Extract of the circular received from University of Mumbai (Circular No- Exam/Unfair means/419/2015)

Date: 22nd September, 2015.

Subject: Precautions are required to be taken by the junior and senior supervisors while handling unfair means cases.

Following precautions to be taken while dealing with the students involved in unfair means cases:

1. Before the commencement of the exam students must be asked to keep away all such materials/ things which they are prohibited from carrying in the examination hall. (e.g.: Mobile phones, written study material in the form of chits and/or any other material carried by them for unfair means purpose).
2. Students must also be informed that if they are found in possession of any items/ materials specified above, their answer book along with the said item/material will be confiscated and sent to the Exam Committee.
3. Students must also be informed that carrying of mobile in the Examination Hall is strictly prohibited.
4. Even after giving the said instructions to the students, if he/she is found using unfair means, the following procedure will have to be followed :
 - i. Confiscate the answer book along with the material used by the student for copying purpose and use the form specified in Ordinance 0.5050.
 - ii. Obtain the following information from the said student:
 - a. Full Name of the Student
 - b. Complete Address of the Student along with Pincode.
 - c. Exam Seat No. of the Student.
 - d. Name of the Course & Semester for which the student is appearing.
 - e. Mobile No. & Residence Telephone No. of the student.
 - f. Email ID of the student.
 - g. Students mobile should be sent to the Exam Committee (if found copying from the mobile).
 - h. Copying material/item of the student.
 - i. Obtain signature of the student on the items/material used by the student for unfair means purpose.
 - j. Statement from the said student.

- iii. After completing the above formalities mentioned above, obtain remark from the junior supervisor, senior supervisor and chief convener in the specified form. Issue the same confiscated answer book once again to the student for writing the answers. Do not issue new answer book in order to avoid unnecessary confusion.
- iv. After the exam is over, the answer book of the student along with the form and the item/ material used for unfair means should be sealed in a separate envelope and handed over to the Unfair means Committee by stating UNFAIR MEANS CASE on the face of the envelope for further enquiry.
- v. If unfair means material is in the form of writing on desk, writing on hand or clothes, adjacent walls, etc. a photograph of the same should be obtained, signature of the student should be taken on the said photograph & sent along with the answer book.
- vi. Electronic devices such as mobiles, calculator etc. used for unfair means purpose should be sent along with the answer book to the Unfair means Committee.

You are required to follow the above instruction strictly because of which it will become easy for Unfair means Committee to carry out the further procedures while handling such cases.
