Purpose:

The Research Committee is constituted to promote and strengthen research culture in the institution. It aims to motivate faculty members and students to engage in quality research, publications, and academic collaborations. The committee also strives to enhance research capabilities and ensure adherence to ethical research practices.

Key Roles:

The committee will plan, promote, and monitor research activities within the institution. It will encourage faculty and students to undertake research projects, organize workshops, seminars, and training programs related to research methodology, and facilitate publication in reputed journals. The committee will also guide researchers in obtaining funding, patents, and maintaining research quality and ethics.
