An intra-college Hindi Poetry Recitation competition was held at our college via online platform on 5th February, 2021. The competition had been organised in the guidance of Prof. Preeti Jha. The judge for the day was Prof. Pooja Singh. Beauty is the realm of poetry, children enjoy the beauty of expression, thoughts, feeling, rhyme, rhythm and music of words. Taking all these facts into consideration the students got an opportunity to exhibit their talent and confidence. The competition inspired the students to come forward and recite their poetry. The students came up with different poems and recited them with great zeal and enthusiasm. The audience highly appreciated the competition. The final judgment was made by our judge. From SYBSCIT, Sachin Pandey stood first, where as, Neha Yadav of FYBCOM secured the second position and Pinkesh Prajapati of TYBCOM secured the third position. Drishti Singh of FYBCOM and Preet Rathod from FYBMS were awarded with a consolation prize. The competition ignited the lamps of enthusiasm towards Hindi literature in the minds of participants and audiences.
