Project Description

Aim:

- 1) The aim of the project "Rangeela Manch" was to arrange a comprehensive and eloquent campaign that serves as a beacon for societal enlightenment.
- 2) Through a complicated tapestry of education and outreach, our paramount aim was to illuminate the vibrant tapestry of the LGBTQIA+ community, inviting individuals from all walks of life to embark on a journey of discovery and understanding.
- 3) The other aim of the event was to localize the voice for the community and people in common.
- 4) Organizing a day out and having a fun Sunday Street performance, to engaged people with us and thus to make it more feasible and more convenient to raise awareness.
- 5) To target wide range of audience, present on the streets of Marine lines and to have a quick Question and answer session on Gender Equality while having fun.

Process and Execution:

Process:

Rangeela Manch: Where diversity met unity and inclusivity became the heartbeat of the event. Our director, Rtr. Aakanksha Purohit took the initiative to create "Rangeela Manch" with a clear vision. After gaining approval, she diligently crafted a PR message and a JPEG, complemented by a Google form link for gathering crucial information. This initiative aimed to raise awareness about LGBTQIA+ issues and was open to both Rotaractors and Non-Rotaractors, underlining its commitment to promoting Rotaract and LGBTQIA+ awareness.

To facilitate effective communication, a dedicated WhatsApp group was established for participants, ensuring seamless updates. Additionally, our chairperson developed comprehensive guidelines, providing participants with detailed instructions for an enjoyable event.

In terms of activities, Rtr. Aakanksha Purohit, LGBTQIA+ Cell Director, had already curated a set of engaging questions and games designed to brighten someone's day.

Execution:

On a bright and sunny September 17th, an event like no other unfolded at Marine Lines. The event kicked off with an exhilarating journey as attendees arrived at the vibrant Marine Lines. Eager participants, both young and old, were greeted with enthusiasm, setting the tone for an extraordinary day. Our first order of business was to approach random strangers and engage them in conversations about LGBTQIA+ topics. This spontaneous interaction proved to be an eye-opening experience, as it revealed the rich tapestry of thoughts and opinions within the crowd and then we met an influencer, and we asked them questions too as we can get an insight of the thought about what people think of the LGBTQIA+ community.

One of the highlights of the day was the "Random Compliments" game. Participants showered each other with heartfelt compliments, brightening the atmosphere and fostering a sense of goodwill. This activity reminded everyone of the simple joy that comes from spreading positivity.

Breaking Down Barriers:

In our "Language Exchange" game, we celebrated diversity by inviting participants to share a sentence in their native language. This delightful exercise bridged cultural divides and reinforced the importance of embracing linguistic diversity.

Fun and Games:

To add an extra layer of fun to the day, we organized a spirited game of "Dog and Ball" with participants. Laughter echoed across the venue as people chased after the ball and unleashed their playful side. It was a fantastic opportunity to relax, bond, and let loose.

A Deeper Connection:

As the day progressed, it became evident that the questions about LGBTQIA+ topics had ignited a genuine interest among the participants. The community's diversity of perspectives and experiences was celebrated, fostering understanding and empathy.

Overall, the day was filled with enthusiasm, fun, learning, pictures, rain, amusement and a whole lot of memories which refilled our hearts with unforgettable joy.

'Rangeela Manch' itself portrays colorful stage which showcases the vibrant spirits each one of us possess and to carry that energy on the very stage of our life. It is to make our persona even more spectacular and accept the unfolding truths of life.

The event came to an end with club and district shoutout and our President Rtr. Ashwarya Thanvi adjourning the event.

Impact Analysis:

- 1) Participants gained a deeper understanding of LGBTQIA issues, fostering greater awareness and empathy.
- 2) Attendees developed a heightened sense of empathy by engaging in open discussions and activities, allowing them to better understand the challenges faced by LGBTQIA+ individuals.
- 3) The event expanded participants' horizons as they learned about different cultures and languages through the language exchange game, promoting a more inclusive worldview.
- 4) Participants left the event with more positive attitudes towards LGBTQIA+ individuals, emphasizing the importance of respect and acceptance.
- 5) The event fostered a sense of unity within the community, as attendees connected with strangers and influencers alike, reinforcing the notion that acceptance and support are powerful forces for change.
- 6) Through different opinions and ideas of people on Gender equality, we got a wide range of thoughts and got to know a generalized notion people carry for it.

Follow Up and Feedback:

1. "I had an amazing time at the event! It was eye-opening to learn more about LGBTQIA issues through fun games and discussions. I left with a greater understanding and appreciation for diversity."
2. "The event was a breath of fresh air. Playing the compliment game and the language exchange really brought our community closer together. I feel more connected to my neighbors now."

SKIT PLAY

Project Basic Details

- Project Name: Skit Play
- Venue: Malad Masti
- Start Date & Time: 24th December 7:00am
- End Date & Time: 24th December 9:00 am
- Avenue 1: LGBTQIA+
- Avenue 2:
- Project Level: Club
- Project Hours: 2 hrs
- Reporting Month: December
- Quarter: 2

Project Description

Aim:

The aim of the LGBTQIA+ skit play was to strongly emphasize understanding, acceptance, and inclusion. Through authentic storytelling, the project aimed to challenge stereotypes, evoke empathy, and spark conversations, ultimately contributing to a more compassionate and inclusive society.

Process and Execution:

Process:

The skit play started by finding talented folks who could really get into the LGBTQIA+ theme. We then worked on a story that honestly covered the diverse experiences within the LGBTQIA+ community. After getting the green light for the script, the next step was the dedicated practice.

The cast didn't just memorize lines; they dug into the emotions of the characters and the overall message. The goal was to create a performance that felt real and connected with the audience. The whole process, directed with a vision, made sure we delivered a skit play that genuinely portrayed the LGBTQIA+ experience.

Execution:

On the 24th of December, at Malad Masti, the event kicked off with a buzz of excitement. All the participants, after putting in their final rehearsal, were geared up for the main performance. As the event unfolded, participants took their designated positions, and the skit play commenced.

narrative unfolded seamlessly, captivating the audience's attention. The crowd became actively engaged, prompting an unexpected but delightful decision to perform the skit play a second time, responding to the audience's enthusiastic demand.

EVENT HIGHLIGHT

The poignant story of two lesbians navigating the challenges of societal non-acceptance. The plot unfolded as the two girls married, but when they approached one girl's mother, she vehemently rejected their relationship, disowning her daughter. The societal backlash intensified with taunts and comments. However, a neighbor eventually convinced the mother that society would eventually come around.

In the end, a powerful speech emphasized the struggles faced by the LGBTQIA+ community, urging support for their gender identity and sexual orientation. The skit was followed by a heartwarming dance performance, depicting the couple's happiness and resilience. The event left a lasting impact, not only entertaining the audience but also fostering awareness and understanding of the challenges faced by the LGBTQIA+ community.

Impact Analysis:

The skit touched people's hearts. It made them feel for the characters and the challenges they faced. The story about love and rejection hit home, and the audience connected with the struggles of the LGBTQIA+ community. The decision to perform the skit again showed how much the audience wanted to experience those emotions once more.

The speech about supporting LGBTQIA+ individuals added weight to the performance, leaving a message that stuck with people. The happy dance at the end brought smiles and a sense of hope. Overall, the skit play left people thinking and talking, creating a positive impact by fostering understanding and empathy.

Follow Up and Feedback:

1. The play was really touching. It made me think about how tough it can be for some people. The characters felt real, and I loved the happy dance at the end.*
2. I liked that the play talked about important stuff. It was emotional, and doing it twice was cool. It let us feel those moments again.*
3. The event opened my eyes. The play wasn't just for fun; it showed how hard it is for some people. The talk at the end was like a call to help, and the dance made me smile.*

4. I enjoyed the event a lot. The play made me think about things. It showed the struggles people go through, and the message at the end was inclusive and positive.*

Project Description

Aim:

•To create awareness about the International Day of elimination of Violence against women. •To imbibe young girls with basic self defense techniques, for thier safety and security.

Groundwork and Flow of the Event:

Our IS director decided to plan an event on 25th November, the day that signifies elimination of violence against women.

As rightly said "The best way to eliminate violence is fight against it , we decided to teach the girls some basic self defense techniques , with the help of our fellow rotractors who are trained martial artists, Rtr. Advait tawde (sports director) and Rtr. Vaibhav. Since we neended a soft ground for effective teaching, we decided to use a nearby garden (Sundar nagar Garden) , whose president, Mr.

Anil Dalvi was kind enough to give us the permission.

We had an amazing opportunity to partner up with 'Nirbhaya Squad'.

A P.R. message was circulated around the GBM groups regarding the event , which mentioned the details and timings of the same.

The event started on time with all of us singing the national anthem.

The girls were taught some self defense techniques, and our members were actively listening and learning. After being taught the members were asked to practice so that they register the techniques in their mind. We followed the event by welcoming Miss. Manee-sha Kagalkar, Nirbhaya squad member, who came and informed us that after calling the nirbahaya squad thier officials will be present on the location within 7 minutes to help the person in need. She even shared a helpline number with us 103. The event ended with a word of thanks by our vice president.

Impact Analysis:

Our participants (who were majorly girls) learnt basic self defense techniques, which would help them protect themselves or even a friend in need.

Self-defense gives the tools and skills they need to confidently assess a dangerous situation and navigate effectively.

Self-defense improves focus and concentration. As a result, it teaches participants to focus in stressful situations.

Self-defense will enhance awareness of their surroundings. One never know when it might happen; No one plans to be attacked, so participants must always be on the lookout of their surroundings.

As it is said that "A learning curve is essential for growth". One should not miss a chance to learn something new in life. In the end, it all comes down on perspective and your willingness to learn something new. By learning new things you tend to revolve around encouraging your successes and accepting your defeats as in today's world both are important to engage in a healthy lifestyle.

Follow Up and Feedback:

Participants were very happy with the concept of event. They all were astonish with different techniques of self defence. They found the event very helpful as well as enjoyable.

Some suggested to conduct the event at bigger scale in order to help the society and spread the awareness.

The launch was followed by a fruitful session on 'Cyber Crimes and Cyber Laws' by Ms. Sonali Patankar, Chairman, Responsible Netism who laid emphasis on understanding the various kinds of cyber frauds and crimes that threaten the security of a person in a digital realm. Ms. Patankar specifically elaborated on cybercrimes against women, ranging from hacking of bank and social media accounts, to identity theft, cyber stalking, body shaming, cyber bullying and sharing of obscene content for harassment. The speaker also criticized the obsessive culture of 'selfie' that has many young boys and girls uploading their pictures on social media to seek validation for their physical attributes. The easy availability of these pictures to hackers, Ms. Patankar pointed out, pose an extreme threat to the security of a person's data. The speaker provided an in-depth explanation of each cybercrime, and supported it with case studies. She expressed the need to tackle these crimes immediately, owing to their consequences on victims ranging from low self-esteem, to panic attacks, depression and suicidal tendencies. Ms. Patankar concluded her session with an appeal to young girls to have a mindful engagement with internet and technology and report cybercrimes to the authorities.

The presentation on cybercrimes and laws was followed by a session on 'Security in Cyberspace' by Mr. Umesh Joshi, Responsible Netism who provided a detailed explanation of various security norms that one needs to abide by in cyberspace. The speaker started with highlighting the crucial role of internet and communication technology in modern life, especially, given the current scenario of being in quarantine. He pointed out that the scope for misinformation and fake news is rampant on social media, given its reach and speed of communication. Mr. Joshi demonstrated the proper use of safety features on various social media accounts, elaborating on the need to update them, owing to the rise in cybercrimes. These safety measures included privacy settings for pictures, videos, location, and limiting unknown audience to one's profile. He also stressed on updating applications and protecting one's data with anti-virus software that blocks malware and phishing sites.

The session concluded with a Q & A session which was effectively hosted by Prof. Bhavana Vaidya, Administrator, GSCC, DSJC and LRMC.

Concept

(Un) Beautiful Bodies : reclaiming ourselves

It may not be Fair and Lovely anymore but our notions of beauty and body have not changed too much. Why are we so dissatisfied with our skin tones and body size? Who sets the standards of beauty? What influences our relationship with our bodies? The Body is a social construction molded by the cultural matrix of caste, class and sexuality. And our notions of beauty reflect the dominant patriarchal and hetero-normative ideologies of our society. Popular culture, the market and media propagate them and we reproduce them in our daily interactions.

Speakers/ panelists:

Stand-up Comedian Kajol Srinivasan,
Brand Consultant Geeta Rao,
Asst Professor, Pune University, Sneha Gole,
LGBTQI Activist Daniel Mendonca,
UWDC Mumbai University, Gita Chadha, Moderator for the session.

The Webinar

Kajol Srinivasan has been doing comedy for 3 years now. She is an alumna of the first ever artists' residency organized by Akshara and the US consulate on women's empowerment.

The webinar began with Kajol's stand up skit on the subject of beauty. It was hilarious and a great way of introducing the sensitive issue of body image, fat shaming and reclaiming our bodies to the audience.

Geeta Rao is Creative Director, Geeta's List. She has worked in different media companies including Ogilvy and Condé Nasts. She is part of the teaching faculty at Sophia SCM where she teaches advertising and brand communication.

Geeta spoke about the cultural rootedness of fairness, the concept of beauty moving from face to body, the rise of 'lookism', what reclaiming really means from a beauty perspective, power of consumer to hold brands accountable.

Dr. Sneha Gole teaches at the Krantijyoti Savitribai Phule Women's Studies Centre, SPPU. Her research areas are social movements, with a particular focus on women's movements, gender and development, gender and culture.

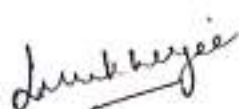

She covered a vast expanse in her discussion from caste, desirability, affective networks and access and mobility. Sneha elucidated how notions of beauty were essentially interlinked to caste; the question of caste central in understanding which bodies are included and others excluded.

Daniel Mendonca (she/her), is India's first Intersex individual to represent at United Nations in 2014 and also the first Intersex Indian Tedx speaker.

She brought to the audience an impassioned personal account. She spoke about the ways in which Bollywood appropriates LGBTQI narratives without actually giving platform to people, artists from the community. Daniel also shared what reclaiming bodies really means to her as someone representing the LGBTQI community.

Dr. Gita Chadha is a Professor in Sociology, University of Mumbai. She has been working on 'Feminism and Science' for about two decades. Gita Chadha was an excellent moderator weaving all these perspectives and narratives together for the audience.

A lot of engaging questions were asked by the participants on caste, religion and how it shapes patriarchal notions. Some specific questions directed on conscious consumerism when it comes to brands to Geeta Rao, Sneha was asked questions related to caste and how cinema and media as a space is regulating bodies. Daniel answered questions about religion, sexuality, and representation of the masculine god figures.

Video-Making Competition Report

Women's Development Cell of Ghanshyamdas Saraf College of Arts and Commerce organized a Video-Making Competition for its students of B.Com and Self Finance on Saturday, 10th October 2020.

The topic given to the students was- 'Love Thyself- Countering Body Shaming'. The students made a one-minute video using pictures, text messages, and voiceovers. They compiled the video on www.renderforest.com, a website that provides free templates for video-making.

Messages in the video covered various topics related to body-shaming like importance of physical and mental fitness, self-esteem, and self-acceptance. The theme was carefully selected considering the rise in body-shaming in social circles, and the cyber space. The competition was an attempt to sensitize the students about body-shaming, and instil in them the confidence to fight inferiority complex owing to one's body.

The Competition was judged by Prof. Sneha Khajane. The winners of the competition were- First- Ms. Pooja Keni (TYBCOM- C), Second- Mr. Sahil Shit (FYBMS- B), and Third- Ms. Neha Sharma (TYBMS- A).
