Project Description

Aim:

1) Have fun and come together as a team. 2) To get a refreshment from their exams. 3) To know why fun is important and do enjoy have fun in whatever they do.

Groundwork and Flow of the Event:

After the hectic week of exams, we decided to organize an event which could provide some refreshment to everyone. So we organized an event which consisted of 2 games

Team 1 name was VIMAL(bolo zuban kesari)

Team 2 name was MACHO(bade aaram se)

Game 1: So in the first game we decided to make two teams basically with two leaders. It was about a quiz which included everyone's interest area like Bollywood, music, sports etc. Each member was given 2 lives with one right question: the winning team got to take a life from the losing team member, followed by what if they win twice? If any member from the losing team had lost all of his 2 lives, they were supposed to take a shot of a drink which had kerala, cucumber, mint, lime, red chilly which definitely was not tasty.

Game 2: The second game was also divided into two teams. And the leader of one team had to choose one person from his team and that person would come forward and that person could choose anyone from the other team which he thinks won't be able to compete against him/her in their area of talent. And if the other person couldn't complete their task then they lose and they lose one point. So basically it was a face of competition kind of game.

At the end of the event based on these two games, the winning team was decided. Team MACHO won both the

2. Spend quality time with children's to make their day special.

Groundwork and Flow of the Event:

When PARWAAH realised, we gathered all the other BODs and decided to prepared an impactful skit on "MALNUTRITION". All BODs were supportive and Active toward our skit and shared amazing ideas which helped us to make our skit more powerful and impactful. We and other BODs used to practice our skit on daily basis. Then we got on search for various NGOs and Orphanage, After that we found one that is "Rajendra honeycomb charitable trust" they Appreciated and permitted us to conduct our event. We started promoting our PR on regular basis. We the RCGSC were the first club to conduct the event in this trust after the two years of COVID.

On the Day of the event, we entered with much excitement and enthusiasm. We started interacting with all the children's to make them comfortable. On the other hands we were preparing with the attendance sheet. After that we started our event with the skit on MALNUTRITION, the skit went well as we expected. After the skit we played games with the children's we also distributed stationery to all the children's and, also handover the gift to the "Winner" of the "Game". After that also our BODs given performance by themselves like dancing, singing, poetry. to make the children's day precious. we also donated some cash and ended our event successful.

Impact Analysis:-

1. We able to convey our message to the children's to our skit clearly, not only children's but also all the members and all the other BODs got deeper knowledge about Malnutrition.
2. We made our day and there faces happy.
3. We asked questions from children's on the basis of malnutrition, and they gave Appropriate answers of our question , according to there point of view.

Follow Up and Feedback:

1. We Got feedback from Mr. Devendra Pratap Singh the founder of "Rajendra honeycomb charitable trust" he told us that he was very grateful that he gave us the chance to conduct our event he also added he and all the children's were so happy after seeing the efforts as they were totally involved in our all the activities.
