GOLD team is involved in promotional activities, students support, co-ordination with faculties for content preparation and many such activities. At present, more than 45,000 students are enrolled with the portal of GOLD Academy.

We are marching onwards to become an academic centre committed to excellence and learning, dedicated to create a community of well educated, globally exposed citizens. All our institutions aim to discover and develop the potential within their students and thereby enable them to break boundaries and achieve excellence with confidence.

I take this opportunity to compliment all the institutions of the Trust for their excellent achievements in curricular and co-curricular activities. It is a matter of great joy that Kudial Govindram Sarvodaya School hosted an Inter School Recitation & Debate competition as part of Hindi Diwas celebrations on 14th and 15th September respectively wherein 20 schools from all over Mumbai participated. Durgadevi Saraf Junior College also took the lead role to celebrate Hindi Diwas on 16th Sept 2017, along with Ghanshyamdas Saraf College and Ladhidevi Ramdhar Maheshwari Night College of Commerce. Trustees of RSET, eminent journalists, script writers & teachers from reputed colleges graced the occasion along with Principals, Staff & Students of the participating colleges. Other institutions also celebrated Hindi Diwas with great enthusiasm.

It is a matter of great pride that many dignitaries visited RSET campus in the past few months and have been impressed by the infrastructure & facilities provided in the campus. I take this opportunity to extend my compliments to the Editorial Team for bringing out this informative bulletin regularly.

Suwadevi Doongermal Patodia Laboratory
at MBIS

Dear Reader!

Laboratory work is considered essential in promoting students' learning for science and of scientific inquiry. Children are able to retain the knowledge for longer when they see the experiments being performed in front of their eyes. Therefore, Suwadevi Doongermal Patodia chemistry laboratory of Mainadevi Bajaj International School is an integral part of teaching- learning of the school. It allows students to explore chemical concepts, view changes in matter and acquire scientific skills in an atmosphere similar to a professional scientific environment. I am pleased to note that Suwadevi Doongermal Patodia Chemistry Lab has been fully utilised by the students of MBIS for their Chemistry practical's. The students are duly supported by the Lab Assistant who keeps the lab ready well in advance with equipments and chemicals. MBIS has also extended help to other institutions for the usage of the Chemistry Lab as it is also utilized by students of Durgadevi Saraf Junior College for their Chemistry practical's.

Rajasthan Sammelan Education Trust is also taking care of the physical well being of school children through Vijay Pal Singh Health Centre. Regular health- check-up of school children is being conducted by the Centre. Ayaksha Health Services, working for the health centre also conducted workshop on how to reduce Anxiety, Stress and Exam fear for the students of Standard X. Many students of schools & colleges participated in prestigious inter-school / college competitions & received prizes. Deviprasad Goenka Management College of Media Studies & Durgadevi Saraf Institute of Management Studies also celebrated Foundation Day successfully on the 12th & 16th August 2017 respectively in a grand manner. It is indeed a matter of great pride that RSET is in the process of starting an autonomous Self Financed University.

I congratulate everyone who have generously contributed to attain the accomplishments of all the institutions of Rajasthan Sammelan Education Trust.

Rajasthani Sammelan
Education Trust

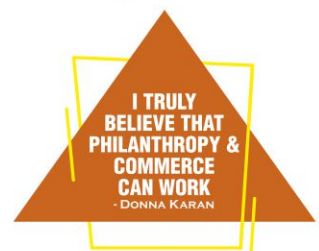

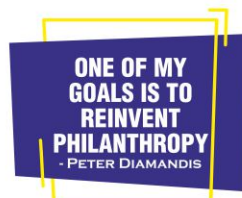

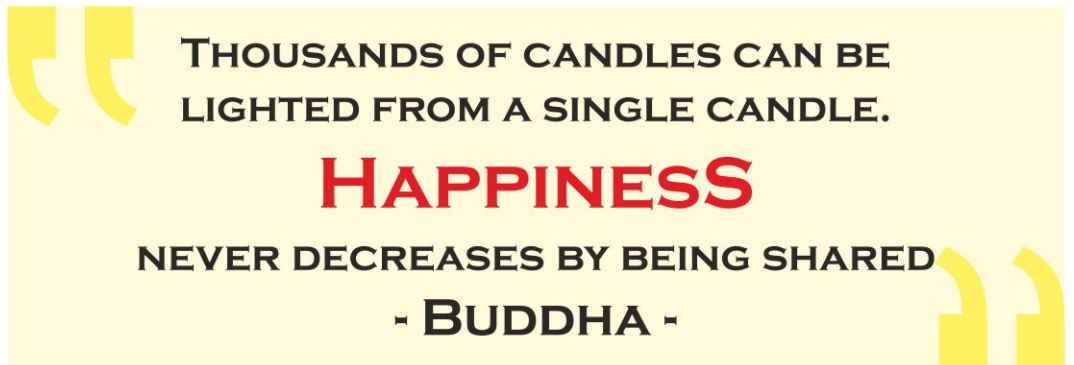

Dear Reader,

Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust has successfully completed 68 glorious years spreading the light of knowledge and information in all directions. The academic performance of the students of all institutions, the general atmosphere prevalent in the campus, the awards and accolades received by the students in extra-curricular activities and sports - all are the outcome of sincere efforts of Heads of Institutions, dedicated Staff and Students. However, behind all success, there is strong support of Management as they have never lagged behind to provide latest technological support that include high-tech computer and science laboratories. They have also recruited well qualified teachers, purchased adequate books for libraries and also provided state of art infrastructure to support teaching learning as well as sports activities.

I am happy to note that right from schools to colleges including management institute & college of media studies, students are involved in various outreach programmes. Students of Mainadevi Bajaj International School in association with NGO 'Toy bank', celebrated the International Charity Day on 8th September 2017. Students donated various toys, games, puzzles, handmade booklets to lesser privileged children & experienced the 'Joy of Giving' The Rotaract Club & NSS volunteers of Ghanashyamdas Saraf college organized blood donation drive & collected 103 & 100 bottles of blood respectively & gave to the blood banks.

It is interesting to know that every year, Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust is giving scholarships and freeships to students of all institutions run by the Trust. RSET has also started Kunjibihari S. Goyal Online Academy (GOLD Academy) which is also progressing successfully day by day.

I take this opportunity to extend my appreciations to the President Shri Ashok M. Saraf & his team for their excellent work done in the field of education.

IN MEMORIAM

Late Shri Pavankumar Sanwormal

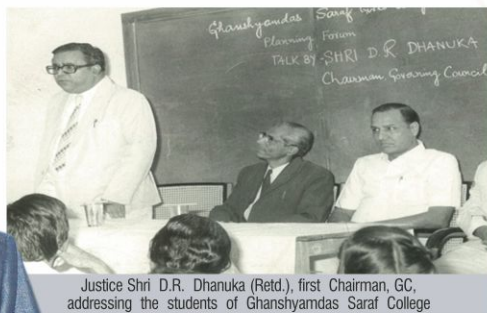

We pay our tribute to Shri Pavankumarji Sanwormal, Main Donor of Draupadidevi Sanwormal Women's Hostel and Trustee of Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust who left for heavenly abode on Thursday 26th October, 2017.

Sankaranarayanan, Governor of Maharashtra & Goa. His kind donation to the cause of women's empowerment has helped many girl students coming from other cities to realize their dreams of completing professional education by staying in the secured environment of Draupadidevi Sanwormal Women's Hostel.

Shri Pavankumarji Sanwormal was a humble, kind hearted and soft spoken person and was concerned for the cause of education and charity. Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust deeply mourns his loss. We also acknowledge his noteworthy contributions for the cause of women's education with gratitude.

Office bearer and a well wisher. Shri Dhanukaji had been the President of RSET for the years 1981-82 and 1989-91. Along with his legal profession, Shri D.R. Dhanukaji loved teaching and was appointed as part time professor in Government Law College in the early days of his career. Inauguration of Ghanshyamdas Saraf College by Hon'ble Shri Sudhakar Naik, Education Minister, addressing the gathering with Shri Mahavirprasad G. Saraf (Main Donor) & Justice Shri D.R. Dhanuka (Retd.) along with other dignitaries in July 1983

EXCERPTS OF INTERVIEW OF HON'BLE JUSTICE D. R. DHANUKA (RETD.)

Justice Shri D.R. Dhanuka (Retd.)

1) How and when you became associated with Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust?

In 1950, I came to Bombay at the age of 16 year after passing my matriculation examination from Ramgrah, a small beautiful town in Shekawati. Thereafter, I joined Ruia College, Matunga as 1st Year Arts Student. I was also employed as a Typist-cum-Clerk and for miscellaneous jobs by an employer with whom my father were already working. After obtaining my Inter Arts degree, I joined Government Law College for study of law. And I passed my law studies in first division and stood First Class First throughout Maharashtra in Advocates' Examination. I was awarded several prizes and scholarships in view of my performance in law examination. By this time, I developed interest in social work and became associated with educational activities of Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust and Marwadi Sammelan. I also took keen interest in activities of 'Lions Club' and Prahladrai Dalmia Lions College.

2) Could you say a few words about your involvement with the educational endeavours of Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust and how did you manage it with your busy schedule as a Senior Counsel in Hon'ble Bombay High Court and Hon'ble Supreme Court?

I shall narrate my experiences in brief when I was involved in the educational activities of Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust. I was elected twice as the President of Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust by overwhelming majority of the members of Sammelan presumably because of my simplicity and popularity. This is what I presume. I was also appointed as a Trustee of Rajasthani Sammelan by overwhelming majority. I was Trustee of Prahladrai Dalmia Lions College of Commerce. I became Deputy District Governor of Lions District 323. At RSET, I have memories of working with Shri Vishwanathji Podar, Shri Sitaramji Singhania, Shri Banwarilalji Jhunjhunwala, Shri Kailashji Parasrampur, Shri Shrikantji Dalmia, Shri Kailashji Kejriwal, and several others. Amongst elders, I cannot forget the names of Shri Devidattji Bajaj, Shri Ghanshyamdasji Jalan and members of his family, Shri Durgadattji Thard, Shri Gauri Shankarji Nangalia and several others who always treated me with special love and affection. I must specially mention names of Shri Mahavirprasadji Saraf and his family members as well as Shri Hariramji Saraf for helping in the cause of education. Ultimately Ghanshyamdas Saraf Girls College was formed and I took keen interest in doing my best in getting all necessary permissions for starting of the said college. We worked as a team. It shall be unfair to give me credit individually.

I was appointed as the Chairman of Governing Council of Ghanshyamdas Saraf Girls' College from inception i.e. from the year 1984 till 1990 when I was appointed as Justice of High Court of Bombay by the Hon'ble President of India. I was also taking keen interest in activities of Sarvodaya Vidyalaya Vidyalaya now known as Kudilal Govindram Seksaria Sarvodaya School. I am happy to remember that young students both boys and girls were trained at the school level to form Parliament and familiarize themselves with working of our Parliament. In those days, most of the girls were shy and many were from conservative families. Rajasthani Sammelan encouraged them to come up and develop their personalities in best possible manner. I remember that whenever the girl students went for picnic and they were late, the parents of conservative girls used to have some sort of anxiety. Those were not the days of 'free movement' for girls students of our community. Shri Vishwanathji saw to it that every such girl from conservative families reached home duly escorted by a responsible person. Shri Vishwanathji and others took parental care of students. Now times have changed. Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust has established a girls hostel and has established several institutions providing higher & professional education in different streams.

I must say that even though I was Chairman of Governing Council of the College, I was basically a teacher and never a 'boss' in any sense of the term. I took pleasure in delivering lectures in the classrooms of Ghanshyamdas Saraf Girls' College. I used to host annual dinner in honour of Professors and their spouses every year. It was a great pleasure to do so. I remember that Shri Satyanarayanji Kabra, Shri Prahladrailji Saraf and Shri Banwarilalji Jhunjhunwala and others were extremely helpful. I loved teaching and studying. I used to remember my school and college days. My first love was to assist youngsters in having best education and develop scholarship, integrity and character. I loved cause of education as well as rendering justice as an Advocate. I loved teaching in Government Law College as a part time Professor for 4 years. If one has first love for a subject like education and social work, he can easily manage with his schedule as a Senior Counsel in the High Court and Supreme Court and I could find time for Law Practice as well as working as Chairman of Governing Council of the College. I am aware of the fact that large number of excellent lawyers spent time for the cause of education as well. I may mention the names of great lawyers Shri N.A. Palkhivala, Shri Y.V. Chandrachud and Sir D.F. Mulla illustratively who spent their valuable time in teaching in Government Law College.

3) What was your experience as the President of Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust and the first Chairman of Governing Council of Ghanshyamdas Saraf Girls' college?

I had excellent experience as the President of Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust by coming in contact with dedicated social workers and particularly disciplined students and dedicated teachers. I was happy to observe the progress of the students who came from middle class families but were extremely talented and brilliant on merits although they lacked desirable financial assistance.

As the Chairman of Governing Council of Ghanshyamdas Saraf Girls' College, we were inspired by the career of great Pandit Madanmohan Malavia who was the founder of Banaras Hindu University. We always appointed teachers on the basis of their academic qualifications. No recommendation from any one was accepted by us for appointing a professor. I have memories of dedicated work by Principal B.K. Acharya, Prin. Dr. Sunanda Kar, Prof. Mrs. Bhavana Vaidya and several other Professors. Professors of our college were dedicated and polite. I do not remember the names of all but I have pleasant memories of being in the classroom in company of students and the teachers. I never tried to be their Boss although I had key status in the management. I was from ordinary middle class family and I considered them as my family members.

4) What is your opinion about Ghanshyamdas Saraf Girls' College becoming a co-educational college?

In my opinion, the Management has taken a very wise decision by converting Ghanshyamdas Saraf Girls' College into a co-educational college. There were problems of getting affiliation with Bombay University when we started the college. On one hand, there was moral pressure that our college being Girls College should be affiliated to SNDT Women's University. On the other hand, the Management wanted the college to be affiliated to Bombay University. We tried our best and studied all relevant facts indicating that even some of the girls colleges were affiliated to Bombay University and we cannot be forced to affiliate to our college with SNDT Women University. The SNDT University is also a great University. I have equal respect for both the Universities. It was the decision of the management and we were successful in getting the college affiliated to Bombay University. The Vice Chancellor of Bombay University was helpful so was the Hon'ble Chief Minister Shri Vasant Dada Patil. I am happy with the college becoming a co-educational college. In a co-educational college, girls can develop their personalities much better & can also have a healthy competition with boys.

5) Could you give your opinion about the metamorphosis of Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust in the past one decade and how do you rate it?

I believe that Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust has done the best in all these years. I must congratulate all the donors and the present Management team for establishing Rajasthani Sammelan campus where there are large number of institutes co-ordinating And helping the cause of education. However, I feel that all our institutions should Discover the talent of poor students and give them special encouragement including fellowship and scholarship so that their talent can be utilized for their growth as first class citizen inspite of financial problems faced by the family for no fault of their owns. The brilliant and good student should be specially treated and helped.

6) What is your message to the present team led by the President Shri Ashok M. Saraf in their onward journey towards educational endeavours?

My message to the present team led by the President Shri Ashok M. Saraf for onward journey towards educational endeavours is stated below:

i) We should proceed further for the cause of education according to the international standards as is being done to some extent.

ii) We should always see to it that teachers and professors are not treated merely as employees but are respected and treated as 'Guru' in spirit which they were so treated in the past even by the richest and even by the kings and emperors as obvious from mythological classics.

I must request the President to involve the ordinary middle class persons from the teaching community and also from, amongst social workers and see to it that the higher education does not become almost monopoly of the rich but is also available to each and every one for which the constitution has granted equal opportunity under Article 21A of the Constitution of India. I am not criticizing any one, I should not be misunderstood. I wish that after my retirement as a Judge of the High Court, I could take more interest in the activities of Sammelan but I have not being able to do so for no fault of anybody. Even now at the age of 84, I am invited sometimes to deliver lectures to law students in some of the great Law Colleges. It is my dream that we should have an excellent Law College with best faculty and excellent infrastructures and library. I am sure that Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust will one day realize my dream.

Shri D.R. Dhanuka at the Independence Day celebrations of GSSC along with Principal B.K. Acharya and Shankarlal Jain & Mr. Chandgotia

To conclude, I did my best as a middle class person who got an opportunity from Rajasthan Sammelan Education Trust to associate with great persons. I was not alone as I was the part of a great team and many of my colleagues did more and worked day and night for the cause of education but our Trust has to still do a lot. The future belongs to youngsters who will be the torch bearers of the nation. All the persons in present management deserve congratulations. We must recognize the fact that our lady members in the society are surpassing in all fields of National and International activities. Our Hon'ble Minister for External Affairs and Hon'ble Defence Minister are great ladies i.e. Hon'ble Smt. Sushma Swaraj and Hon'ble Smt. Nirmla Sitharaman. We have most eminent Judges, Chief Justices in High Courts and Hon'ble Judges in Supreme Court of India amongst ladies on merit and rightly so. In the field of education and sports, our lady members have made excellent progress and are superior in their achievements. Rajasthan Sammelan

Education Trust and our institutes have also gone far ahead in all directions. Still the journey is incomplete. The future belongs to new generation. In my humble opinion, the middle class and poor persons are not getting equal opportunities in the sphere of higher and professional education as a matter of ground reality although on paper they are entitled to equal opportunities and little progress is being done.

I pray to God that all our citizen- men and women progress equally and 'poverty must disappear' so that all citizens prosper.

I WISH A GREAT FUTURE TO SHRI ASHOKJI SARAF AND HIS TEAM IN THEIR JOURNEY OF EDUCATIONAL ENDEAVOURS

CELEBRATION OF HINDI DIWAS AT RSET CAMPUS

'A country that does not take pride in its language and literature can never progress'

- Dr. Rajendra Prasad

Rajasthan Sammelan Education Trust has always taken the lead role to promote Hindi, the national language of India by organizing literary activities by the institutions run and managed by the Trust. The Trust has also organized Kavi Sammelan from time to time and has honoured reputed Hindi poets, dramatists and scholars. To encourage students to come forward and participate in literary activities, the Management members have instituted many trophies, shields and cash prizes in all the institutions for organizing various literary competitions in Hindi as well as in other languages.

Hindi Diwas is an annual literary day celebrated on 14th September all over India and also all over the world to propagate the Hindi Language and its cultural heritage and values. It was on this day of 1950 that the Indian constitution under article 343 adopted Hindi as the official language with Devnagri script. Apart from local events in schools and colleges, every government institute celebrates this official language day with enthusiasm. Hindi is one of the main languages of India and is spoken by about 40% of population. Hindi is in Indo – Aryan language group greatly influenced by English, Arabic and Persian, but its general roots are in Sanskrit. Hindi is also credited with being a link language between Indians spread across the globe and is spoken not only in India but in countries like Mauritius, Surinam, Trinidad and Tobago, South Africa and New Zealand. It takes pride in being the mother tongue of 180 million and is the second language to about 300 million people. It was called the language of unity by Mahatma Gandhi.

14th September, is therefore recognized as Hindi Diwas and is celebrated every year to highlight the importance of Hindi language by all the institutions of Rajasthan Sammelan Education Trust with great enthusiasm by organizing interesting events of literary nature. Education in the 21st Century

Naghma Shaikh
Secondary Teacher
JBCN International,

As said by our former President Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam, 'To succeed in your mission, you must have single minded devotion to your goal.'

The goal of educationists, in the 21st Century, is to ignite the spark of creativity in young minds, fire up their imagination and instil in them a sense of discipline, purpose and a love of the motherland. This is the vision to uphold for the growth and betterment of our country and the mission that is adopted in pursuit of excellence. The problems that currently assail the world are many and varied. It is beset with wars, terrorism, calls for secession from many states, civil strife, starvation, water scarcity, cyber security threats, religious intolerance, racism and poverty among many other issues. Educationists have a humongous responsibility to shoulder - to help the children of the world make sense of the wrongs and empower them to work towards peace and betterment, even as we impart academics and learning.

It is indeed a blessing to have visionaries helming the team and forming the core body at the management level in many schools in our city. The knowledge that the future of our students is in safe hands which have both experience and expertise is heart warming and comforting. Indeed school managements are leaving no stone unturned to bring a wealth of opportunities to students who enter the portals of their institutions.

Schools have now become centres of diversified teaching and learning. Many subjects which were earlier done only at Graduate and Post Graduate levels, like Psychology, Sociology, Economics, have been introduced into the mainstream curriculum as early as grade 8. Science labs have been modernised and Computer labs have been equipped with the latest devices and systems that provide nothing but the best. Technology too is playing its own part...with interactive smart boards, online tutorials, blogs, videos and podcasts becoming quite a norm in many educational institutions in India and all over the world. Some schools even have iPads for students as learning resources.

Sports and the performing/fine arts are now holding their own against academics, being at par with classroom work if not more. Mini gymnasiums, well stocked stores with sports paraphernalia, latest facilities, well maintained grounds and a variety of physical activities make it difficult for students to choose whether they wish to become cricket or football players or to take up any other sport/game. Piped music in Art rooms and some very aesthetically appealing decor ensure that our enthusiastic young artists are immersed in their artwork. Music classes have an eclectic range of instruments to select from and dance classes teach a variety of styles, from Indian and Western classical and folk dances.

Libraries have become hubs of interest vidual and group learning. Gone are the days when libraries were places where silence reigned supreme. Now, they are being used as platforms where literary discussions take place, and book clubs, book launches, book review sessions and book readings are organised in a very interactive manner.

These are certainly purposeful and challenging times for educationists. As the world hurtles forward at breakneck speed with the onslaught of newer and faster technology, pedagogical methods and techniques are also being overhauled and revitalised.

In most metropolitan cities, gone are the days when teachers completed their B. Ed. and/or any other teacher training course and settled down into life long careers at schools of their choice in their hometowns and cities. They were recipients of the input they received from the educational boards and curriculum providers. Their acumen and imaginative powers were rarely harnessed. At present, Heads of Schools, Principals, Teachers and the Admin and Support staff are coming into their own and embracing the demands of the 21st Century. Professional enhancement through courses and workshops and awareness and implementation of best practices from top notch schools around the world have become priorities. At the same time there is no compromise on the basic ideals and values of our nation.

Nowadays, attending local, national and international conferences and seminars, visiting schools and educational institutes across the country and in different parts of the world, collaborating with educationists from various countries, doing online professional development courses, receiving awards for the commitment, excellence and innovation in teaching, and training the rest of the teaching fraternity, have become quite the norm for the dynamic members of the teaching profession. Teachers have adapted to the times and adopted varying roles - those of facilitators, practicing psychologists, counsellors, event managers, trainers, administrative assistants, curriculum designers, student exchange programmes in charges, travel planners for school trips and in their multiple avatars, are effortlessly donning their mantles for many other responsibilities coming their way.

In the process, they are keeping abreast of the latest developments which are taking place in the sphere of education. The internet has smoothened the path of connecting to people from all over the world and engaging in meaningful dialogue and exchange of ideas. This sharing of information leads to empowering many teachers who further go on to implement their learning in the classrooms thus benefitting the student community. After all, teachers are the face of the school, the ones who interact with students on a daily basis, facilitating young learners in their quest for knowledge, channelising their raw and unbounded energy and talent, honing their skills and enabling them to grow wings to aspire to touch the skies.

Children are the greatest asset of any nation. The future of a nation lies in the hands of its children. And the future of children is what most schools of today are striving assiduously to create and improve. The satisfaction derived from moulding children to be the future citizens of the nation and of the world is what ultimately drives educationists, management and staff both, to great heights. The role of parents is undeniably pivotal and goes a long way to help students carve their path to their future. With more exposure to the rest of the world through the increased connectivity provided by the internet, parents are well informed and quite articulate about their decisions regarding choice of schools and subject options and various boards and what is being offered by each of these. And, with the plethora of curriculums to choose from - the tried and tested state and national boards like the SSC, ICSE, CBSE, as well as the international curriculums like the CAIE and IBDP and the new age modern methodologies being experimented on currently - young learners are spoilt for choice and parents certainly can pick what according to them is most suitable for their child. Parental support and involvement goes beyond the selection of a school or board; it also encompasses the support being provided at home for the student to function well at school.

According to me, no comparison can be made between any two boards or even among all boards. Each school seems to be as good as the other. Add to that the emphasis on a holistic approach, each school becomes a microcosmic representation of the world. Students have never had a wider choice in terms of extra curricular and other quality based activities such as learning some art or skill which can be a stepping stone to fame and glory in the outside world.

Learners are also enjoying the collaborative approach with student exchange programmes, international exposure, Model United Nations conferences being hosted by numerous schools, more and more competitions and cultural fests being announced and conducted all over, reading and writing skills being improved through reading clubs and literary festivals, various sports events, camps and tournaments being conducted to encourage the sporting spirit and tap young talent, adventure tours being offered, guest lecturers being invited, students are being urged to participate in seminars, inter school, inter state and international competitions, and more active learning is taking place in classrooms to improve the scope of learning and make it more dynamic.

Many schools have realized the importance of sensitizing young learners to the environmental and societal problems prevalent. Learning to give back to society and developing a community spirit are two of the primary aims. Clean up drives specially at beaches, visits to orphanages, street schools and old age homes are conducted; tie ups with NGO's and with renowned organizations such as the IDF, are in place. Students are being made aware of the part they are expected to play in making India shining.

Nevertheless, some questions are always being asked: Are we spoiling our children or making them too demanding by offering them so many choices? Are we mollycoddling them too much so that they are unable to deal with the stress and pressures of the modern world? Are we doing enough, or too much, or too little or nothing at all?

Well, there can be many perspectives and answers to these questions. And much introspection needs to be done. Nonetheless the point to be inferred from these is that even as we provide students with the external trappings of the world and assist in their physical and intellectual pursuits, we should also constantly and consistently support them and take care of their emotional and psychological needs too. The well being of our future citizens is our foremost responsibility.

On the one hand, we have quite a few schools in India which can be considered ideal places for lighting the lamp of education while on the other hand we hear about many schools, especially in the rural areas, which are in a sorry state. They are totally neglected in terms of infrastructure, student attendance, staff recruitment, imparting of curriculum, and even basic human necessities. One of our aims, as educationists, should also be to make our urban learners aware of this chasm, this gap, and motivate them to think about it and come up with strategies to uplift these schools and children. Many wonderful initiatives are being taken up by many schools. Students from the cities visit such places and help those who are less privileged.

Ultimately, we as educationists, as teachers, as parents, must realize that we are not dealing with automatons. We are dealing with living, breathing children, who, however much they may make a show of confidence, have to be led by us and guided by our thoughts, plans and ideas, but most importantly by our deeds and actions. So that they become citizens of the world in the truest sense.

The need of the hour thus, in light of all that is happening, is to encourage students to become more mindful, more tolerant, more respectful, more responsible towards family, friends, the school, people of all faiths, other communities, the nation and the world at large. We are their role models. Children learn more from observing their elders. Thus, through our own actions, we must teach them to strive for peace and harmony and develop a pride in our nation and its achievements. That is how we will make India shining.

To conclude, let us ponder over the impressive and enduring lines of a classic poem by Nobel Laureate Rabindranath Tagore:

Where the mind is without fear and the head is held high
Where knowledge is free
Where the world has not been broken up into fragments
By narrow domestic walls
Where words come out from the depth of truth
Where tireless striving stretches its arms towards perfection
Where the clear stream of reason has not lost its way
Into the dreary desert sand of dead habit
Where the mind is led forward by thee
Into ever-widening thought and action
Into that heaven of freedom, my Father, let my country awake.

GIVING WINGS TO YOUR DREAMS

Established in 2009

Dr. Sachin Sachdeva, Principal

With a spring in their step and joy in their heart, the students of MBIS came back to another academic year of fun, learning and accomplishments.

A journey of thousand miles starts with a single step and at MBIS, we believe, this journey cannot be taken without active participation of its parent community. Since they are the partners in education, we oriented our new parents about the functioning of the school and various co curricular and extracurricular activities offered, in a meeting held on Saturday, 8th July, 2017. This created a foundation for smooth delivery of our goals and aspirations.

Back to School Morning:

Taking steps forward in our quest for inclusive learning, we organised 'Back to School' morning on Saturday, 15th July, 2017. This initiative is taken every year before the school commences to introduce new faculty members, declare Checkpoint, IGCSE and IB results and announce new ventures. This year the new agency for PE (Marcos Quay) was highlight of the event.

Little Chefs:

Education can be imparted holistically if learning goes beyond text books and class rooms. It is important for us to facilitate learning with real life, hands on experience of the world around us. On 27th July, 2017 Jr. KG students enjoyed making popcorn that helped to enhance their sensory learning. The warm buttery popcorn, with its light and crispy touch, and delectable crunch developed sensory perception among many other things, in our students.

Towards an envious environment:

It has been our constant endeavour to instil community service in our students and provide them a variety of opportunities to explore altruism and lend a helping hand to build a compassionate society. Under the CAS Activity component, the students of IBDP Grades 11 and 12 went for a trek to Sanjay Gandhi National Park on Saturday, 29th July, 2017. They walked a distance of approximately 7 km to reach the Kaneri Caves. This was an initiative taken to bring awareness about clean and green environment to support and sustain life.

Collaborative Learning:

Learning starts at cradle and ends at grave. With this as a guiding principle, teachers at MBIS look forward to upgrading their skills and share knowledge with their peers at specially organised 'meets' which provide a wonderful platform for teachers to interact with each other and discuss teaching learning strategies. The teachers teaching French, Physics, Biology and Economics to the IGCSE section attended the MISA Cell meet for their respective subjects on Saturday, 22nd July, 2017 at MET Rishikul Vidyalaya and the teachers teaching the core checkpoint subjects – English, Mathematics and Science, in the Primary and the Secondary 1 attended the MISA Cell meet on Saturday, 29th July, 2017 at MET Rishikul Vidyalaya. August brought in its wake most colourful and attractive guilmoars and their fragrance wafted through the corridors of MBIS-an impetus enough for students to engage in a vast array of activities and celebrations through which they were able to express themselves creatively while informing themselves about the world around them.

A Chronicle of Events in Early Years and Primary Years:

'Art on Field Day':

Our exciting school year began with the array of different colors with 'Art on the field Day' Celebration. This event was enthusiastically celebrated by the Early Years students who enjoyed various games and activities that were planned to stimulate the senses through a combination of physical activities and aesthetic exploration.

Harek friend zaroori hota hai:

A much awaited and anticipated event is Friendship Day celebrated with great gusto and enthusiasm especially by the Early Years and Primary Years. It is a great opportunity to forge new bonds, reaffirm the existing ones and generally enjoy a sense of revelry. Students danced, played and enjoyed watching stories and videos as well as they were encouraged to make beautiful cards and more along with their peers.

'There are no strangers in here... just friends you haven't met'.

The Early Years and the Primary Years celebrated Fresher's Day on Friday, 3rd August, 2017. The purpose of fresher's Day was to welcome newcomers in a friendly atmosphere and create an environment that is warm, nurturing and communicative. In keeping with the occasion the entire Primary section gathered in Grade 5 to extend a hearty welcome to all the new students. The Head Boy and the Head Girl spoke about their experiences and assured on behalf of the entire section that they would do everything possible to make it a happy place for all the newcomers. The newly joined students came up and introduced themselves and showcased their talents.

Similarly, the Secondary School (grades 6 to 12) celebrated the Fresher's Day on Friday, 4th August 2017. In a fun filled event that took place in the Cafeteria, students as well as teachers who have joined school this year showcased their talent through the medium of music, dance, elocution etc. This was the ice breaking session where the new students were formally welcomed.

Ties that last forever:

There is something special about crafting Rakhis with your own hands. In celebration of auspicious festival of Rakshabandhan, the children at MBIS made their own colourful rakhis, which provided them an opportunity to be creative and engage with cultural traditions.

Curriculum Morning:

Parents were provided a snap shot of different subject areas at the Curriculum Morning on Saturday, 5th August, 2017 to facilitate easy access to curriculum. This was a great opportunity for parents to have a bird's eye view of effective teaching practices used in the classroom, inquiry based approaches to support the educative process, and other holistic education practices designed to ensure the students' long term academic success.

Yeh Mera India:

The fervour of patriotism in all its splendour was seen as all stake holders of RSET and MBIS participated in hoisting the flag to celebrate Independence Day on 15th August, 2017. This was followed by a parade. Students also entertained their peers with a stage performance depicting the rich history of our country's road to independence.

MBIS Girls Football Team achieved a Gracious second position win in U/14 girls Football Tournament in regards to promote FIFA 2017 World Cup

Students celebrated Janmashtami utsav with friends and teachers with real joy and enthusiasm. The children came dressed in colourful traditional attire. In the play area hung the beautifully decorated handi which was broken by the students amidst great enthusiasm and laughter. They showed teamwork and collaboration during the matki breaking process and enjoyed the sweet treats.

Leaders in the making:

The student council members of AY 2017-18 were vested upon their duties in the ceremony held in the Durgadevi Saraf hall on Friday, August 18th, 2017. Ms Mini Nair, the principal of KGES School graced the occasion as the Chief Guest. We also celebrated the founder's Day. The students through the medium of song, drama and dance expressed their gratitude towards the Founder of the school.

Competition Galore:

Inter- House Chess and Carrom Board Competition – Gr- 1-8: Monsoon brings life to nature and fills the lives of millions of people with happiness and joy. But it also often restricts the outdoor activities. Therefore, at MBIS we started the inter-house sports competitions with Chess, Carrom and Table Tennis. The competition was conducted on 29th August 2017 in the cafeteria.

Table Tennis:

Table Tennis is a sport of healthful recreation and physical fitness. After a long journey of practice, finally the stage was set for the MBIS inter house table tennis competition from 19th to 22nd September 2017. The very enthusiastic efforts of the school table tennis coach and sports teachers and the perseverance of students helped build great anticipation for this competition.

Monsoon Trek:

On Thursday, August 24th, 2017 our Jr KG and Sr KG students went for a one day picnic to Saina Resort where they explored and experienced the fun filled activities of a Monsoon trek. Along with friends, they played games and enjoyed the rides. What a wonderful day it was! The adventurous trek through the forest was designed to provide opportunities to young saplings of Primary Section for observing and learning about the flora and fauna. The quiet and peaceful 'Shilonda Trail' made a good long trek which was enjoyed by all! The lion safari and the Tiger safari was a 20 minute ride through a fenced forest area in one of the park's buses. The children were very excited to get into 'Vanrani' a mini toy train running in SGNP. This train gave a feel of Jungle safari ride. Students of grade 6 to 10 were given an opportunity to visit the Lohgad Fort, around 100 kms from Mumbai between the lush green valley of Khandala and Lonavala on the Western Ghats. Once they reached the location, students went trekking to a cave followed by stupas. This part of the trek was simple, scenic and pleasant.

Monsoon Mela

Pitter Patter raindrops...
I'm wet through. I am wet through....

Students of Nursery enjoyed Monsoon Masti celebration in school. They were fully engaged and enjoyed participating in various activities related to rains throughout the week. They were happy to make raincoats, umbrella and gumboots as a part of group and individual activity. The most exciting part of the day was to put on their raincoats and sail paper boats in the water along with a sing along sessions with their peers. The skills that children developed through quality play are crucial to their whole development. Through play children increase their social and emotional skills that help them become more adaptable to their surroundings.

Gifting memories to Grandparents

August 2017 for Grade 9-10-11 and 12

August gave way to September and the lush green cover lent a soothing ambience to Mumbai landscape. With rain Gods calming frayed nerves and rejuvenating dull spirits, the IBDP students, as a part of their CAS activity participated in the Beach Clean-up drive at Versova post the Ganpati Visarjan.

A friend, philosopher and guide:

Although Guru Shishya tradition has been a part of Indian milieu since time immemorial, Teacher's Day still holds coveted position as one of the most awaited events in a school almanac. It is thanks giving for unstinted, tireless efforts of teachers in moulding students to become wholesome, caring and intelligent members of a society. Students of MBIS showed their gratitude to the teachers through a short programme in the cafeteria where they recognised the efforts of the faculty members. They regaled the audience with soulful renditions of songs and exhibited their dancing skills too. It was heart warming to see MBIS alive with this spirit of bonding.

International Day of Charity:

MBIS in association with 'Toy bank' celebrated the International Charity Day on 8th September 2017. Toy bank's mission is to address developmental needs in lesser-privileged children through games, toys and play in order to empower kids with the right to a wholesome childhood. Students across Early years to Grade 12 donated various toys, games, puzzles, handmade booklets to contribute their bit towards this wonderful initiative. The IBDP students then classified all the donated items, wrapped them with gift papers and experienced the 'Joy of Giving'.

The mermaids representing the human race spoke of the actions needed to be taken by mankind to stop oceans from being harmed and exploited. The presentation was completed with a song to save oceans. Keeping with the theme in science the students sang a song on water cycle.

The competition was organized by Prof. Saurabh Deshpande and Librarian Geetanjali Wani. On the spot themes were given to the participants. They were asked to write their poem within a time span of 30 minutes. A recitation of poems followed the competition. The participants had the freedom to explore the themes in a language of their choice. Participants were quite expressive and enthusiastic while presenting the poems. The event was judged by Prof. Mahesh Savale and Prof. Vidula Deo. A pleasantly surprising suggestion came from Rahul Jain, Digital Film Making course student. Suggestion was - the formation of a Poetry Club, motivating poetry enthusiasts to be a member of the club. This idea was quickly taken up by all the students and staff members present at the event. It was decided that the club would meet on 29th September 2017 at 12.00 PM in the library. The theme of the meeting was decided to be 'Poetry and Painting' where all the participants would bring a poem written on the theme to read and discuss. The result of Poetry Competition was decided to be declared on the first meeting of the Poetry Club. The collection of poems that were composed during the Poetry Writing Competition, organized by DGMC on 15th September 2017, was compiled and printed in a book published by DGMC named as "Anushka". The poems are of different themes like the Monsoons, Flavours of Life, Wonder, Cinema, and friendship. The month of July began on an optimistic note as we had our new term starting with the arrival of new students pursuing different courses across the city colleges and also from well known Institutions plus our in-house students. There were few who are pursuing BMM from DGMC, and some who are pursuing courses from Ghanshyamdas Saraf College and some from DSIMS doing PGDM students. They all have come from different cities with aspirations to achieve their educational goals in life. We at DSWH are delighted to provide these students with superlative environment to support them in fulfilling their dreams by providing them with first class amenities and homely atmosphere for nurturing them to successfully attain their goals. We had 100% occupancy at our Hostel.

The C.A. results were declared and our students came out with flying colors as most of our students qualified for the examination. One of our student Ms. Ritu Chirania who is with us since September 2012 and cleared her C.A. final exam commented:

"I am extremely thankful to DSWH from the core of my heart for providing a comfortable, secure, peaceful and homely environment to pursue my C.A. studies throughout the span of five years that I stayed. The Hostel has spacious and well maintained infrastructure with numerous amenities.

I extend my best wishes to all the students at DSWH and wish them a happy and healthy hostel life and may you all be blessed with strength and untiring courage to achieve your dreams," - Ms. Ritu Chirania Independence Day was celebrated in the RSET campus. Ms. Shreya Sharma of our hostel delivered a speech on the topic "Ab Udne do Mujhe" at the Independence Day celebrations with a very touching message hidden within it i.e. how important it is in today's world to empower our women.

On 16th August we had the Hon'ble Governor of Puducherry Dr. Kiran Bedi who graced our hostel with her presence for over an hour along with her was our President Shri. Ashok M Saraf, Hon'ble Secretary Shri Kailash Kejriwal and the students had felicitated her.

Also present were our Trustees Shri Madhusudan Maheshwari, Shri Banwarilal Hunjunwala, Shri Lalit Saraf, Shri Vinod Dalmia, Shri Arun Saraf, Shri Girdharilal Dalmia, Shri Sunil Kabra, Shri J.P. Khemka and Shri Suresh Pansari.

Dr. Kiran Bedi had an elaborate interaction with the Office bearers and Trustees of RSET and our Hostel students who were very much inspired by the persona of Dr. Bedi and also her approach towards various situations in life.

Here is what Ms. Priyal Dholakiya student at DSWH has to say:

"Turning a great opportunity down is something no person would like to do. I feel honored to have met a person who single handedly changed the face of Indian Police Force, the Iron Lady, Kiran Bedi. It was so exciting and overwhelming to even think about meeting such a legendary person. It was more than an experience as it changed my perception as to how one should lead one's life. The level of confidence and poise she carries is exemplary. Every girl in India looks up to her and living in a girl's hostel and having come to Mumbai for fulfilling our dreams, it was really a great pleasure meeting her".

The month of September was a slow placed month with not much happening around this time. All the students were engrossed in preparation of their internal examinations and everyone was busy in studies. The decorum of the hostel was maintained throughout as students systematically followed all the rules & regulations.

Education in General and Higher Education in particular is expanding rapidly around the Globe to satisfy the greater needs and demands of the stakeholders.

Internationalization is becoming significant worldwide with Economic, Political and Social changes driving an increasingly global knowledge Economy. Internationalization within universities continues to develop apace as institutions move from equating international strategy with international student recruitment to developing mature internationalization agendas that incorporate recruitment, research collaborations, and capacity-building. This has resulted in increased access to higher education providing both individual opportunity and national economic development and competitiveness in an increasingly globalized world. There is unprecedented growth in the number of students attending Institutes and Universities around the world and in the number of public and private institutions that serve the swelling ranks of students.

Over a period of time, the mobility of students has changed the pattern with countries like USA and UK losing the market share while other Asian countries attracting the students. The key drivers for International student's reference and enrollments are:

- Brand and reputation
- Work opportunities while studying and post graduate employment opportunities, what we call as return on investment
- Global Rankings
- Technology
- Accreditation of the programs and institutions
- Fee structure, Scholarships, residency opportunities
- Political stability

It is quite evident that increasing attention is paid by the policy makers and higher educationists, educators for ranking, accreditation and the international quest for quality.

Transparency Instruments:

The transparency instruments play major role for attracting the students and giving stakeholder satisfaction. Institutes and Universities are required to pay attention to these instruments to make a mark for themselves in the competitive environment. Added to these instruments is technology.

Technology continues to shape the internationalization of higher education. Some of the expected main stream technologies which will draw the attention of the higher education institutions are:

- Adaptive learning technologies: software and online platforms that adjust to an individual learner's needs and progress.
- Mobile learning: smart devices that make learning portable, such as educational apps.
- Internet of things: the physical world we live in, including classrooms can be connected to the internet through chips, sensors and tiny processors.
- Next-generation learning management systems (LMS): software and web applications that create a flexible and personalized online community for course materials, faculty engagement and student participation.
- Artificial intelligence (AI): AI has the potential to further personalize the student learning experience by enhancing online learning and adaptive learning technologies "in ways that more intuitively respond to and engage with students". Ashok Goel, a professor of computer science and cognitive science at the Georgia Institute of Technology, explains in a TEDx Talk how he introduced a virtual assistant to help answer students' questions in an online graduate course.

- Natural user interfaces: allow users to interact with technology by using natural physical gestures such as taps, swipes, body movements, facial expressions, etc.

Transparency Instruments

Ingredients:

For the institutes and universities in higher education, it is essential that a mark is made in the competitive environment across the globe. The competitive environment comprises of internal and external parameters and forces which determine what strategy needs to be followed.

While the transparency instrument has various subsets, the article covers three major subsets namely:

- Quality
- Accreditation
- Ranking

a) Quality:

Quality is a much more complicated term than it appears. Dictionary definitions are usually inadequate in helping a quality professional understand the concept. It seems that every quality expert defines quality in a somewhat different way. There are a variety of perspectives that can be taken in defining quality (e.g. customer's perspective, specification-based perspective). Are there commonalities among these definitions? Is anyone definition "more correct" than the others? Is one quality expert "right" and the others "wrong"? Quality professionals constantly debate this question. The editors of Quality Digest say that defining the word "quality" is "no simple endeavor." They asked, in their December 1999 issue, for readers to send them their definitions of quality to be gathered and posted on Quality Digest Online.

A modern definition of quality derives from Juran's "fitness for intended use." This definition basically says that quality is "meeting or exceeding customer expectations." Deming states that the customer's definition of quality is the only one that matters. So, who is the customer?

Who views the quality?

Usually the answer is external customers and they decide what quality is all about. It is the combination of quantitative measurement and qualitative perception.

It is not just the external customer that matters, what really important is internal customer, who plays a major role in deciding the quality since he has the experience and expertise of the product, process and services.

Developing a list of quality dimensions in higher education requires understanding stakeholder's expectations and majority the dimensions that are important to them.

A Few Definitions:

Quality assurance (QA) is a broad concept that focuses on the entire quality system including suppliers and ultimate consumers of the product or service. It includes all activities designed to produce products and services of appropriate quality.

According to ASQ, QA includes all those planned or systematic actions necessary to provide adequate confidence that a product or service will satisfy given needs. [Source: ASQ Statistics Division, Glossary & Tables for Statistical Quality Control, 1983].

Quality control (QC) has a narrower focus than quality assurance. Quality control focuses on the process of producing the product or service with the intent of eliminating problems that might result in defects.

According to ASQ, QC includes the operational techniques and the activities which sustain a quality of product or service that will satisfy given needs; also the use of such techniques and activities. [Source: ASQ Statistics Division, Glossary & Tables for Statistical Quality Control, 1983].

Quality management is the totality of functions involved in the determination and achievement of quality (includes quality assurance and quality control). [Source: ASQ Statistics Division, Glossary & Tables for Statistical Quality Control, 1983].

Quality and Quality assurance have become very popular words in higher education and are used interchangeably. Quality in higher education has different definitions perceived by different stakeholders. It has to address in the context of educational model within a given system, institution, program or discipline. There is need to define and develop quality in higher education taking into consideration teaching learning process, expected outcome, stakeholder satisfaction, processes involved and the inputs that are provided. It is also influenced by both internal and external factors.

Luckett (2006) has provided the definition of quality assurance which is: A systematic internal and external management procedures and mechanisms by which an institution of higher education assures its stakeholders of the quality of its systems, processes, products and outcomes and of its ability to manage the maintenance and enhancement of the quality. This term usually subsumes the meanings of quality assessment, quality management and quality enhancements (Luckett, 2016:14).

Internal and external quality assurance models are important aspects of the governance and management of higher education institutions. External quality assurance processes address both governance and management issues through policies and regulation, documents as prepared by regulatory authorities. Cheng's (2003), definition of internal quality assurance focuses on efforts for improving the internal environment and processes, with the purpose of achieving the academic goals.

b) Accreditation:

Accreditation is the process of validation of the Institutes, institutes and universities on well defined parameters by the recognized accreditation agencies. It is a voluntary activity initiated by the institution that desires to have a rigorous evaluation based on accreditation process and parameters. Accreditation emphasizes quality assurance and a commitment to continuous quality enhancement.

Importance of Accreditation:

Accreditation has gained importance over a period of time at national and international level. Accreditation has its own benefits like:

- Attending an accredited institution of higher learning ensures that the educational programs and outcomes offered meet the highest standards.
- The institute meets or exceeds the standards of quality.
- Helps the employers determine the validity of the program of study.
- Enables Graduates to appear for certification examinations.
- Helps develop system and procedures for self improvement.
- It is a self regulatory mechanism for bench marking with some of the best institutes.
- It helps students to make a proper choice of the institute.
- The accreditation process is also known in terms of its ability to drive effectively student performance and continuous improvement in education.

The accreditation process examines the whole institution—the programs, the cultural context, the community of stakeholders, academics, financials, technology and host of other parameters to determine how well the parts work together to meet the needs of students and the stakeholders.

Kinds of Accreditation:

Only one kind of accreditation would not be sufficient to address the accrediting needs of the various institutions that require accreditation status. This is why accreditation organizations provide two major types of accreditation. They are:

1. Institutional accreditation
2. Program accreditation

These two major kinds of accreditation are used for quality review, assessment, and assurance of institutions all over the world.

1. Institutional Accreditation:

Institutional accreditation status is achieved by a Institute or university that meets the quality standards and fulfills the requirements designated by the accreditation organization.

In order to meet the requirements for institutional accreditation status, all aspects of the Institute or University, including academic quality, administrative effectiveness, and all other related services of the institution, are reviewed by the accreditation organization.

Institutional accreditation affirms that the Institute or University operates with a high level of quality in all its aspects. This type of accreditation is comprehensive and indicates that the institution has achieved quality standards in areas such as faculty, administration, curriculum, student services, and overall financial well-being. This type of accreditation is held in high regard in the world of education.

2. Program Accreditation:

Program accreditation is a type of accreditation status that is designated for a program within an Institute or a university. The program accreditation focuses on the particular aspects of the program covering all the parameters.

Management Accreditation Bodies:

There are three main International Accreditation bodies for management institutes namely AACSB, EQUIS and AMBA.

AACSB: The AACSB accreditation focuses on how a school utilizes its resources for continuing educational improvements and encompasses broad aspects regarding the schools quality. The key factors that influence the quality of a business school such as their mission, operations, faculty, facilities and other critical areas.

EQUIS: European Quality Improvement System: EQUIS is an accrediting institution under the European foundation for management development. EQUIS accredits schools based on general quality and school's level of internationalization.

AMBA: Association Of MBAs: It offers accreditation for the programs and not the schools.

South Asian Quality System (SAQS): SAQS accredits school in the SAARC region based on parameters like context and mission, programs, students, alumni, placement, research and development, faculty and staff, infrastructure etc.

Indian Accreditation System:

Indian Accreditation System of higher education falls under two categories:

NBA (National Board of Accreditation): NBA accredits programs based on well defined parameters. The accreditation system has undergone a change with effect from July, 2017. Some of the parameters are: Vision and Mission statements, Governance and leadership and financial resources, Program outcomes and Course outcomes, Curriculum and learning process, Student quality and performance, Faculty attributes and contributions, Industry and International connect, Infrastructure, Alumni performance and connect, Continuous improvement.

NAAC (National Assessment and Accreditation Council): NAAC undertakes accreditation of the institutes and the universities based on well defined parameters. The accreditation system has undergone a change with effect from July, 2017. Some of the parameters are: Curricular Aspects, Teaching-Learning and Evaluation, Research, Innovations and Extension, Infrastructure and Learning Resources, Student Support and Progression, Governance, Leadership and Management, Institutional Values and Best Practices.

c) Ranking:

Rankings have become a widespread phenomenon in an increasingly competitive world of higher education. They differ with regard to their aims, objectives, target groups, and with regard to their relationship to quality and quality assessment. Generally, rankings are an external assessment of the performance of higher education institutions; they enable transparency about systems of higher education.

Ranking is done for a variety of reasons, the most frequent being:

- To provide the public with information (whatever the specifics of the ranking format) on the standing of higher education institutions for individual or group decision-making (potential students, parents, politicians, foundations, funding agencies, research councils, employers, international organizations, etc);
- To foster healthy competition among higher education institutions.
- To provide additional evidence about performance of particular higher education institutions and / or study programs.
- To stimulate the evolution of centers of excellence.

To provide additional rationale for allocation of funds. Rankings can be important starting points to identify institutions with which to collaborate and partner. This includes the degree to which rankings and an emphasis on developing world-class universities.

Globally, rankings have been a recent phenomenon with universities. It started with Shanghai Jiao Tong University's effort to have a global ranking system in their Center for World-Class Universities (CWCU). The first Academic Ranking of World Universities (ARWU) was published in 2003. This initiative caught worldwide attention and many more such global ranking systems came into existence such as Quacquarelli Symonds (QS) and the Times Higher Education (THE) rankings.

The global rankings broadly look at academic excellence, faculty strength, research orientation, international outlook and placement. The weightings for different ranking systems vary based on the objective of the format and characteristics of the genre taken up for ranking.

Ranking of institutions in India:

Ranking of institutions in India is happening for quite some time with various magazines and newspapers on a set of parameters designed and developed by them. This has resulted into skewed information about the institutions on various parameters.

In order to bring transparency and competitiveness Ministry of HRD has approved and launched The National Institutional Ranking Framework by Honorable Minister of Human Resource Development on 29th September 2015.

This framework outlines a methodology to rank institutions across the country. The methodology draws from the overall recommendations; broad understanding arrived at by a Core Committee set up by MHRD, to identify the broad parameters for ranking various universities and institutions. The parameters broadly cover "Teaching, Learning and Resources," "Research and Professional Practices," "Graduation Outcomes," "Outreach and Inclusivity," & "Perception" (https://www.nirfindia.org/Docs/Ranking_Methodology_And_Metrics_2017.pdf)

The NIRF gives the ranking of institutions of higher education.

Integration: The review and analysis of all the three ingredients namely quality, accreditation and ranking brings out the parameters which we are focusing broadly on teaching, learning, research, academics, infrastructure, processes, competitiveness, faculty development and stakeholders satisfaction (indicative).

All the three ingredients are exclusive in terms of their own identity and complimenting each other in terms of performance parameters.

Quality Assurance, Accreditation and Ranking: Approach to stakeholder satisfaction:

The suggested model is based on stakeholder expectations, which is the expected outcome with well defined processes. The inputs are defined taking into the consideration the processes that are involved for stakeholder satisfaction. If the entire system is in place and is operated systematically, the benefits are quite evident. The institutional mechanism is influenced by management policy, regulatory framework, corporate expectations and the society in which we operate.

Conclusion: For the institution to succeed in a globally competitive world, it is essential that the institute understands the fundamental requirements of growth and sustainability. The suggested model is dynamic in nature and needs to be executed systematically.

Recommendations:

It is observed from the above that the parameters of quality assurance, accreditation and ranking has commonality covering major parameters related to academics, curriculum enrichment, research culture, stakeholders satisfaction (indicative).

One can have 60% to 70% parameters which are common for accreditation, ranking and Quality as applicable and balance percentage to individual ingredients. With the implementation of the suggested model, institutes and universities will be in a position to follow a systems approach with focus on continuous development and improvement.

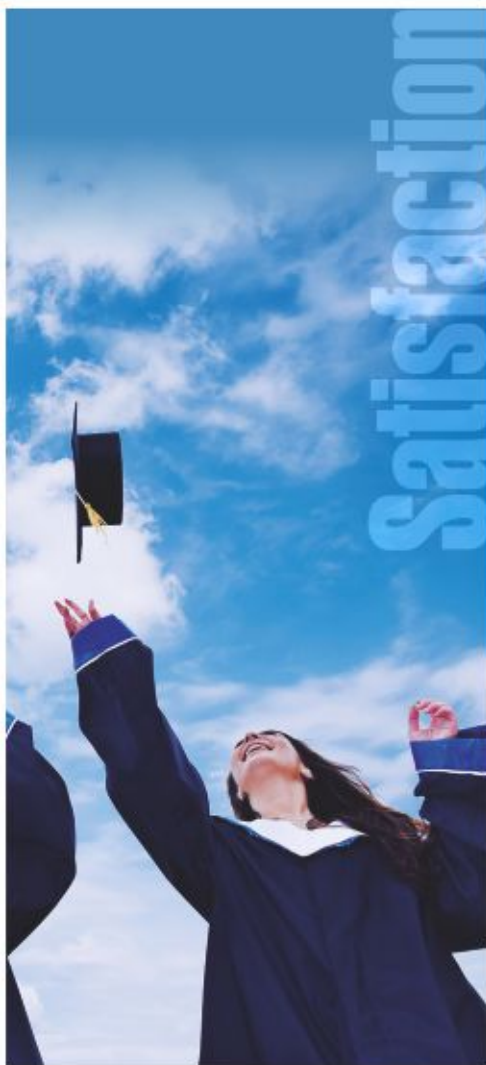

The entire approach will raise the standard and help institutes and universities to benchmark themselves globally.

It is suggested to develop a framework which will be applicable for ranking, accreditation and quality with variation to meet individual requirement.

Your contribution has helped us build various institutes of excellence with the best infrastructure that include state of the art computer labs, knowledge resource centre, communication centre, health centre, educational outlet, sports facilities and scholarships instituted for meritorious students. All our institutes have benefitted immensely from your support.

Undoubtedly, you as our esteemed donors have made Rajasthan Sammelan stand tall in stature and have helped it grow from time to time. Like you, there have been many others whose contribution to Rajasthan Sammelan way back in the early 1950s has been significant and notable. And we gratefully acknowledge their noteworthy contribution in setting up the edifice of this great institution.

We gratefully acknowledge the contribution made by Late Shri Kudilaji Seksaria who donated the land on which the current structure of Rajasthan Sammelan stands. This contribution cannot be valued in terms of money, and it would only undermine his contribution if we were to measure this in monetary terms.

At the same time, had it not been for the significant contribution of Rs. 50,000/- by Shri Brijmohan Ruia (Brijmohan Laxminarayan Ruia Charity Trust) way back around the year 1950, the landmark Sarvodaya Balika Vidyalaya would not have come up. A small dream way back in early 1950s has today paved the way for a number of institutions under the banner of Rajasthan Sammelan. As they say, "It all begins with a Dream".

We are proud to have you all as an integral part of the positive impact and an enduring legacy that we are creating at Rajasthan Sammelan. May your benevolence continue to bring about the change we wish to see in our educational system. We stand committed to spread our wings and fly higher. In this journey of growth, we seek your continued support.

We constantly endeavour to maintain accuracy in the list of donors and we thank you for the feedback in case of any discrepancy that has been noted. Should there be any errors or omissions in this list, we urge you to contact our Donations Officer on rs@rajasthan.org.in.
