Ghanshyamdas Saraf college hosted webinar on “Being An Out-of-the-Box Achiever” Series hosted by Forum of Free Enterprise and powered by 24 Frames Digital, on 18/09/19 at 11.30 in Communication center, DSIMS. The webinar was attended by five students of E.Cell and two of the faculty members.

Forum of Free Enterprise was set up in 1956 by the late A. D. Shroff with the objective of educating public on free enterprise and its close relationship with the democratic way of life.

Out-of-the-Box Achievers are young passionate leaders under 50, who have embraced a cause and converted into an activity that is helping them, and communities as well as markets they work with become more monetarily and environmentally sustainable.

Mr. Navin Kale, Creative Head of a startup – Passion360 and Mr. Ashay Mahajan, Head of Operations and Finance of the startup – Passion360, two dynamic and versatile youngsters who have conceived “Swayam Talks”, a platform where interesting journeys of people, their failure and success stories and their ideas are shared in their own language. ‘Swayam Talks’ is a ‘Talk’s show’ being conducted for live audiences across Maharashtra.

Miss Swati Kapadia, CEO- Forum of Free Enterprise facilitated the session. In this webinar, Mr. Navin and Mr. Ashay shared interesting stories of their success, challenges they faced and the strategies they deployed to overcome the hurdles in their journey.

Swayam is not just another talk series. Its format and presentation are what make it a unique concept. Swayam's specialty lies in the effective presentation of inspirational and advanced thoughts on varied subjects like entrepreneurship, science & technology, social leadership, agriculture, environment, education, sports and more.\

The issues addressed were thought provoking, current and futuristic. The session concluded by answering the online queries from various participants including our college student.

Report on Field Visit to Igatpuri on 20th February 2016Subject: Rural Marketing*Class - SYBMSSummary

The BMS department organised a field trip for the Second Year Bachelor of Management Studies students as a part of their practical study for Rural Marketing.

The purpose of the trip was to understand the following concepts better:

- Rural Environment
- Rural Markets
- Rural consumer behavior

Report:

- The trip was planned as a One day excursion so the timing was 6:00 am – 5:00p.m.
- The students were accompanied by the subject faculty Prof. Heta Shah and 2 Core faculties from the college – Prof. Alok Hardikar and Prof. Mamta Chhajer..
- The students started their field survey as soon as they entered Igatpuri.
- The villages they visited were – Dhekale, Varai, Satiwali, Penta and Khodala.
- Each student had to personally fill up the survey form which included 70 questions regarding their Family, Lifestyle, Occupation, Education, Consumer Durables at Retail shops and Shopping Habits.
- It was noted by the students that as we penetrated the rural area the facilities reduced with each village.
- Many students found double or fake brands in the retail shops through which they understood the concept of Substitutes in the rural areas.
- They also visited a small school in the village of Varai wherein they discovered how the government had taken initiatives to encourage primary education by providing funds to the parents.
- As they filled their survey forms the students could understand rural consumer behaviour also.
- They were provided with simple breakfast and lunch during the visit.

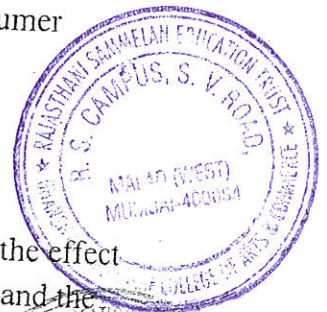

Conclusion

As a subject faculty Prof. Heta shah commented that she as usual “was amazed at the effect the environment had on the students. It is through this visit that they could understand the concepts taught in class in a much practical manner.”

REPORT ON INDUSTRIAL VISIT TO INDIAN SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Ghanshyamdas Saraf College organised a one-day Industrial Visit to the Indian School of Management & Entrepreneurship, Lower Parel, Mumbai for the Third Year students of BMS/B.Com (Accounting & Finance)/B.Com (Banking & Insurance)/B.Com (Financial Markets) and B.Sc - IT on the 11th of February, 2017.

The students along with Faculty members started off from the College premises at 8.30 am after a quick breakfast provided by the College. On reaching the venue, all were warmly greeted by the Marketing Manager of ISME Mr. Vishal Sama, Who then proceeded to guide the Faculty & Students of Saraf College to their Management School premise on the 7th Floor which houses the accelerator section. The infrastructure and design of the Management School was astounding and created a lasting impact on all.

The Founder of ISME, Dr. Indu Shahani welcomed the gathering with her words of wisdom followed by some sessions arranged by their efficient team.

The session was divided into five parts:

- Management Games
- Seminar
- Group Discussion
- Master Class Lecture
- Sample Entrance Test Paper

The Faculty of ISME created a fun-filled environment by engaging the students with Management games on Innovation, Leadership, Communication, Team work, Design Skill, Motivation, etc wherein they involved the students and got them to realise that everyone has some hidden creative potential which one needs to realise and this would in turn go a long way in finding an entrepreneur in every person.

A seminar was conducted where they briefed the students about the courses that their School offered.

A group Discussion was also held by Ms. Bulbul of ISME which was highly interactive and informative and the bright students of Saraf College actively participated in the same.

A Master class lecture taken by Mr. Omkar, co-founder of the venture Desi Hangover who took a session on the topic "Start-up v/s Danda". He enlightened the students with a key funda to attract investors with a start-up idea and that was "To present an idea to the investor in not more than seven words", which should be catchy, concise and arouse the curiosity of the investor. The rest should be explained only when questions start pouring in from the investors' end.

The students were finally given a sample question paper to crack which would help them clear the mandatory entrance test in case the students are interested to enrol in their Entrepreneurship course in the near future.

The Industrial Visit concluded with the students being awarded Participation certificates and being served with snacks.

To sum up, the Industrial Visit to ISME was a huge success. In all a total of 115 students visited ISME. The faculties accompanying the students were Prof. Gurunathan, Prof. Prasanna Choudhari, Prof. Prajna Shetty and Prof. Sneha Khajane.

WOMEN DEVELOPMENT CELL

REPORT ON A TALK ON IMPACT OF 'SOCIAL MEDIA ON HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS'

Women Development Cell organized a talk on 'Impact of Social Media on Healthy Relationships' by Dr. Dharav Shah (M.D. Consultant Psychiatrist) on 6th October, 2018 in Durgadevi Saraf Auditorium from 9.30 am to 10.30 am.

The aim of the talk was to spread awareness on the ill effects of social media, like Whatsapp, Facebook, Youtube etc on the minds of the young generation. He stressed that youth should have self-perception about themselves not depend on the social media to give them a positive response. He also said that they should not get carried away by peer pressure and get into alcoholism during parties as it can lead to accidents and addictions. He also said pornography is one of the causes of rising brutal rape cases in the society.

Social media can be accessed for getting helpful information in various fields, but one has to be cautious about its blind acceptance without personal judgement.

This talk was successfully concluded by receptive audience of students from First Year (B.Com and Self - Finance) courses and teaching staff.
